THE TURF.

The Races at Moospath Friday.

The exhibition races opened at Moospath park Friday afternoon.
The weather was pleasant enough, but the track was very heavy as a result of the rain of the previous day. This made fast time out of the question, in fact it was very much against some of the horses. The attendance was large, the grand stand being well filled. The open space between the fence and the grand stand was almost fully occupied. A portion of the open space in the centre of the park was also taken up by teams. The crowd complained some about the waits between heats, but neither the management or judges were responsible for them. It was the fault of the officials who will see to it that the horses come out promptly when the bell is rung. It is to be hoped they will be successful.

The races set down for Thursday were the 2.45 and 2.55 classes, and the last mentioned event was the only one finished. It was won by Campaigne of the Lone Star stables, Quebec, in straight heats.
Best time 1.51. Monmouth fell in the first heat and was thus proved from trying conclusions with the Quebec horse. Donna Perfecta was second, being ridden by Stanley Willis.

Four heats of the 2.45 class were trotted. Chartreuse captured the first one, Jen M. the second, Bijou the third and then Chartreuse placed another heat to her credit. The fastest time was made in the first heat. This race will be finished this afternoon and may possibly be even further split up.

Katrina won two heats in the 2.25 class, clearly proving her superiority over the whole party under the existing conditions. Her best time was 2.23-5, but when the condition of the track is taken into consideration it is not so bad.

The spectators saw two novel sights during the afternoon. The first one was when Monmouth stumbled and fell on the first turn, throwing his rider.
Then the horse started again and continued the race and did not stop until he had finished the full mile.
Dave Stockford stopping him. He finished ahead of Bijou, but was set back to last place.

The officials were J. Fred Watson starter, E. L. Jewett, D. F. George of Fredericton and H. Graham of St.
Stephen Judges, W. S. Jewett and John Wilson timers.

The 2.45 race was called first, the starters being Sir Wilkie, Bijou, Char-treuse, Lord Dufferin, Westwind, Jen M., Bellnut and Mambrino Dudley, Jr.
In the first heat Lord Dufferin got away ahead and hugged close to the pole with Chartreuse second. At the half Dufferin still led, Chartreuse was second, Bellnut third, Mambrino Dudley fourth and Jen M. fifth. The others were away behind. Lord Dufferin and Chartreuse had a desperate battle from this out. Down the back stretch they went so close together that one blanket would have covered both. Up into the home stretch they wheeled head and head and from that out it was a hardly fought race. Mambrino Dudley and Bijou (who had trotted from last place) came thundering after them in the order named. Dufferin was holding his own as they neared the wire, but he broke less than twenty yards from it. Chartreuse passed the little Woodstock stallion and won with Mambrino Dudley second and Bijou third, drivers Carroll and Henderson taking advantage of Dufferin's break.
Dufferin got fourth place and Bellnut.
Jen M. and Sir Wilkie and Westwind finished in the order named. The time was 2.32-5.

In the second heat there were only seven starters, Westwind being drawn.
Jen M. collared the lead right off Bell-nut, Chartreuse and Mambrino Dudley chasing her in grand style. At the half Jen M. still led, Chartreuse pushing her hard for the leadership. On the back stretch Chartreuse got up even with Jen M. and they fought a battle well worth seeing. Close upon Stockford's wheel Chartreuse's driver kept her, but she was unable to overtake the Fredericton mare, who won by a length in 2.43, with Chartreuse second, Sir Wilkie third, Bijou fourth, Mambrino Dudley fifth, Bellnut sixth, and Lord Dufferin last.

While scoring for the third heat Bijou and Sir Wilkie collided, the latter's bike being deprived of a wheel.
The new one had to be obtained. When the horses at last got off they went into the back stretch all in a bunch.
Jen M. pulled out from among them after a bit. Lord Dufferin followed suit, and away from the rest of the party they sailed. Dufferin then fell back, and Bijou and Sir Wilkie came up to do battle with Jen M. and at the half the three were on almost even terms. A break by Bijou gave Jen M. the lead, and the former fell behind Stockford's mare as well. These positions remained unchanged till on the home stretch, when Bijou went for Sir Wilkie and passed him, winning the heat in 2.40 1-5. Sir Wilkie was only a few feet behind her. Chartreuse beat Jen M. out on the home stretch and got third. After Jen M. came Bell-nut, Mambrino Dudley and Lord Dufferin in the order named.

E. LeRoy Willis held the reins over Lord Dufferin in the fourth heat and sent him away well in advance of his opponents. Chartreuse and Bellnut seemed the only horses to have a chance of winning. Sir Wilkie, without a driver, got in between these three horses and the other three, thus keeping the latter back somewhat. Lord Dufferin held the lead until very close to the wire, when Chartreuse and Bellnut shot past him and won first and second places. Mambrino Dudley came next, Jen M. fifth and Bijou sixth. Sir Wilkie finished as stated above and was not distanced. The time was 2.41-1-5. Carroll claimed that Bellnut fouled him, but the judges did not let this influence them in their judgment.

The running race was got off be-starters being Campaigne, Jumpaway, Donna Perfecta, Monmouth and Reckless.

Jumpaway led for time, then Donna Perfecta got the position. Campaigne was set after her. They ran a long distance neck and neck, but on the home stretch Campaigne passed the other horses and won. Donna Perfecta was second, Monmouth third and Reckless fourth. The time was 2.23-5.

The fifth heat of the 2.45 class was won by Campaigne, who was set after her. She won in 2.45, with Chartreuse second, Monmouth third and Reckless fourth. The time was 2.45-5.

The 2.25 class brought out Rose L, Eudora, Katrina, C. P. R. and De-celver.

A protest was handed in against Deceler on the ground that his entry was irregular. Mr. Dean says he posted the letter containing the entry on the 17th, the day the entry was made, but that he neglected to stamp the envelope. It went to the dead letter office at Ottawa. The letter has not yet come into Secretary Frink's hands.
Postmaster Hanington says the letter came in on the night of the 17th and was forwarded to Ottawa. Mr. Dean claims that he was not responsible for the failure of the entry to reach Dr. Frink. The race therefore was trotted under protest.

In the first heat Rose L, who had the pole, moved away from the others very rapidly, and was leading at the quarter pole. Deceler was second, Eudora (who was driven by Willis) third, Katrina fourth and C. P. R. fifth. away behind. Rose L. then fell behind, and at the half Deceler, Eudora and Katrina were fighting hard for the supremacy. Katrina outfooted Deceler and was leading at the three-quarters pole. The three mares got away together, but a break by Bijou put her away behind. Jen M. got the lead and kept it up to the third quarter pole. When the horses rounded the turn and entered the home stretch, Bijou passed Chartreuse and then began to overhaul Jen M. It was a
