Poetry.

SONG—THE HAZEL DELL.

In the Hazel Dell my Nelly's sleeping,
Nelly loved so long;
And my lonely watch I'm keeping,
Nelly lost and gone.

CHORUS.

All alone my watch I'm keeping,
In the Hazel Dell;
For my darling Nelly's near me sleeping,
Nelly dear, farewell.

Here in moonlight often we have wander'd
Thro' the silent shade;
Now where leafy branches, drooping downward,
Little Nelly's laid.

Chorus, &c.

In the Hazel Dell my Nelly's sleeping,
Where the flowers wave;
And the silent stars are nightly weeping,
O'er poor Nelly's grave.

Chorus, &c.

Hopes that once my bosom fondly cherished,
Smile no more on me;
Ev'ry dream of joy alas has perished,
Nelly dear, with thee.

Chorus, &c.

Now I'm weary, friendless and forsaken,
Watching here alone;
Nelly thou no more will fondly cheer me,
With thy loving tone.

Chorus, &c.

Yet forever shall thy gentle image,
In my memory dwell;
And my tears thy lonely grave shall moisten,
Nelly dear, farewell.

Chorus.

SMITING OF THE ROCK.

He smote the Rock—the waters gushed
From out its adamantine side,
Whither the people wildly rushed
To quaff the life sustaining tide;
And Israel's murmuring voice was hushed,
Their thirst was slaked their wants supplied,
And Moses, their great leader, now no longer they deride.

They drank—their wonted strength returned,
The soul depressing, scorching thirst,
That in their fevered breasts had burned,
Had made them feel as lost—accurst!—
But now those bitter thoughts they spurned,
And from each lip thanksgivings burst,
In accent milder far than those in which they spoke at first.

THE WORLD.

This world of ours was never planned
To be a world of sadness—
What beauty smiles on every hand,
To fill the heart with gladness.

The lake, the stream, the wood the field,
The fair sequestered bower,
All, all peculiar pleasure yield,—
I've felt their thrilling power.

Fond scenes in beautiful array
Are kindly spread before us;
All nature speaks and seems to say
A God is watching o'er us.

O, did we all a heart possess
To love and kindness given,
Each face would beam with happiness,
Earth would resemble heaven.

VARIETY.

A Lesson for Wives.—The following touching, simple sorrowful memorial of his wife, was written by one of the greatest statesmen in England—Sir J. Mackintosh—in a private letter to a friend; —"She was a woman," he writes, who, by tender management of my weaknesses, gradually corrected the most pernicious of them. She became prudent from affection; and though of the most generous nature, she was taught frugality and economy by her love for me. During the most critical period of my life, she preserved order in my affairs, from the care of which she relieved me. She gently reclaimed me from the dissipation, she propped my weak and irresolute nature, she urged my indolence to all the exertions that have been useful and creditable to me, and she was perpetually at hand to admonish my heedlessness and improvidence. To her I owe whatever I shall be. In her solicitude for my interest, she never for a moment forgot my character. Her feelings were warm and impetuous, but she was peaceable, tender and constant. Such was she whom I have lost; and I have lost her when a knowledge of her worth had refined my youthful love into friendship, before age had deprived it of much of its original ardour. I seek relief, and I find it, in the consolatory opinion that a benevolent wisdom inflicts the chastisement, as well as bestows the enjoyment of human life; that this dreary and wretched life is not the whole of man; that a being capable of such proficiency in science and virtue, is not like the beasts, that there is a dwelling place prepared for the spirits of the just; and that the ways of God will yet be vindicated to man."

Be Kind to the Old.—There is too little respect and love shown towards old people now-a-days. They are too generally treated as out of date, and useless 'back numbers' of the great gazette of humanity, and only fit to be cast aside to perish in neglect while fresher issues monopolize our attention and regard. This should not be. The old have claims on the young, and strong and hopeful, which can not be dishonored with impunity. He who does not respect and cherish them, for their own sake, shall not be respected and cherished when, in his turn, he totters with feeble steps adown the steep and rugged declivity which leads from the summit of the hill of life to the grave, over which chill winds so constantly sweep, and upon which only feeble sitting rays ever shine. It is on that bleak and forbidding stretch of life journey that one most needs the cheering influence of affection and gratitude; and from him who withholds them from others, shall they be withheld in return.

The Cords of Love.—Religion is the golden chain which God lets down from heaven, with a link for every person who wills, inviting each to take hold, that you may be drawn up it to himself. You can readily perceive how disagreeable it would be to be linked to one whom you dislike, and drawn by him whithersoever he wills; but you would gladly be drawn and guided in everything by the person you ardently loved. There is this difference between the christian and the sinner.—However reluctant and full of hatred, still the sinner is controlled by the God. The christian is equally in his hands, but is drawn by the cords of love.

Keep your Sabbath.—Be jealous on this point. Whether you live in town or country, resolve not to profane your Sabbath. Care not for your Sabbath, and in the end you will give over caring for your soul. The steps which lead to this are regular. Begin with not honoring God's day, and you will not honor God's house; cease to honor God's book, and by-and-bye you will give God no honor at all. Let any one lay the foundation with no Sabbath, and I am never surprised if he finishes with the top-stone of no God. It was a remarkable saying of Judge Hale, that of all persons convicted of capital crimes while he was upon the bench, he found few who did not confess that they began their career of wickedness by neglect of the Sabbath.

An attorney was accused of stealing a silver punch ladle. The judge thought it could not have been done by a lawyer, or else he would have taken the punch bowl also.

Shutting the eyes makes the hearing more acute. This accounts for so many closed eyes at church.

Clerical Error—Preaching a sermon 3 quarters of an hour long on a hot Sunday.

"What's whisky bringing?" inquired a dealer in that article. "Bringing men to the gallows," was the reply.

HEALTH OR SICKNESS!
CHOOSE BETWEEN THEM.
HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

The blood furnishes the material of every bone, muscle, gland and fibre in the human frame. When pure, it secures health to every organ; it necessarily produces disease. HOLLOWAY'S PILLS operate directly upon the elements of the stream of life, neutralizing the principle of disease, and thus radically curing the malady, whether located in the nerves, the stomach, the liver, the bowels, the muscles, the skin, the brain, or any other part of the system.
USED THROUGHOUT THE WORLD.
HOLLOWAY'S PILLS are equally efficacious in complaints common to the whole human race and in disorders peculiar to certain climates and localities.

ALARMING DISORDERS.

Dyspepsia, and derangement of the liver, the source of infirmity and suffering, and the cause of innumerable deaths, yield to these curatives, in all cases, however aggravated, acting as a mild purgative, alterative and tonic; they relieve the bowels, purify the fluids, and invigorate the ystem and the constitution at the same time.
GENERAL WEAKNESS—NERVOUS COMPLAINTS.
When all stimulants fail, the renovating and bracing properties of these Pills give firmness to the shaking nerves and enfeebled muscles of the victim of general debility.
DELICATE FEMALES.
All irregularities and ailments incident to the delicate and sensitive organs of the sex are removed or prevented by a few doses of these mild, but infallible alteratives. No mother who regards her own or her children's health should fail to have them within her reach.
SCIENTIFIC ENDORSEMENTS.
The London "Lancet," the London "Medical Review," and the most eminent of the faculty in Great Britain, France and Germany, have eulogized the Pills and their inventor.

The Subscriber having been appointed Agent to the above Company for New-Brunswick, begs to announce that he is prepared to receive Proposals for FIRE AND LIFE ASSURANCE. The large Capital of the Company, and the number and influence of its Proprietors, enable it to rank with the most eligible Offices, either in America or Europe, with respect to the advantages offered to the Public.

FIRE BRANCH.

Persons Assured by this Company are not subject to any covenants or calls to make good losses which may happen to themselves or their, nor do they depend on any uncertain fund or contribution, the Capital Stock of this Company being an unquestionable security to the Assured in case of Loss or Damage by Fire.

LIFE BRANCH.

In addition to the more customary methods of Insurance, the Company likewise Assures Lives on any of the following contingencies:—
For the terms of One Year, Seven Years, or any other definite period.
For the whole continuance of Life.—The Premiums to cease, after a limited number of Annual Payments.
For Two Joint Lives.—The sum assured to be paid on the death of either.
On the longest of Two or Three Lives.—The sum assured to be payable at the death of the last survivor; or,
The Survivorships.—To secure the payment of the sum assured, if a life A die before another life B.
For a sum to be payable at age 60, or at death.
Premiums on Credit.—A portion of the Premiums on Credit. Assurances may be effected in various ways, not enumerated, to meet the convenience of parties.
The important advantages afforded by the Company in the Life Branch will include the following viz:—
The Guarantee of an ample Capital, and Exemption of the Assured from liability of Partnership.
Moderate Premiums.
Large Participation of Profits by the Assured amounting to Two-thirds of its net amount, which may be applied at the option of the party effecting the Assurance:—1st. By the immediate payment of the sum so apportioned.—2nd. By an equivalent increase of the sum assured.
Small Charge for Management.—The expenses of the Office being borne in due proportion by the two Branches.
Prompt Settlement of Claims.
Policies lapsed by non-payment of the Premium may be renewed within three months, by paying the premium, with a fine of 10s. per cent., on the production of evidence to the satisfaction of the Directors of the good health of the life assured.
The Company will always be prepared to Purchase the Policies of this Office at their equitable value or will grant a New Policy in lieu thereof without any further payment of Premium, for a sum to be agreed on.
Extra Premiums, suitable to special circumstances, will be accepted to enable a party possessed a Policy on the life of another to guard against the possibility of its being vitiated by the Life dropping beyond limits, or by any other cause.
Thirty Days are allowed for the Payment of Premiums after the day on which they respectively fall due.
Additional Advantages offered to Lives Assured with this Company at St. John, N. B.
I.—RESIDENCE.—Persons assured for the whole term of life will have permission, without the payment of extra Premium, to reside in any part of Europe, or in any place in North America to the north of 38 degrees of North Latitude, but not to the westward of the Mississippi River.
II. VOYAGES.—They will also, if not seafaring by profession, be allowed, without any extra charge—
To cross and re-cross the Atlantic Ocean, in steamers or first class sailing-vessels;
To pass from any part of Europe to any other or from any part of North America to another within the limits above specified; also,
To pass to and from, but not to reside in a place which shall not be further south than 33 degrees of North Latitude, but not to the westward of the Mississippi River.
