NOMINATIONS IN KINGS CO. WENT A SWING

Government Candidates In Rousing Speeches Refute False Arguments Advanced by Opposition Speakers to Bolster Up Forlorn Hope—County will Vote Solid for Disciples of Honest Government.

Hampton, June 13.—The nomination proceedings for the County of Kings, despite the inclemency of the weather, brought a large crowd of electors from every parish.

Sheriff Freeze declared the court closed for the nominations at two o'clock, and the electors were called upon to address the electors, and the enthusiasm showed that those present took a keen interest in the government candidates, and the applause which greeted Messrs. Jones, Murray and Dickson as they made point after point in favor of the Fleming government made the old historic court house ring. It is seldom that the electors of Kings county had the pleasure of listening to a finer address than that delivered by the Hon. James A. Murray. He was in good form, and his address marked him as one of the finest public speakers of the Province of New Brunswick.

George B. Jones showed great improvement in his address of four or five years previous made in the same place, and proved himself to be a debater of steel with any antagonist he might be called upon to meet.

While Mr. Dickson was a new member, and admitted his inexperience, he said his way in a manner, the earnestness of which went deeply to the hearts of those who listened to him.

Clean Fighting.

During the campaign the government candidates have refrained from mentioning their opponents directly or indirectly, and this has not been true in any case of the candidates for the opposition, who have been nearly personal in their attacks on Messrs. Jones and Murray. At the convention, with their opponents facing them, the attacked replied, and in so doing they put it up to Dr. Pearson in a way that that gentleman will remember for a good many days to come.

Mr. Jones, who has been attacked on the strength of some sales to the local government in the name of J. P. McAuley, showed clearly that the articles supplied were insignificant in value, that his firm had not made a cent on the sales, that needless delay in the construction of public works had been avoided through the prompt furnishing of necessary articles, and that the government had really saved money by this purchase.

Mr. Jones was able to state that he had spent hundreds of dollars in the interests of the county of Kings since he became a representative, and pointed out that if he were to follow by declaring that he had nothing to be ashamed of in his public career, his hands were absolutely clean, and if he were to follow his own inclination and that of his family he would not be in public life at all. Instead of finding any financial benefit from holding office in the government he had spent hundreds of dollars in the interests of Kings County.

He was given a grand burst of applause as he resumed his seat.

S. H. Flewelling was the next speaker, and his address contained nothing of any great importance. Small matters engaged his attention and the crowd was restless as he resumed his seat.

Honorable James A. Murray, who followed, delivered one of the best campaign speeches ever given in Kings County, and he brought the crowd to its feet time and again as he flayed the old administration and drew attention to the several improvements made by Hazen and Fleming.

Mr. Murray pointed out that despite the statements of the opposition that a new set of Liberals had arisen that the same old gang was in charge of the Liberal party. He cited the activities of Pusey, LaBilios and Copp, which showed that the old machinery was still in action. These gentlemen when in charge of the public treasury had allowed hundreds of thousands of dollars to be stolen from the treasury and had permitted private persons to carry vast sums belonging to the province on private deposit in the bank. Cheques were issued to private individuals and most public liabilities from the same common bank account. If these gentlemen were returned to power there would be nothing to prevent them from doing the same thing as they did prior to 1908. Mr. Murray showed how bills were paid in the old days and how they were paid at present. Under the Tweedie government sums of money were distributed without even a bill or voucher being supplied, all that was necessary was for one of the members to send in a request for whatever they wanted, and the bill would be forwarded to them without any further explanation and given to the favorites of the government. Under the existing conditions the province was desirous of having a bill paid must Continued on page 11.

Will Help Farmers.

Mr. Jones promised that if elected, he would do all in his power to forward the interests of the farmer, and bring about such reforms as would be in the interest of agriculture in this province.

After Major Wetmore responded, George B. Jones was not perfect in the days of the old government, and he said that, under the bridges of Kings county had been repaired, thousands of dollars would be available for the roads.

Dealing with the roads, Mr. Jones declared that while the roads in the county of Kings were not perfect they were in much better shape than in the days of the old government, and he said that, under the bridges of Kings county had been repaired, thousands of dollars would be available for the roads.
