

I plan to consult further with Canadian investors in South Africa on Canadian policy. This is part of a continuing dialogue with Canadian business on our policy towards South Africa. In preparation for these contacts, Archbishop Ted Scott has, in recent weeks on my behalf, spoken to several Canadian and U.S. firms who have recently disinvested or announced their intention to disinvest from South Africa."