Ottawa, December 31, 1910

Rev. Sir,

I have to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 25th instant in reference to the admission of the ~~two~~ Kapuyon children to the Shingwauk Home.

In reply I beg to say that the Department regrets to have to state that these children were not able to pass a satisfactory medical examination and under the circumstances their admission to a school would not be justifiable.

Your obedient servant,

Asst. Deputy and Secretary.

Rev. B. P. Fuller,
Principal,
The Shingwauk Home,
