OTTAWA, July 22.-Ottawa's welcome tonight of Sir Wilfrid Laurier may not have rivalled in spectacular impressiveness and exuberant enthusiasm the demonstrations of Queand Montreal, but in addition to the universal Canadian pride in the nation's chief representative as manifested at Quebec and Montreal, there was evident in the capital's reception of her first citizen tonight a feeling personal affection for a fellow citizen, friend and neighbor. Irrespective of all party feeling, Sir Wilfrid is unquestionably the most popular citizen of Ottawa. Where he is best izen of Ottawa. known he is best liked. Consequently his real home-coming tonight was the occasion of a splendid manifestation of the whole city's genuine affection and admiration for him and for Lady

Laurier, who shares with him popular esteem. The weather was not propitious. His arrival at the central station at seven o'clock was accompanied by a steady drizzle of rain. But the cheering crowds at the station that lined the streets and were massed in front of the city hall felt that the rain, like the return of the premier, "was good for the country."

The station, the streets, the City Hall and Sir Wilfrid's residence on Laurier avenue were gaily decorated with streamers, flags and bunting. Although the hour of his arrival was not favorable to the getting of a great crowd there were many hundreds crowding the station yard and platform when the train pulled in. Sir Wilfrid on alighting was greeted with rousing cheers, followed by the singing f that compelling national air O Canada, from a volunteer choir of two hundred voices
