Watches and Jewelry, may 11 GLOUCESTER, Mass., May 10—The fishing sehr Onward, which arrived at this port from George Bank yesterday, brought in the captain and three of the crew of the schr Carrie, of Yarmouth, NS, picked up at sea in an open boat on the 25th ult. The Carrie experienced a heavy squall when about 30 miles South of Mt Desert, and was capsized, dismasted, and filled with water. At the time of the disaster the mate and two men were on deck, and the captain and two others in the cabin. The captain succeeded in getting out of the cabin after the vessel was thrown on har beam ends, and had to walk along on the bulwarks to the boat to which he took with the mate and two men on deck, the other two men being unable to affect an escape. They were picked up in the boat by the Orward, and brought to Gloucester. The names of the men who were drowned were Alfred Thimo and James Canning. The survivors are John Deveau, master, Mark Geedre, Charles Thimo, and William Allen. The wreck of the Carrie was fallen in with on the 1st inst, 15 miles from Cape Ann, by the schr Oliver Budge. The wreck was almost under water, with both mast lying across deck. The dead bodies of the two men were found in the cabin. Consisting of:
