

Herewith I beg to send you a copy of a paper by Dr. Mathews, on "Diseases among the Indians," which was read before the Medico-Chirurgical Society of Montreal, of which he is an Honorary Member.

OTTAWA, May, 1885.

The VENERABLE DR. KIRKBY, Archdeacon of York :

"It gives me very great pleasure to bear testimony to the zeal and kindness of Dr. Mathews; in his professional duties here, as well as to the general success that has attended his treatment of the diseases brought under his care."

W. W. KIRKBY, D. D.,

Archdeacon of York,
now of Brooklyn,

August, 1879.

New York.

MURDOCK MATHESON, Chief Trader of the Hon'ble Hudson's Bay Company's Service :

"This is to certify that Dr. Percy Mathews has served the Hudson's Bay Company for eight years, in the capacity of Medical Officer, two of which he has been with me, and, as far as I am able to judge, I consider him a very efficient member of his profession."

M. MATHESON,

For Hudson's Bay Company.

YORK FACTORY, 14th September, 1886.
