

Of the amount due for arrears and Pew Rents at Easter, 1852, there is still outstanding,.....	£628 18 4½
Of which there have been struck off the Books as irrecoverable,.....	325 17 11½

£303 0 5

And of the Rents for the half year ending on the 21st instant there are still due,.....	95 18 6½
---	----------

Arrears outstanding at Easter, 1853,.....	£398 18 11½
---	-------------

From the above Statement, it will be perceived, that besides the ordinary expenses of the Church, £367 9s. of the old debts have been paid off with £247 7s. 8½d., owing to the handsome deductions voluntarily made by the Creditors whose claims were settled through the agency of T. B. Anderson and J. G. McKenzie, Esquires. It will also be observed that the Interest on the remaining debts for the past year have been paid.

The debt still due on the Church is, therefore, as follows:—

Balance due Samuel Gerrard, Esq.,.....	£1248 5 5
Interest to 1st October, 1851,.....	400 0 0

1648 5 5

Due Estate of late T. Torrance,.....	49 4 2
Interest to 1st February, 1853,.....	2 19 0

52 3 2

Due Estate late G. Platt,.....	59 5 0
*Six Year's Interest to Easter, 1853,.....	21 6 6

Deduct Pew Rents, due by the Heirs of the late Mrs. Platt, up to September next, as per Statement,.....

47 14 2

32 17 4

Total Debt,.....

£1733 5 11

Which is £418 3s. less than it was (£2151 8s. 11d.) at Easter, 1852.

The prospects of paying the whole of this debt in the course of the current year, are most cheering. The Subscription commenced for that purpose in December last, already amounts, as can be seen by the annexed List of Subscribers, to about.....

£1200 0 0

And the surplus Revenue of the Church for the commencing year, will probably amount to 300 0 0

Making together,.....

£1500 0 0

* It is right to mention that although this claim is here stated as in the Church Books, the heirs dispute its correctness.
