CHIEF HILL SPOKE

Indians in Canada, He Says, Have Been Unfairly Treated.

At the one hundredth anniversary of the battle of Lundy's Lane at Niagara Falls, Saturday, Chief Hill of the Six Nation Indians, Brantford, whose race came in for warm thanks for their aid to the British in the war, added a pathetic note to the proceedings. He with several other chiefs had listened to the speeches and when he was called upon at the last he said the Indians in Canada were unfairly treated. In the United States the roads on the reserves were maintained by the Government and not by the Indians. "We are sorry to mingle complaints with this celebration," he said, "but it seems to be the only place that we can get a hearing."

Sir John Gibson's Speech

Under circumstances of memorable local enthusiasm and international concord, the one hundredth anniversary of the Battle of Lundy's Lane, was celebrated here Saturday by a crowd estimated at ten thousand persons. Though designed originally as a mere anniversary of the battle, the event inevitably gained the aspect that is in everybody's mouth, and despite the scarcely suppressed protests of several national enthusiasts, it became a rousing demonstration in honor of the century of peace. Various speakers had fun with the historians over the endless controversy as to the real result of the battle. "The embattled hosts struggled for many long hours," declared Doctor J. H. Conne, the St. Thomas historian, "and thought the battle was over, and rested. But the fight was only transferred. The historians took it up, and their warfare continues to-day." Mr. Frank H. Severance, secretary of the Buffalo Historical Society, also teased the historians. "It was the longest battle on record," he remarked. "It has been fought continuously for a hundred years. The British forces won a decisive victory here, if you read British or Canadian history. If you read American history the verdict is reversed. I take it that this afternoon is an armistice in the succession of hostilities. To-morrow, if you insist, the merry war may go on."

COMING TO CANADA.
MEXICO CITY, July 27.—General Pascual Orozco, Jr., has abandoned his independent revolutionary movement, and intends shortly to leave for Canada, according to messages intercepted here. He is said to have notified his wife, who has been for some time in Canada, that he will join her soon.

SURGEONS MEET
LONDON, July 27.—The Clinical Congress of Surgeons of North America opened here to-day with the largest registration list in its history, about 1,200 names being on the rolls. The week's activities consist of visits in the daytime to London hospitals, where demonstrations will be given by the most famous English surgeons in the operating rooms, and of meetings at night, where the world's leaders in surgery will read papers and conduct discussions.

FORT WILLIAM STORM
FORT WILLIAM, Ont., July 27.—Commencing at 8 o'clock last night the worst electric storm of years passed over Fort William. Shortly before 9 o'clock, the street car service was demoralized when one of the power generators was burned out. Shortly afterwards the municipal light was extinguished leaving the entire city in darkness for fifteen minutes. The big canvas shade over the forward deck of the excursion steamer Forest City was torn off and blown into the lake as the steamer was coming into Fort William from Silver Islet with about 300 passengers. Up to midnight all traffic on the street railway was at a standstill.

THE WAY IT WORKS.
"How is that no-tip hotel paying out?"
"Fine. Everybody tips on the sly, with a view to getting ahead of the other guests, and the employees are all happy."

THEY ALL KICKED.

The church was prettily decorated with flowers. To-morrow evening a farewell will be extended to Mr. and Mrs. Purton in the parish hall.

The funeral took place yesterday afternoon of Mrs. Elijah Churchill, an old and highly esteemed resident of Paris, who passed away on Friday in her 81st year. Deceased was born in Saltfleet, Ont., and was a daughter of the late John Jones. At the age of about 25 she was married to the late Elijah Churchill, and moved to Bleheim Tp., coming to Paris 1889, when they have since resided. Mr. Churchill predeceased her about 14 years ago. A GOOD SHOWING
Is Particularly Desired by Parade Committee on First Day.

Those in charge of the Old Home Week festivities are very anxious to have a parade put on by the merchants on Monday morning.

There will be people in the city from all over Canada and the States, and it is felt that such a display would serve to greatly advertise the mercantile resources of the community. Not only that, but it would give an opening filip to the succeeding demonstrations.

It is hoped that the merchants will get together with an all round determination to thus assist.

IF HAIR IS TURNING GRAY, USE SAGE TEA

Here's Grandmother's Recipe to Darken and Beautify Faded Hair.

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray, streaked and looks dry, wispy and scraggly, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred-fold.

Don't bother to prepare the tonic; you can get from any drug store a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," ready to use. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color, thickness and lustre of your hair and remove dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair.

Everybody uses "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur" because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning grey hair has disappeared and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy, lustrous and abundant. Agent T. George Bowles. 511
