

CONSTITUTION.

Lodge. The notice shall contain the particular reason for calling the same, and no business but that expressed in such notice shall be entered upon at such special meeting. It shall be the duty of the N. G. to call a special meeting when requested in writing so to do by not less than five members.

Clause 35.—Should any regular meeting fall upon any legally established or recognized holiday, the Lodge may, by resolution passed at the preceding regular meeting, omit such meetings; and any business that should by law or resolution be transacted at that time shall be taken up at the regular meeting following.

Clause 36.—No business shall be transacted at any regular or special meeting, unless at least five members of this Lodge be then present, nor otherwise than according to the Rules of Order annexed to this Constitution.

Clause 37.—Members of other Lodges may be admitted as visitors, provided they give the password for the term, present a proper card, or are introduced by an elective Grand Officer, or by any Representative to the Sovereign Grand Lodge from the Grand Lodge or Grand Encampment of Ontario.

TERMS.

Clause 38.—The terms of this Lodge shall be semi-annual or annual, as provided by its By-laws, and shall commence on the first regular meeting in July and January respectively; if semi-annual, and on the first regular meeting in January if annual.

Clause 39.—Every term shall be held to close on the day on which the succeeding one may commence, and at the moment the Lodge opens.

RETURNS.

Clause 40.—It shall be the duty of the N. G. and Per. Sec. to prepare and forward to the Grand Secretary of Ontario, immediately on the expiry of their term of office, a regular return of the work of such term, with the result of election of officers, etc., in accordance with such blank form of semi-annual or annual return as the Grand Lodge may from time to time direct to be used.

Clause 41.—Such semi-annual return shall be accompanied by the amount due the Grand Lodge, the same being twenty-five cents for each suspended member on said return.

Clause 42.—A fine of two dollars shall be payable by this Lodge every month that may elapse after the close of any semi-annual term until the returns required by the preceding clause are received by the Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge, and a further
