the least. Miss Thompson, of Newcastle, is in town, the guest of her sister, Mis. W. E. Stavert. Miss Thompson is always sure of a welcome whenever she comes to Moneton, and if it were not an unkind wish for the Newcastle folk, we would wish to keep her with us always. Indeed, if it were not for his own powers of fascination, "Cecil Gwynne" himself would humbly endeavor-but I refrain. Mrs. Thorne, of St. John, is visiting her sister, Mrs. A. H. DOROMESTER. "Progress" is for sale in Dorchester at George M. Feirsceathers bookstore. Final Science M. Periods Content had lines to Stackville. Foint de Bute, Meniramcook, etc., so we are well supplied in that respect. Anent telephones, there was segod joke going around here on Thursday, about a certain young limb of the law, who was, as he supposed, enjoying a delightful fli-tation with the young lady at the Moneton central. Imagine his horror when he discovered that instead of talking to the one that he supposed, the genial cleck of the Dorchester house, a few yards distant, had been receiving all his sweet speeches and re-plying to them, equally sweetly, with his voice pitched in a slightly higher key than usual. The Misses Chapman gave a small but very pleas-ant party. Friday was like a garden in the desert. The wese Schapman entertain sus ad dancing, and was much enjoyed by al. Miss K. E. Cupid, not satisfied with the havoc he has wrought lately among the younger members of our compan-ity, has turned his attention now to those of more mature age and tried his hand on the healing vid-owed hearts. His first effort in this direction was made in St. John on St. Valentine's day, when Mr. J. W. Oulton, of Moneton, was united in the silken bonds to Mrs. Johnstone, of Chatham. Mrs. Weldon, of Main sireet, had issued invita-tions for an informal dance, last Monday evening, but it was indefinitely postponed on account of Mrs. Proctor's death, and I fear that the prevailing feel-ing of sorrow over the sad event, will make a diffe-ence in the attendance at Mrs. McSweeney's large worty tongich.

A large number of ladies and gentlemen were present, probably more than at any meeting bitherto. A number of ladies furnished in-strumental and vocal music, and everyone con-trivid to find enjoyment, though dancing is prohi-bited at these meetings. party tonight. Mr. H. A. social qualities, but because it boasts of 27 regular societies, macting every week, exclusive of religions societies, and yet among the whole 27 there is neither a snowshoe nor a toboggan club. Odd, is it not? The year before last we were all toboggan mad, we built an expensive slide and used it. Last year we nsed it too, a little. This year it is closed, and by next winter it will be falling into decay—wreckage tranded on the shores of time. Nextly second processing the society of the society o turned out in full force. No doubt they were much benefitted by the services. Mr. F. W. Emmerson, barrister, of Petitcodiac, was in Dorchester, Monday. Mrs. Thomas Keillor gave a very pleasant party, Thursday evening, to a number of her lady friends. Among those present were Lady. Smith, Mrs. Joshua Chandler, the Misses F. Among all our other societies I must not neglect to give honorable mention to one of verv recent foundation, called "The Bun club." It consists of about 20 very young people, who nave formed them-selves into a society for the promotion of social inter-course, untrammelled by the restraints of regular vening parties. They meet once a week at the houses of the different members, and one of the most rigidly enforced rules confines the supper to bread and butter, the all important bun which gives the club its title, and coffee. And long may this most sensible little organization flourish! The first meet-ing took place last Saturday evening at Mrs. David Lindeay's and a very pleasant evening was spent in dancing and conversation. Mins V. A. Motoliny, barrister, of Moneton, was in Dorchester last week for a few days. Miss Weeks, of Charlottetown, and Miss McDonald of Georgetown, P. E. Chapman and a number of others went through to Sackville, last evening, to attend the "at home" of the Mount Allison institutions. Five hundred invitations had been issued, and the affair was a delightful success in every way, as entertainments at Mount Allison Juway are. The advance in raw materials, including cotton, wool and dye stuffs, has justified an advance in Canadian cottons; and woolen goods are also firmer. The advance in grey cottons is $\frac{1}{2}$ to $\frac{1}{2}c$, or 5 per cent., and from 5 to $\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. on several lines of colored goods, including seersuckers, dress linings, cottonades, and some lines of shirtings. Such an advance made without the support of a combination speaks more hopefully for a period of prosperity among the cotton mills.—Canadian Journal of Rabrics, always are PANSY.

Invitations are issued for a large party on Friday evening next by Mrs. Chas. Clerke. His Honor Judge Stevens and Miss Annie Stevens arrived home on Saturday last. During his absence his honor visited Montreal, where I believe he was the solitary St. Stephen representative at the earni-val sports. However, to judge from a report of the judge's speech at the banquet of the St. George Snowshoe club, what was lacking in quantity was more than made up in the quality of the representa-Miss Carrie Welsh has returned from her visit to

And now you have our reasons in the worlds of others why we are easy, very easy, about the sale of octons. We know that even now cottons cannot be bught from mills as cheaply as from the whole sale stores, we know that it is only by what in the trade is called "a slant" that we are enabled to get them from our jobbers at the old prices.
