

was in every day, but she would rather have something she could keep from you.
Not get her own? John then he writes and hope to give it to you, but it will not be starting, and we get it on the bridge plan.
You will have down shopping yesterday and I was terrified at the way John has advanced in price. I think we have all she needs, in fact, I had a good deal of my own in reserve. We did all we could to help John and if you elect to be married so soon, she will just have to be satisfied.
I can see the sense of their agreement - in an early wedding but it will be very small and inexpensive. You are going to wear my

I told you of your very generous offer for the wedding and she was thrilled. It is really very good of you to give her such a lovely present. We discussed it, but it didn't take much thought to decide that that either would be the most acceptable.
$775.00 - you could probably get out each tablespoon, dinner spoon, dinner forks, dinner forks, and four tablespoons in either buy a Queen's pattern (like mine) and they could add to them as they are able. That would be a wonderful start and you have no flat silver.
I have some ordinary stuff she can

● King, Rt. Hon. William Lyon Mackenzie (MG 26 J 7 volume 13) Mr. and Mrs. (Janet Lindsey - Jennie) Harry Morrison Lay and ● family January-June 1940 ●

National Archives of Canada Archives nationales du Canada