Candles lit wedding

There was a double-ring ceremony when Laurel Ann Sefton, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Sefton, Toronto, was married to Richard Owen MacDowell, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh MacDowell, Port Credit.

Rev. John Kelly, principal of St. Michael's College, Toronto, officiated at the candlelit ceremony in St. Basil's Church, Toronto.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Michael, wore a long white crepe gown with lace bodice and floor-length veil applied with daisies. She carried a cascade of daisies, sweet peas and carnations. Matrons of honor, Wendy Hornblast, Margaret Wells and Mary Samuelski, all of Toronto, wore gowns of varying shades of blue and carried nosegays of daisies and sweet peas.

Best man was Craig Parker, of Ayr, and ushers were Robert Douglas and Andy Macintosh.

After a short honeymoon in Haliburton Mr. and Mrs. MacDowell returned to Toronto where the groom is studying law at the University of Toronto.

These people could take your job!

They are the "Promotables". Shaw College graduates. Take a close look. You've both got the same goal — SUCCESS! Can you move up in a Secretarial, Accounting or Administrative position? Whether you are a Business Beginner, or just need a "Brush Up", a Shaw Career Course can help you. There are Evening and Saturday Morning classes in Bookkeeping and Accounting, Typewriting, Speedwriting, Shorthand, Medical and Legal Secretarial, Powerreading, Communications, Managerial Statistics. Remember, Shaw "Promotables" get the better jobs. Better Pay. Wouldn't you rather be a Shaw "Promotable" than compete with one?
