

GENERAL ANNOUNCEMENT.

The eighth Session of this University, under its amended charter, will commence in the Autumn of 1860. The Classes in the Faculty of Arts will open on the 6th of September, those in the Medical and Law Faculties, on the first Monday of November, those in the High School Department, on the 1st of September, and those in the McGill Normal School on the 1st of September.

The course of study in the University and the distinctions which it offers, may be summed up as follows :—

1. The Faculty of Law.—The lectures in this faculty comprise a complete course of legal study, with especial reference to the Law of Lower Canada, and lead to the degrees of B.C.L. and D.C.L.

2. The Faculty of Medicine embraces in its lectures and demonstrations all the necessary and important branches of a Medical education, leading to the degree of M.D.

3. The Faculty of Arts.—The undergraduate course in Arts offers a thorough Classical and Mathematical training, with adequate provision for the study of Logic, Mental and Moral Science, Natural Science and Modern Literature, leading to the degrees of B.A. and M.A. Ample provision has also been made for honour studies, and many facilities are offered to enable students in Law and Medicine to take the degree of B.A. Partial courses of study are provided for students not desirous of taking the whole course.

4. The Special Course of Engineering, connected with the Faculty of Arts, has been perfected by the experience of four Sessions, and offers to students of that profession the necessary scientific training, and the diploma of Graduate in Civil Engineering.

5. In the High School Department, the course embraces a good English education in all its branches, with the French and German languages, and the Classical and Mathematical instruction necessary to enter the University.
