Their Excellencies will take away from Canada the heartfelt good wishes of all its citizens.

-12-

As we say farewell,

we say it only in the sense of expectation which the prospect of some early visit from H.E. and H.R.H. arouses. It will be strange indeed if, in their future travels to and fro, they are not able to include Canada once again. They will be well aware of the warmth of welcome which will assuredly be the irs.

Safe and pleasant journey homeward.

No expression of good wishes fully adequate. For the future all will unite in warmest good wishes.

Carry message of loyalty and devotion to King and Queen.
