

THE COUNCIL RETAINED STREET SUPT.

Expresses Disapproval of Dismissal and He Still Holds Job—Matters of Routine Business Transacted.

Albert Winchester still superintendent of streets for the city of St. John is the question following the action of the council yesterday in expressing its disapproval of his dismissal by the commissioner of public works.

It was decided to fix the license fee for outside concerns coming into the city to conduct bankrupt sales at $500.

The reduction of watchmen on the city wharves did not come up.

The mayor called the council together at 11:30 and all the commissioners were in attendance.

The commissioner of finance and public affairs reported recommending the payment of the following accounts: Harbors, ferries and public lands department, $3,365.39; public works department, $1,731.01; water and sewerage, $3,184.41; public safety, $765.08; treasury department, $408.91.

He reported payments for the month of January amounting to $63,946.31. The report was adopted.

The commissioner of public works recommended:

That he be authorized to sell three of the department horses and to purchase three others to take their place, payments for the same to be made out of the appropriation for street plant, repairs and renewals.

That he be authorized to sell the old steam engine at the asphalt plant and to purchase and install a new horizontal steam engine, to be paid for out of appropriation for street plant additions.

That the bill approved by the committee of the whole, entitled "an act respecting public streets in the city of St. John," be approved and that it be printed and forwarded to the legislature for enactment at the coming session thereof.

The report was adopted.

The commissioner of public works moved the adoption of the following report: That the street superintendent, Albert Winchester, was dismissed on January 23, and your commissioner recommends that Clifford G. Price, who has been acting as superintendent since January 13, be appointed to the office, the salary to be the same for the present.

authorized as lumber surveyors for the port of St. John.

The communication was received from the Trades and Labor Council asking for information regarding the progress of the taxation commission and the licensing of boarding houses.

The mayor explained that he is awaiting a reply from Dr. Campbell regarding the assessment report and that the boarding house matter had been referred to the city solicitor.

A letter from J. A. Barry asking for damages for his client, Miss Mary McDonald for unjustified arrest was referred to the commissioner of safety and city solicitor.

On motion of the mayor the salary of the second clerk in the assessors' office was placed at $850.

A letter was received from Weldon McLean to the effect that the Bishop of St. John had withdrawn his objection to the erection of a garage on Cliff street and the common clerk was asked to inquire of the Bishop if this were correct.

The annual reports of H. E. Gould, civic forester and the city road engineer, were presented by Commissioner Fisher and received.

The mayor drew attention to a communication from the Retail Merchants' Association in reference to the announcement of a "bankrupt sale" to be held in the city and asking that no license should be issued.

An amendment to the license law was given its first and second reading and passed, providing a special license of $500 for outside concerns coming in to put on such sales.

The city solicitor asked that the Trades and Labor Council be requested to send a representative to him to discuss the proposed boarding house law.

Tenders for steam engine and asphalt supplies were referred to the committee of public works, with power to act.

The bill approved by the committee of the whole, entitled "an act respecting public streets in the city of St. John," be approved and that it be printed and forwarded to the legislature for enactment at the coming session thereof.

A Smooth, Hairless Skin for Every Woman. (The Modern Beauty.) With the aid of a plain delatone paste it is an easy matter to rid the skin of unsightly hair growths.

The paste is made by mixing some water with powdered delatone. This is applied to the hair, not washed and after 2 or 3 minutes rubbed off and the skin washed, when every trace of hair will have vanished.

When you go to your druggist for delatone, be sure you get the genuine article.

Try This If You Have Dandruff. There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This dissolves it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluff, lustrous, glossy and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.
