CAMPBELLTON

Campbellton, Sept. 25.—An interesting event took place at four o'clock on Wednesday afternoon last, at the residence of Mrs. James McDonald, when her eldest daughter Stella MacDonald, became the bride of Dr. C. McDonald, son of Rexton, N. B. The beautiful home had been tastefully decorated for the occasion, and in the living room, where the ceremony was performed, the bride stood beneath a floral arch of pine and hydrangea. Rev. Wellington Campbell, pastor of the Campbellton Baptist church, officiating. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. J. Clifford McDonald, looking charming in a gown of white tulle, with Georgette crepe and duchesse lace trimmings, with veil and orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Nina McDonald, sister of the bride made a charming bridesmaid, in a gown of yellow tulle, with black picture hat, and carried a bouquet of crimson roses. The groom was supported by Mr. Gordon Black of the staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia in St. John. The wedding march was delightfully rendered by Mrs. (Dr.) McLeese of New York. After the ceremony a delicious luncheon was served in the dining-room, which was decorated with ferns and cut flowers. The groom's gift to the bride was a wrist-watch, to the bridesmaid a cameo ring, to the best man a tie pin, and to the pianist a gold pin with pearl settings. The gifts received were many and of high value, attesting to the high esteem in which the young couple are held by their large circle of friends. Dr. and Mrs. Snow left on the Ocean Limited on a trip to Upper Canadian cities, and on their return will reside in Rexton.

The wedding of much interest to Campbellton friends was celebrated at the home of the bride, in Rexton, on Wednesday last, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Carson, when their daughter Helen Bratt, was united in marriage to Mr. John Herbert Irving, son of Mr. J. D. Irving of Buctouche. The bride was prettily dressed in a handsome dress of white brocade silk, with real lace trimmings, with veil and orange blossoms, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. R. Riddle, brother-in-law of the groom. Miss Emma Short, who wore a pretty gown of pink georgette crepe with picture hat, and carried a bouquet of pink rose-buds and maiden hair fern. The groom was supported by his cousin, Mr. Rupert L. Irving of Moncton. The drawing-room was tastefully decorated with pink and white asters and ferns, and as the bride entered the drawing-room on the arm of her father, Miss Clark of Rexton rendered the bridal chorus. At the conclusion of the ceremony Miss Lou Irving, sister of the groom, sang very sweetly "For Love Alone." Mr. and Mrs. Irving left by special train for Kent Junction, where they boarded the Ocean Limited on a trip to the coast, thence to San Francisco, returning by the United States. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Irving will make their home in Buctouche.

Mrs. Irving has many friends in Campbellton, and during visit spent at the home of Judge and Mrs. McLatchey. Miss Harriet Anderson has returned from a visit with friends in Dalhousie. Doctor Tells How To Strengthen Eyesight 50 per cent In One Week's Time In Many Instances

A Free Prescription You Can Have Filled and Use at Home.

Philadelphia, Pa. Do you wear glasses? Are you a victim of eye strain or other eye weakness? If so, you will be glad to know that you can have your eyes restored to normal vision in one week's time. Many of our patients have written us saying they had their eyes restored through the principle of this wonderful free prescription. One man says, after trying it: "I was almost blind; I could not see to read at all. Now I can read everything without any glasses and my eyes do not water any more. At night they would pain dreadfully; now they feel fine all the time. It was like a miracle to me." A lady who used it says: "The atmosphere seemed hazy with or without glasses, but after using this prescription for fifteen days everything seemed clear. I can now read my newspaper and write without any glasses. I believe that thousands who wear glasses can now discard them in a reasonable time and maintain more will be able to do so."

50% of Belgian comes from Belgians Abroad

They Are Doing Their Utmost To Save Their Own People.

The whole-hearted devotion of Belgians in Canada, Great Britain and the United States, to the work of relieving those in their destitute Motherland, should be an added incentive to us to give all we can to the Belgian Relief Fund.

This is not charity—it is a debt of honor we owe to our heroic Allies, who checked the first onslaught of the Germans while France and Great Britain got time to rally and save the day on the Western Front.

The able-bodied men of Belgium are still in the fighting line, holding the trenches at the British left. Their women and children, and their old and wounded men, who have held out bravely under untold sufferings are looking to us for food and life. Our modest contributions to the Belgian Relief Fund will help to save them. Our failure to give our share will bring them a step nearer to grim starvation.

Can you ignore such desperate need, or fail to respond generously to such a pitiful call for help? Can you not undertake to feed at least one Belgian family when a contribution of $2.50 per month will do it?

Whatever you feel you can give, send your subscription weekly, monthly, or in one lump sum to Local or Provincial Committees, or
