CHOICE GOODS—40741

We are offering our present chief stock bull, Choice Goods, for sale. We have kept him as long as it was possible to use him on our females and we will part with him with regret. He is a sure calf getter, and the quality of his stock can be seen here at any time. We have no hesitation in offering him to anyone that requires a first-class stock bull. We have ten youngsters ready to go, at prices that make it absolutely unnecessary for anyone to use grade bulls.

WALTER JAMES & SONS, Rosser, Man.

Shorthorns and Tamworths

For immediate sale: The well known bull, Neepawa Chief, winner at Neepawa, Portage la Prairie, Winnipeg and Brandon fairs, guaranteed sure stock getter. Red Jack, a splendid 3 year old; also 3 exceptional yearlings. In Tamworths, everything in the herd. This stock has won firsts and championships wherever shown. A nice bunch of May pigs for quick sale. Write for particulars, A. W. CASWELL, Neepawa, Man.

ber of subsidized Shire stallions has been trebled, the number of mares nominated for them has only doubled; whereas, while the number of Clydesdale stallions has only been doubled, the number of mares nominated for them has doubled, plus 72. The amount paid in premiums for horse-breeding in 1907 was £8,061.

In another column of this issue Mr.
A. W. Caswell, Neepawa, Man., is advertising some exceptionally high grade Shorthorns and Tamworths for immediate sale. He should have little difficulty in disposing of what he has for sale. The most conspicuous individual in the Shorthorn offering is the five-year-old bull, Neepawa Chief, the bull that has headed the Neepawa farm herd now for several years, but which Mr. Caswell, to prevent inbreeding in the herd, is forced to part with. Neepawa Chief is a rarely bred bull, a bull of the famous Stamford breeding, which the Watts of Salem, Ont., have made famous on this continent. He is a red bull, strongly constituted, compact and well covered.
The stock which a bull produces is the best basis for judging of his worth and the progeny of Neepawa Chief, some of which may be seen on the home farm, and many of which are doing service in herds all through the west, are not the kind calculated to cast discredit upon their sire. A tried bull is the safest live-stock proposition, perhaps, that a man can invest money in, especially when the animal is guaranteed a sure stock getter. The other bull and the yearlings are bred from Neepawa Chief, and out of some of Mr. Caswell's well known deep milking kind of Shorthorns. They have been fed for service, not for the winning of show-ring honors.

In Tamworths everything in the herd, from the Champion Long Joe down to the latest arrival will be sold. This boar is being disposed of for the same reason as the bull is: he has served his term in the herd, and must go to prevent breeding to his offspring. Mr.
Caswell has in all some 50 head of Tam-worths, most of which average in age around ten weeks or three months.
He quotes prices for the young stock that are cheap, considered in relation to the selling price of hogs nowadays, and the quality of the stock. The Neepawa Farm Tamworths have won more first and championship awards than any others in western swine rings.
If quality counts, and it does, these hogs are being offered at unusually reasonable prices. With the prices of bacon stock trending upwards the way they have been doing lately, pure-bred stock looks like a safe and paying investment.

Power Lot--God Help Us

"Wal", you play something for the folks on yer accordin', and I'll find yer goose for ye," said Belcher, rising.
He strolled out among the pirates familiarily.

"Look-a here, you cubs," he accosted them, "you hand over poor Beezlehub's goose. Poor leetle creetur', he only charged five cents admission, an' it's a durn sight funnier 'n the real thing.
An' you didn't pay nothin'. Poor leetle cuss, he ain't got no gift for what he's undertook ter do, but I'm goin' ter advise him kind and gentle by 'n by ter quit jugglery, an' steal a hymnbook off somebody when they ain't lookin', an' go off 'sone o' these 'ere furrin missionaries. Now you hand me over that goose, an' watch through the winders an' see Beezlehub haul him outer Towse Dubfrey's coat collar. Sport's been kind o' mild so fur, but the wind's go'n' ter breeze afore we git through.
Gi' me that goose."

A torpid bird of that description was held out to Belcher, who seized it and returned to the scene of troubled legerdemain. As the showman saw him approaching with the prize he changed a plaintive rendering of "Annie Laurie" into the jubilant strains of "Marching Through Georgia."

But we did not stay to witness the fulfillment of Belcher's prophecy; the night had worn on, the lights were out away off on the hill.
