MOTT'S BROMA. THE following observations having reference to the properation of REOMA, appeared in a late number of the Boston Medical Journal :-"A few years since a great monafacturer of Brome sought the opinions of many medical gentiamen of distinction, for the purpose of having an unabjectionable food for invalids, and was secured that he had fully succeeded. Hospitals, inferna-

rice, and households generally, chould always be provided with it. Whos graci, arrawrest, greate, arley, starch, rice, faring, and many other things by recorted to for patients are of no atrility, the Brome is sometimes relished. It is believed I those who goe it so a beverage will have maletie advantages ever the communers of and soffee We see it stated that during the Lanmor these individuals who were continually using Chocolute or Brome polither had attacks cholera or dysenterie affections, while others in the mose families, taking their daily potations of ten, coffee, or simple cold water, were the sufferon. Vany. We cannot vouch for the trath of this, but it has recalled to mind the statement that the all dealors in Lundon have been free from cholera or the choleroid symptoms. And it has been farher abserved, that persons who were taking and liver oil for chennic difficulties, during the prevalence of the late epidemic, were not affected by it Vegetable oil in the first instance, and neumal oil to the last, taken intermelly, would appear, by these statements, to have secured those who took them from the shefts of the peatilests. It is cortalaly a point well worth while to determine, where ther the circulate drinkers have been secure in cher infected action."
