

OUR COUNTRY CORRESPONDENCE.

FREDERICTON.

Fredericton, N. B., Jan. 15.—(Special)—The masquerade carnival at the Arctic rink this evening was attended by upwards of 1,000 people and was one of the most successful in the history of the rink.

The ladies' prizes for the most original costume went to Misses Eliza Campbell and Lillian McManus, Edwards and Maud Hart divided second prize and the third went to Minnie Damery and Mary Pidgeon.

The gents' prize winners were Norman Edgemont, as the Mikado; Joseph McManis, Earl Macnutt and Theodore Barker.

Private Yarnie, No. 4 R. C. R. I., who slipped out the other night, taking with him a pair of binocular glasses and other small articles belonging to Capt. Kenny Betty, returned to the barracks last night after sending the goods back to Capt. Betty. He was locked up in the guard house and will be court-martialed.

Yarnie had been drinking for some time before committing the offence and he did not realize what he had done until he sobered up on the Hanwell road, when he at once determined to return the stolen goods.

On E. Yarra, of Norton, engineer on the Central Railway, was married at his father's residence at Gibson last night. His bride was Miss Annie McPhee, of Norton. Rev. W. R. Robinson performed the ceremony.

Lea Sherwood, daughter of Burpee Sherwood, carpenter, of Gibson, died at Stanley yesterday afternoon. She was visiting her grandfather at Stanley when taken ill. Mr. Sherwood lost a young son by death only two months ago.

The infant child of Mrs. Fred McFarlane, who is quarantined for smallpox at Nashwagias, died yesterday. The child was born only a few days ago and at birth is said to have been marked with the disease.

Fredericton, N. B., Jan. 17.—(Special)—Mrs. John Mannagan broke two of her ribs by falling down cellar at her residence last evening.

The body of the late Mrs. Cowan, who died at Woodstock on Friday, arrived here by Gibbon train last evening, and was interred at Lincoln this afternoon.

Fredericton, N. B., Jan. 18.—(Special)—The firemen gave a very enjoyable smoking concert in the central hose station this evening. A musical programme was carried out and there were speeches by Mayor Palmer, J. W. McCready and Aldermen Farrell, Edward Ross, Scott, Vanwart and others.

York county municipal committee meets in semi-annual session here tomorrow. Promable Brooks, of Southampton, will probably be elected warden.

Private Henry Yarnie, No. 4, Company B, I. O. F., was discharged yesterday for a day or two with Capt. Betty's binocular glasses, and another special article of two. Yarnie was on a sick leave and he was sobered up when he returned to Capt. Betty, and a few hours later returned and gave himself up to the military authorities. He was arraigned this morning before Police Magistrate Marsh, pleaded guilty, and was sentenced to three years in the penitentiary.

The body of the late John C. Fraser, third year University engineer, student, who died at Victoria Hospital on Saturday night of typhoid fever, was forwarded by the 9.40 C. P. R. accommodation to St. John this morning en route to his home at Sydney (N. B.), accompanied by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fraser, last Friday.

The University professors and students walked this morning in a body and in their academician in the funeral procession of the late John C. Fraser. The funeral services were held at the University chapel, where the Rev. W. R. Robinson officiated. The University was closed today as a mark of respect.

The water committee of the city council has awarded the contract for a carload of Lyness coal to Fred Blizard, of St. John, at $5.37 per ton.

HARTLAND.

Hartland, Jan. 15.—The Methodist Reform Baptist and Free Baptist churches of this village are united in a series of special services. They began Jan. 4 and are continuing indefinitely. They are well attended and interest is manifest.

E. C. Morgan went to Grand Manan today to assist Rev. A. M. McMinch in revival work. He will remain about ten days.
