

very age of the Apostles, yet this connection, useful as it may be, will not of itself save us. If we believe that we possess advantages, let us not trust in them, but conscientiously improve them, having this truth indelibly impressed on our mind—"WITHOUT HOLINESS NO MAN SHALL SEE THE LORD."

FINIS.