THE ACADIAN

WOLFVILLE, N. S., SEP. 25, 1891.

Local and Provincial.

College opened on Thursday. Mr Charles Rousseffell is home spending a short holiday.

Prof. Young is expected to preach in the Methodist church on Sabbath.

Dr. B. Vies has sold his gray mare, by "Allie Clay," to Mr J. D. Keddy, for $150.

Mr Frank DeWolf returned to Boston from his usual summer holiday at his old home here on Tuesday.

Call and see T. A. Munro's (Tailor) new stock of Fall and Winter Goods for Suits, Overcoats and Pants.

Mr O. D. Harris left on Tuesday for a trip up the St John river. He will take the St John exhibition before his return.

Little Miss Mariquita Gillmore, of Horton Landing, sent us a full blown crab-apple bloom on Wednesday—quite out of season.

Mr E. Spencer is moving the old station to his lot next Messrs Prat & Collins, and intends to fit it up and build an extension to it.

Mr Thos J. Borden has purchased the business formerly owned by H. A. Welton & Co., of Port Williams and intends to continue it. We wish him abundant success.

The Nova Scotia provincial exhibition promises to be a grand success. So far 91 dogs have been entered, 238 horses, 502 head of cattle, 426 sheep and 300 swine. In all there are over 4,000 entries.

Wringers selling low at Brown's. Mr C. H. Borden left on Saturday last for Fredericton and according to rumor he will not return home. The ceremony was to have been performed on Wednesday.

Congratulations. Mr David Wood, of Cambridge, had a large new barn burned on Monday, with contents. The fire was caused by a boy smoking in the barn—another warning that farmers would do well to heed.

Carpet Felt is an excellent thing to put under carpets in the fall—at Brown's. Mr J. Edmund Bars, the class poet of the class of '91, leaves to-day for Harvard University where he will take an arts course. Mr Bars stood high in his class and he will no doubt do honor to Acadia.

TEMPERANCE SONG SERVICE.—Tonight (Friday) in Witter's Hall, at 8 o'clock, by the celebrated Eccelestus Duet, Mr and Mrs Bowman, of Hamilton, Ont. All welcome. Silver collection taken at the door.

Flat Table Ware, in steel and silver plate, a fine assortment, at Brown's. A White Chester sow belonging to Thos. D. Darling, Waterville, recently gave birth to 17 pigs, of which 14 are still living. The sow is three years old and has given birth to 71 pigs, of which 20 were raised realizing $114.

Mr B. C. Greenman, who was here last summer and held Gospel meetings, has had his tent pitched near Mr Vaughan's Bakery this week. His meetings have been well attended and interesting we believe. We are sorry to learn that the meetings were disturbed to some extent by rowdy element outside.

"Lightning" Hay knives, to cut hay in the mow, at Brown's. Mr D. E. Woodman brought into our office on Tuesday a blossom from a crab-apple tree which he picked on that day in the garden of his brother, Mr. Omer Woodman, at Prospect. The tree has been bearing heavily for several years and is this year loaded with fruit. The blossom presented a strange appearance growing as it did among the ripening apples.

"Unity" Tyro Cement, for bicycles and perambulators, at Walter Brown's. Mr William Fredericks, a native of Cambridge, was recently killed at Revere, Mass. The deceased left this country about twenty years ago and settled in Revere, where he has prospered. At the time of his death he was a member of the city fire brigade, and it was while out with the engine that he was thrown and killed by a horse decending a grade. Many of our older residents will remember the father of the deceased, Mr Joseph Fredericks, being drowned at North river, about twenty years ago, by the upsetting of a canoe.

thing not only to love but also to admire. Presented in Love, Purity and Fidelity on behalf of the Division.

L. A. LESLEY, W. P. Billtown, Sept. 19th, 1891.

Miss Bill, who was taken altogether by surprise thanked the Division for their kind remembrance in a few well chosen words. After spending a few moments in pleasant conversation Miss Bill took her place at the organ and played "God be with you till we meet again," all present joining in the chorus. Farewells and best wishes were then said and the company broke up.

Berwick Gleanings

Rev. McCully Black is here for rest. A. F. Chipman is shipping Gravensteins. Our real estate agent, A. A. Ford, is endeavoring to locate three Englishmen who are looking for unimproved farm lands. It is reported that Mr Ford has bought out the furniture business from Mr Parker for a Windsor man, and is bargaining for the McLeod place for Mrs Jones and son, formerly of "Fern Lodge," Waterville. Mrs E. C. Finney, of Melvern, is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs A. J. McLeod. A. A. Shaw, of class '92, has been visiting friends and returned to Acadia on Tuesday. Mrs Edwin Morse and Mrs George Hillyer have been spending a few days with their brother, H. Masters. Aubrey Benjamin who has been sick of fever in Boston, was able to get home last week. Rev E. E. Daley is still confined to his house with typhoid fever. The low mucky grounds near the parsonage and other residences close by, together with a loose regard of the laws of sanitation have, it is believed, been large factors in causing disease and death in this neighborhood. Mr Black and Mr Shaw supplied for Mr Deley last Sunday. The personal property of the late Jas S. Witter was sold at auction on Wednesday. Mrs Witter intends returning with her daughter Mrs Crawley to Fredericton to spend the winter. Rev. D. W. Cranall's family, who have been boarding at the "Central" the past year, will occupy her home in her absence. Frank Bishop, Percy Shaw and Ella Cranall enter the freshman class at Acadia this term. John H. Parker goes to Belleville business college. D. Livingston Parker is thinking of going to McMaster. Miss M. A. Parker, Owen Chipman and H. M. Shaw expect to return to Acadia. The chess factory at Weston closed for the season last Saturday. Leader Chute expects to harvest 200 bushels of onions from half an acre of land. The cranberries are being gathered and are a fair crop. The Y. P. C. E. Society gave a social and literary entertainment in the vestry of the Baptist church on Tuesday evening.
