Chipman Hall. The hour was late, the streets deserted, and we participants thought the fun entirely innocent. Not so some likely youths from the "Hall," who because possessed of the idea that the laws of the town should be enforced at any cost.

I now call to mind the raid Mr. Young made upon the Fruit Growers' Association at its annual meeting in Wolfville in 1892.

Such criminality might have been expected from a gang of thugs of the escaped inmates of a lunatic asylum, but from men (parade the pen-slip)—well I shall continue the subject no further, the comparison reflects too strongly upon the thugs and lunatics.

ONE OF THE SURVIVORS. Sunday School Concert.

The Baptist Sunday School gave a service of song in the Baptist church last Sunday evening.

The service was opened by reading of scripture and prayer by Rev. H. H. Hatch, of Waterville, Maine, who presided very acceptably on Sunday morning.

For SALE.—Ten thousand feet of Dry Clear Pine, planed on one side.

I had fondly hoped that the contemplated Apple and Produce Shipping Co. would materialize and prove a success, but there are some grave reasons for which there is no more like printer's ink.

Every student when he enters College seems to become infected with a four year's itch for devilry and with the progress of the disease we are all familiar with thinking their harkneyed, infatigable tricks a little tame for grown men, made a new departure in this line.

A few evenings ago a party of boys and girls (young ladies and gentlemen in the drawing room) were conversing
