The schooner Lucy Evelyn, which sailed from Barbadoes for this port some time ago, passed Vineyard Haven Tuesday afternoon and should make port today.
Raced to Port.
According to the Boston Globe, the two-mastered American schooner, Francis and Ella Clifton, which arrived in Boston harbor Monday with full cargoes of lumber, had a neck and neck race from Apple River, N. S., at which place they loaded and sailed on the 28th ult. They were delayed by winds for four days while at sea, but in the race to port both entered the harbor practically abreast.
What's in a Name.
An American vessel, recently launched, bears the euphonious name of "Quistconk." According to a post her answer to a hail at sea is "Quistconk, Quistconk, Quistconk, honk, honk." In the effort to get away from Queen of the Sea, Mayflower, Seafoam, White Wings and other popular christenings, the sponsor of the new ship has been quite successful.
