Sir,

On the 10th April last, a list of articles collected in the Crooked Lake Agency for the Indian and Colonial Exhibition was forwarded to you by this department. Packed in the case which contained those articles was a Blackfoot woman's dress which, it was particularly desired, should be sent at the close of the Exhibition to Messrs. Jennings, Messrs. Hogg, & Co., Cambridge. It has been ascertained that the wisher of the sender of the dress in question
