On thy cold gray stones, O Sea!
And I would that my tongue could utter
The thoughts that arise in me.
O well for the fisherman's boy,
That he shouts with his sister at play!
O well for the sailor lad,
That he sings in his boat on the bay!
And the stately ships go on
To their haven under the hill;
But O for the touch of a vanish'd hand,
And the sound of a voice that is still!
Break, break, break,
At the foot of thy crags, O Sea!
But a tender grace of a day that is dead
Will never come back to me.
—TENNYSON.

Scott Act in Moncton.

The Scott Act Inspector for this county has been threatened quite frequently of late. He says a woman whose husband keeps a saloon on Duke street, Moncton, told him that if anything happened her husband as a result of Scott Act prosecutions, "his life would not be worth two cents." Another Moncton saloon keeper has also threatened the officer and has admitted that a scheme was put up in his house to waylay and kill him, but some of the parties "weakened." It is said that two parties recently sentenced to the penitentiary made a confession to Jailer Bowes at Dorchester that an effort was made to hire them to do the job.—Sackville Post.
