LONDON, Nov. 21.—Despatches from British headquarters in France esserible the British advance on the Amere on Saturday as the winter's first battle in the snow. The advance was swift, following up the victory at Beaumont-Hamel. The stroke was delivered in a blind-ing snowstorm before daybreak. For three days the weather has been freezing, so that puddles were from to a depth of three inches and the road surface was ringing hard. Saturday morning the advancing troops found the whole earth blank-oted with snow. The advance made by the British and Canadian troops was preceded by a short, fierce bom-bardment. The Canadians especial-ity had numerous brisk hand to hand sondicts in German trenches, which were concealed from the observation stations by dancing snowflakes. Rigid Food Economy Urged.

ROME, Nov. 21.-Rigid economy throughout the world in the con-sumption of food, in view of the deficient crops and the extraordinary requirements of the European armies, is urged by the International Institute of Agriculture, which has made the most extensive report it has is sued since the war began. The institute says all nations are confronted with a grave situation. It is esti-mated that at least 2,300,000,000 bushels of wheat will be co in the year ending July 31, 1917, and that at the end of this period the world's surplus supplies of wheat will have decreased to 46,000,000 bushels. The report says it is only on account of the fact that last year's harvest was abundant, leaving a bal ance of 350,000,000 bushels, that there is available sufficient wheat for he year ending with next July.

PARIS, Nov. 21.-The issue of sugar cards for the suburbs of Paris under consideration by the authorities. At Neuilly the municipality has even taken the precaution to have a quantity of cards printed in readiness. The scarcity of sugar is due not so much to the lack of stocks as to the difficulties of distribution. The delivery waggons and horses of most wholesalers and retailers have been requisitioned for the army and there is also a certain amount of hoarding by private persons. The Grocers' As ociation has, however, obtained the loan of five large automobile lorries daily from the army, which are doing much to improve the situation. Bulgars Disregard Orders. LONDON, Nov. 21.-The Chron.
