

CAPE-BRETONIANA
ST. F.X. UNIVERSITY, SYDNEY CAMPUS
Sydney, Nova Scotia

April 8, 1974

Miss Juliette Bourque
Public Archives of Canada
The Library
395 Wellington Street
Ottawa

Dear Miss Bourque:

You asked for a translation of the Title Page and a brief summary of the Article. Enclosed are both. I find the Article exceedingly interesting. I wish I knew who the author was and whether the article is part of a series in several languages.

The name Ailghinn La Bhruinn is very baffling. It is not a Gaelic name, but to me an attempt either at a pseudonym or at a translation of Le Brunn. Perhaps the booklet itself was a translation, though it looks more like an original.

I am happy to be a wee bit helpful to such a friend as you and to my beloved P.A.C. Best regards to you and all my friends at P.A.C.

Sincerely yours,

Sister Margaret Beaton
Sister Margaret Beaton
Archivist

SMB/and