

- Q. Was there more than one officer there?
 A. There was the officer that was with us when we went around the house and also the officer that drove us there, ~~he had it~~ afterwards, Captain Pope.
- Q. How many officers were there other than the officer that went with you?
 A. One officer as far as I know.
- Q. Did you see any vehicle in which that officer could have driven there?
 A. I don't remember, I didn't notice.
- able*
 Q. Will you tell us exactly what vehicles were there?
 A. As far as I know and from what I remember there was a 60 cwt of the accused and the 15 cwt that had taken us there.
- Q. How much trouble did you have making Brisson realize that he had to go with you?
 A. The only trouble we had when we talked with him is that when he agreed in following us he didn't know we were going back to the Detention Barracks.
- Q. Will you tell the Court what his condition was at that time?
 A. The condition of the accused was rather that of a nervous or crazy person, because of the look in his eyes and because of his gestures because he was muttering.
- Q. Do you know what he was muttering about?
 A. I couldn't understand word for word what he said but from the trend of his conversation I could realize that he was talking of some enemy and as if he had succeeded in blowing up something.
- Q. Could you gather whether it was himself, that is Brisson, who had succeeded in blowing up something or the enemy had succeeded in blowing up something?
 A. It seems it was the accused himself.
- Q. When you first noticed the civilian and the small goat did the civilian appear frightened of anything?
 A. He seemed somewhat nervous.
- Q. Did the civilian appear to understand Brisson's request to keep the kid for him?
 A. I cannot remember that but I remember that he didn't seem to agree with the request of the accused although I was ~~highly~~ beckoning him to comply with it.
- ABB*
 Q. Did Brisson make any more fuss over the kid after that?
 A. As soon as the civilian agreed, Pte Brisson didn't insist any more and we went to another apartment.
- Q. Did you notice anything peculiar about the room that contained the piano that you said you entered?
 A. I cannot remember anything special and I don't believe anything special happened there.
- Q. When you returned with Brisson to your guardroom you said the driver was scared and got out, why was the driver scared?
 A. The driver told me Brisson was....

Def: You say the driver told him?

Int: Yes.
