WEDDING BELLS

Borden-Eaton
An unusually pretty wedding took place on Wednesday, August 16th, at Lower Canard, when Mr. Scott Emmerson Borden was married to Miss Estelle Delia Eaton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Eaton.

The ceremony was performed on the lawn at the home of the bride's parents, the bridal couple standing under an arch of green leaves and sweet peas, from which a floral bell was suspended.

The bride, a most talented and popular young lady, was a picture of girlishness and grace in her gown of white silk and Georgette crepe. She wore the bridal veil worn by her mother at her marriage and carried a bouquet of carnations, sweet peas and maiden hair fern. Two little flower girls, Misses Eaton and Florence Ellis, scattered sweet peas before the bride, who walked between garlands of sweet peas, held by six girl friends.

Rev. Mr. Prosser performed the ceremony.

The travelling suit was a tailored blue serge, with which she wore a becoming hat of rose-colored velour.

Mr. and Mrs. Borden motored to Westville, where they took the train for Sydney, followed by the best wishes of their many friends. On their return, they will reside in Lower Canard.

The wedding gifts were numerous and beautiful.

MARRIED AT WEST SOMERVILLE, MASS.

The marriage took place at West Somerville, Mass., on Saturday, July 8th, of Hilda Blanche Harris to Mr. James H. Ellis. The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walton Harris of Whitman, Mass., formerly of Wolfville, the mother of the bride being known here as Miss Maud Power of Upper Canard. The wedded couple will reside at Burnside Avenue, West Somerville, Mass.
