WOMAN'S SUPPLEMENT.

"Mothers of a City," by Mabel Burkholder, permits the reader the backward peep into the lives of several prominent Calgary women, who pioneered. "The Man," in "Dowries in Austria," would fain excite the Canadian emulation in this regard. "Erin" deals with the "duk-keran" teller. The which are only some of the matters an extra newsy Woman's section proffers.

- Demi-Tasse By Staff Writers.
- Money and Magnates By the Financial Editor.
- Reflections By the Editor.

Editor's Talk

AUGUST makes one think that the summer is nearly over, but most of our August issues will have bright, summery features. The Home Products number, on the 23rd, will be a decided exception. It will be both informing and serious; but we hope it will also be readable.

Ed. Cahn contributes another of his famous Jewish tales to this week's issue. Cahn has made quite a success with his literary stuff—especially for a busy "bagman" who crosses Canada on business about twice a year. But he knows his own race extremely well, and is more than a phonograph of Jewish words and phrases.

Our Woman's Supplement is published in the first and third issues of each month. The increased interest taken by the women readers in the national weekly justify the space which is devoted to women's affairs. But always we try to earn the praise bestowed on this feature last year by a prominent woman, who said, "I consider it the most dignified women's department in any Canadian publication." If we have not fully justified this compliment, it is not the fault of our ambition.

The Kalamazoo Loose Leaf Binder

has exceptional Accessibility

There is no comparison between the KALAMAZOO and any other binder. It has overcome practically every objection that has ever been offered against the loose leaf idea.

Its capacity is greater than any other, and it requires no padding with unnecessary sheets. The writing surface is firm and flat.

Sheets are easily inserted, removed, and kept in perfect alignment.

There are no exposed metal parts to injure the desk.

Don't remain dissatisfied with loose leaf systems. Let us show you what the KALAMAZOO binder will do.

Booklet "C-1" describes it fully. It is yours for the asking.
