

merchant was Harry's great ambition, and when the winter came on, the gentleman wanting a trusty boy for his warehouse, decided on giving the place to Harry. Steadily and surely he advanced in the confidence of his employer, until having passed through various posts of service, he became at length an honored partner in the firm.

POETIC SENTIMENT.—To apply the poetic words "a medicine that's able to breathe life into a stone" to B.B.B. savors of exaggeration, but considering its countless cures and wonderful work even exaggeration seems justifiable if it convinces those who hesitate to try B.B.B. and be cured.

Golden Pennies.

A little boy, who had plenty of pennies, dropped two into the "Church Builders" box, laughing as he did so. He had no thought in his heart about Jesus, or the need of churches. His was a tin penny. It was as light as a scrap of tin.

Another boy put a penny in, and as he did so looked round with a self-applauding gaze, as if he had done some great thing. His was a brass penny. It was not the gift of a "lowly heart," but of a proud spirit.

A third boy gave a penny, saying to himself, "I suppose I must, because all the others do." That was an iron penny. It was the gift of a cold, hard heart.

As a fourth boy dropped his penny in the box, he shed a tear, and his heart said, "Poor people! I am sorry they are so poor and so miserable." That was a silver penny. It was the gift of a heart full of pity.

But there was one scholar who gave his penny with a throbbing heart, saying to himself, "For thy sake, O loving Jesus, I give this penny." That was a golden penny, because it was the gift of love.

How many of our readers are giving golden pennies to help to build churches.

Bermuda Bottled.

"You must go to Bermuda. If you do not I will not be responsible for the consequences." "But, doctor, I can afford neither the time nor the money." "Well, if that is impossible, try

SCOTT'S EMULSION OF PURE NORWEGIAN COD LIVER OIL.

I sometimes call it Bermuda Bottled, and many cases of CONSUMPTION, Bronchitis, Cough or Severe Cold

I have CURED with it; and the advantage is that the most sensitive stomach can take it. Another thing which commends it is the stimulating properties of the Hypophosphites which it contains. You will find it for sale at your Druggist's, in Salmon wrapper. Be sure you get the genuine." SCOTT & BOWNE, Belleville.

WHAT'S THE REASON?—The causes of summer complaint, diarrhoea, dysentery cholera morbus, etc., are the excessive heat, eating green fruit, over exertion, impure water and sudden chill. Dr. Fowler's Wild Strawberry is an infallible and prompt cure for all bowel complaints from whatever cause.

—Editor Pemberton of the Dehli Reporter—a well-known journalist says: "I consider Burdock Blood Bitters the best medicine made, and would not be without it on any account. It should be kept in every house in the land."

What to Teach Boys.

A philosopher said that true education of boys is to "teach them what they ought to know when they become men."

1. To be true and to be genuine. No education is worth anything that does not include this. A man had better not know how to read—he had better never learn a letter in the alphabet, and be true, genuine in attention and in action—rather than be learned in sciences and in all languages, to be at the same time false in heart and counterfeit in life.—Above all things teach the boys that truth is more than riches, more than earthly power or possessions.

2. To be pure in thought, language and life—pure in mind and body.

3. To be unselfish. To care for the feelings and comforts of others. To be generous, noble and manly. This will include a genuine reverence for other things sacred.

4. To be self-reliant and self-helpful even from childhood. To be industrious always, and self-supporting at the earliest proper ages. Teach them that all honest work is honorable, and that an idle life of dependence on others is disgraceful.

When a boy has learned these four things; when he has made these ideas a part of his being—however poor, or however rich, he has learned the most important things he ought to know when he becomes a man.
