DR. ROLLER AND HOKUF
AT MONTREAL

Montreal, Dec. 9.—Tomorrow night at Sohier Park, the management of the Canadian Athletic Club have arranged a main bout that looks as if it would provide a spectacular night's wrestling for the fans.

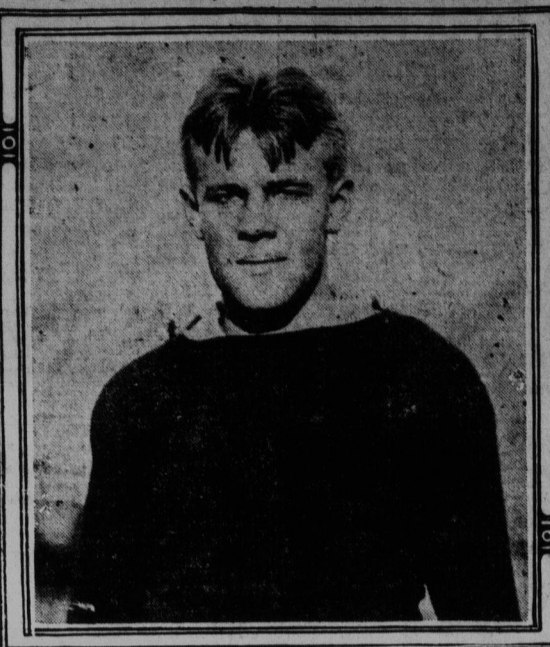

The principals will be Dr. Roller and H. H. Huf, the latter the young giant from Nebraska, who since his arrival here several weeks ago, has not yet had his opponents planned to the mat. These two men so far have never faced each other, and it is just a question if Huf, with his tremendous strength and weight, is a match for the wily doctor, who has every trick of the wrestling game at his finger ends.

During the past month Huf has demonstrated that he is one of the strongest men ever seen at Sohier Park, and it would not be surprising if he gave Roller the time of his life then the two meet next Wednesday night. A number of the wrestling sharps are of the opinion that Huf is about the best man that has been shown here for quite a long time. He will certainly be tried out to the limit when he meets Roller, and it would not be surprising if one of the most sensational and exciting bouts of the season was to be decided.

"NATE" WHEELER, YALE'S CLASSY HALF BACK.

WHEELER, YALE 1912

One of the fastest football stars at Yale is Mr. "Nate" Wheeler. "Nate" sure is there. As a half back he is beyond par, and when it comes to carrying the ball—well, when Yale played Lehigh "Nate" distinguished himself by scoring a touchdown from the centre of the field in three rushes. Has he got the goods?

John Thomas Augustine Hagan, is Young Jack O'Brien's Name.

John Thomas Augustine Hagan is the full and complete name of the rugged and promising young boxer-fighter who is known as Young Jack O'Brien. Young Jack is the kid brother of old Philadelphia Jack O'Brien, once distinguished as a scrappier in the middleweight and light heavyweight divisions. Young Jack was born in Philadelphia nineteen years ago tomorrow, Dec. 11, 1894, and was a more child when brother Jack—whose real moniker is Joseph F. Hagan—was at the height of his career as a boxer. Philadelphia Jack garnered much coin and fame and influential friends during his ring career, and it was quite natural that his brother should decide to follow in his footsteps. Philadelphia Jack put up the customary line of discouraging conversation—for, as George Ade says, every man knocks his own profession and sticks to it like glue—but when the kid refused to be discouraged Jack turned in and taught him all he knew about the biff game. Then, when John Thomas Augustine went in and licked a lot of fellows, old Philadelphia Jack wept tears of honest pride and went about Philadelphia cackling like a hen that had laid an egg. "Oh, for goodness' sake," said Philadelphia Jack, "pipe me brother, who, under my own professional name, is perpetrating the great and glorious traditions of the family of fighting hasane. Already, at a tender age when most boys are in college, he has earned my thousand dollars in the ring, licked all the best boys of his weight, and performed feats of prowess unparalleled in the history of flatland. He has overturned all the old, cherished traditions of pugilism, and, by his unrelenting energy, his bravery, his endurance and his fearlessness, combined with my knowledge, he has ushered in a new era in pugilistic. Now, take my kid brother there, John Thomas Augustine Hagan, the fearless knight of the padded mitts—and so on. Philadelphia Jack certainly is proud of the lad, and well he may be. Philadelphia Jack himself came near winning the heavyweight championship, although very light for the major division of pugilism. He defeated Tommy Burns only a couple of years before the Canadian won the title, fought a twenty-round draw with him at Los Angeles when Tommy was champion, and in their last meeting, in 1907, lost on points after assimilating all the punches the Calgary haberdasher could deliver. In a twenty-round festa.

PLAYERS ON RESERVE LIST
FREE AGENTS

Montreal, Dec. 9.—All of the players who up until a few days ago were on the reserve list of the National Hockey Association, are now looked on as free agents by the National Hockey Association, and the agreement between the N. H. A. and the east has been practically called off. This was announced today by President T. Emmet Quinn of the National Association, who had a letter from the east yesterday.

The letter asked that the agreement made between the Maritime League and the N. H. A. be allowed to stand until the new organization was gotten under way.

President Quinn was prompt in his reply and notified the clubs in the maritime provinces that the agreement was cancelled, as the changes suggested by the new league would not be acceptable to the N. H. A. and they would look on the players as free agents. President Quinn gave the new organization until Saturday to put their league on a solid foundation and accept the terms as in the agreement between the Pacific Coast and the N. H. A.

THIS DATE IN RING ANNALS

1902—Jack Munroe defeated Jim Jeffries in four rounds at Butte. The champion offered a prize to any fighter who could stay four rounds with him, and Munroe turned the trick and was thus awarded a huge victory. Munroe escaped a knockout by hanging to Jeff all the time. He was not much of a fighter, but at the clinching game he was a human ivy vine, a sort of perambulating stamp. Jeff fell once during the exhibition, and as Munroe had put over a light punch the minute before, he claimed that he had scored a knockdown. Munroe kept on boasting of his prowess until Jeff grew envious and consented to fight him. The second meeting was pulled off in San Francisco in 1904, and Munroe was put away in the second chapter.

1909—Jack Britton knocked out Kid Farmer in 7th round at Savannah.

1909—Joe Jeannette and Sam McVey fought thirty-round draw at Paris.

GOTCH
BACK IN THE GAME

Montreal, Dec. 9.—Frank Gotch has decided definitely to return to the wrestling game this winter, having promised to defend his title as world's champion against Menoff, the Russian champion, and former bodyguard to the Czar. The match will take place some time in January. Negotiations are now being carried on between Gotch and the Canadian Athletic Club, and though they have not come to terms yet, everything indicates that the famous Iowa farmer will be seen in action in Montreal shortly after his championship bout. His opponent has not been selected yet, but it will not be surprising if Charlie Simard, conqueror of the fire-devouring Raymond Cazaux, will be the man, for it was stated by the general manager of the club before Simard met Cazaux in a finished battle, that he would probably be given a chance to meet Gotch if he beat the Frenchman. Simard did.

MARITIME'S TO FORM NEW HOCKEY LEAGUE

The Montreal Herald of Monday has the following to say of the Maritime Hockey League trouble:
Instead of a re-organization of the disbanded Maritime Hockey League, eastern officials are now planning the formation of a new league, which will include the Crescents and Socials, who have withdrawn from the Maritime League, and two new clubs representing Sydney and New Glasgow. The new league will be under entirely new management.

President Emmet Quinn has been notified of the new move in voluminous correspondence received today from Halifax. The Socials have written that they have come to the decision not to play in the Maritime League, should it be re-organized, and the Crescents will act similarly.

The men at the back of the league meet again in Halifax this week, when it is expected that definite arrangements will be made, and a schedule drawn up.

No action has been taken with regard to the two Maritime Province stars, Allen Wilson and Mike Murphy, who claim they are free lances. Ottawa despatches today state that these men are purchased, has written President Quinn regarding their standing. The question is still being held over until the eastern men arrange something definite. President Quinn thinks that if a sale was made it will go through, and these two men will come to this section of the country.

OLD BALL STAR DEAD.

Pittsfield, Dec. 9.—John J. Grum, one of the pioneer baseball players in America today, at 1332 North St., aged 76 years. He was a member of the Eckford team of Brooklyn, which won the championship of the country in 1882 and 1883.

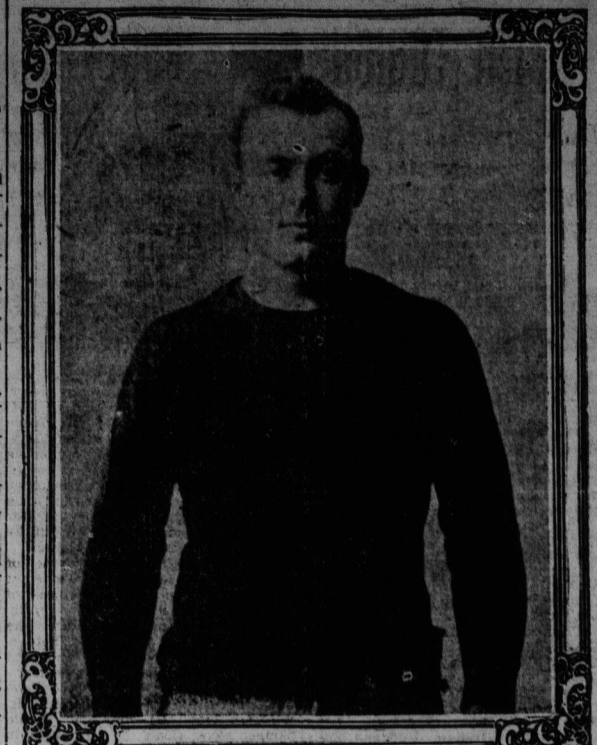

He had been a butcher in Washington Market, New York, until he retired in 1906 and came to Pittsfield to live. He was born in New York, Dec. 7, 1837, and went to Brooklyn when a boy. He played shortstop on the Eckford team, one of the first to be organized in Brooklyn.

Among the men who played on the Eckfords with Mr. Grum was Al Reach of Philadelphia. Grum was twice picked as a member of an all-star team. He knew Harry Wright, Henry Chadwick, "the father of baseball," A. G. Spaulding and many other oldtimers in the game. He is survived by a daughter, Miss Ella A. Grum of Pittsfield.

WHEN IT COMES TO KICKING,
BRICKLEY, OF HARVARD, IS THERE

BRICKLEY, HARVARD

Charlie Brickley is Harvard's star half back, but that is not all, he is one of the greatest kickers in the football world, and it is no idle boast of Harvard's men when they say that Brickley will kick Harvard to the front ranks of collegiate football. Last season when Harvard played Princeton, Brickley was the hero of heroes, for he virtually won for the crimson. He made two spectacular field goals and one thrilling placement kick from the 47-yard line. Oh, yes, Charlie is some kicker.

AUSTRALIAN CHAMPION
AT MONTREAL

It did not take Jack Lester, ex-champion heavyweight boxer of Australia, and a promising white hope, to secure a bout in Montreal. Lester is to appear before the Canadian Athletic Club on Friday night in a 10-round bout. His opponent will be Meahan Jackson, an English heavyweight, who has a six-round draw with the late Stanley Ketchell to his credit. The men will box at catch weights. This will be the first heavyweight bout in Montreal under the auspices of the Canadian Athletic Club.

CYCLONE
BURNS WINS
RUGGED BOUT

Portsmouth, N. H., Dec. 9.—In the wrestling matches at Freeman's Hall last night both "Cyclone" Burns of Boston and "Farmer" Bill Dryden of this city were victorious. In the first match Dryden was easily superior over "Cyclone" Mitchell of Hartford, Conn., throwing him in fourteen minutes and seven seconds, and again in forty-one minutes. Both falls were secured by double-arm bar.

Burns defeated Henry Bruhn, a light heavyweight from England, in the fastest match ever seen in this city. Rough tactics were often used, both men being very aggressive and determined in their work. The first fall came in thirty-one minutes thirty seconds with a double-arm bar and a body scissors, while the second took thirty-two minutes ten seconds with a head scissors. "Chick" Morrill was referee.

LYNCH MAY SUPERVISE UMPIRES

New York, Dec. 9.—It was said today that Pres. Lynch will not be entirely ousted from the National League but will be retained as supervisor of the umpires. Whether Lynch will accept this position is a question, but his friends believe that if he is beaten in the election he will retire from the league.
