They were given a warm reception, being met on arrival by the Ladies' Reception Committee and a squad from the Regiment; also they were addressed by the Minister of Militia.

PATRONAL FESTIVAL

Observed at St. Michael's

St. Michael's Church observed its Patronal Festival yesterday, on the Feast of St. Michael and All Angels, the day being marked as an unusual event through the visit of His Lordship Bishop White. This was the first occasion on which the Bishop of the Diocese had been able to take part in the Patronal services in the history of this Church. His Lordship was present at the 11 o'clock Eucharist, occupying a throne on the Gospel side of the Sanctuary. The Rev. Canon Field was the celebrant of the Holy Sacrifice, assisted by the Rev. E. H. Fletcher. The Bishop read the Holy Gospel and pronounced the Absolution and Benediction as directed by the Rubrics. His Lordship also preached the sermon, taking as his text: "Are they not all ministering spirits sent forth to minister to them who shall be heirs of salvation." The discourse was a very lucid instruction on the nature and ministry of the Holy Angels, proving from the teaching of the Church and the Bible that these Angelic beings not only worship God in Heaven, but are sent to earth as servants of man. To each of us is assigned a Guardian Angel to be our companion and helper from Baptism to death and to carry the soul into paradise hereafter. The Bishop exhorted his hearers to more earnest belief in the assistance of the Holy Angels and to find comfort and help from their protection and an inspiration to do God's will "on earth as it is in Heaven."

The past Church year at Saint Michael's has been one of much activity and forward work. It is hoped before another Feast Day comes around to have new pews in the Church, and a site purchased on Le-Marchant Road for a Church and Parsonage. Towards these ends the visit of their Father in God has been an enthusiastic encouragement.

A MENACE TO PUBLIC HEALTH

Yesterday an uncovered box of rotten rabbits placed on a retaining wall at Rennie's Mill Road, where they were festering in the sun, attracted the attention of all passersby that were in a radius of a hundred yards or more, owing to the strong odour from them. Who left the box of bunnies in the place mentioned is not known, but at least the authorities should try and find out who the miscreant was for the sake and safety of the health of the community.

BIRTHS

On Sept. 22nd, to Mr. and Mrs. Alex. W. Mow, a son.

COAL AND IRON DEPOSITS

It is said that Mr. H. B. Hatch, mineral geologist, who has been prospecting for a considerable time in St. George's district, has found an extensive bituminous coal seam at Howley. The deposit shows a seven-foot clear seam. In addition to this "lens" discovered the greater deposit of chrome iron ore known to exist in America, and development work will soon be started on both, on an extensive scale. Mr. Hatch considers Newfoundland the best unexplored mining prospects of the Western Hemisphere. This is very encouraging news from a geologist of such high standing and wide experience.

BIG LIQUOR SEIZURES

From people who have just come from there we hear that some big seizures liquor were made in Sydney recently. One of the principal dives, which did a rather extensive "bootleg" and "moonshine" business and which place held a close acquaintance and striking attractiveness for certain St. John's folk, it is said, was raided by the police last week and some startling and sensational "finds" were made. The proprietor on being found guilty, was fined $600, which, however, the booze man did not appear to mind, presumably because of the thriving trade he was doing, and the next day, we are told, he was again in the wholesale business and "open at the usual hours."

Mr. F. J. Doyle, Nautical Instructor and Teacher of Navigation, who was on a holiday trip to the United States returned to the city yesterday. During his stay in the land of Uncle Sam he was treated by each one of his many old time Newfoundland friends that he met with over "six feet" of hospitality.

POLICE COURT

This morning in the Police Court a Norwegian sailor of a steamship lying at Franklin's wharf became "flush" with Florida Water. On boarding his ship he became disorderly and assaulted one of the ship's engineers. The mate of the ship called the police and the man was locked up. The charge being proven against him by the ship's officers the prisoner was fined $5.00 or 14 days.
 A Lower Island Cove fisherman, arrested Saturday night while under the influence, deposited $2.00 yesterday and was released.
 A city tradesman Saturday evening interfered with Constable Peddie while in the discharge of his duty. The officer was taking a prisoner down Queen's Road about 7.30 p.m. when the defendant in this morning's action pushed him. Later on the officer found his man and took him to the police station, where he spent the night and a part of yesterday. This morning he was fined $10.00 or 23 days.
 Frank Keating of Finn's Lane, one of the alleged assailants of Constable Thos. Murphy on Sebastian St. last Thursday morning, was before the court this a.m. He pleaded not guilty and was remanded for eight days. Constable Murphy, beside the other injuries received by him is suffering from a broken arm.

CASE TAKEN AGAINST THE WRONG MAN

The case against the West End grocer, Mr. Hy. Winsor, who was charged with a breach of pure food act, in exposing or offering for sale a barrel of pork which was unfit for consumption, proved that the Inspector of Food had not the slightest reason to make him the defendant. Evidence was given, however, which will result in the prosecution of a city auctioneer who is really the guilty party. Mr. Higgins, K.C., appeared for Mr. Winsor, and Mr. T. Halley for Inspector O'Brien.

THE FESTIVAL OF SAINT MICHAEL

The Rev. J. Savin was the preacher at the R. C. Cathedral last evening. His sermon was based on the Gospel of the Day and was delivered in such a lucid and convincing manner as to make a deep impression on the large congregation present. The preacher amplified his text by appropriate reference to the Feast of St. Michael the Archangel, whose intercession the Church had for all the centuries sought as a defender against the wickedness and snares of the devil. Having quoted the scriptural proof that St. Michael and all the angels, these pure spirits, were ever with us as guardians of God to guide the Christian in the ways of virtue, the preacher warned the congregation that sin in its most filthy form ravaged the world to-day. Not alone were his words applicable to distant lands, continental countries or large cities, it was only too true that right here in the city of St. John's those filthy sins which contain the fire that damn the soul were all too prevalent. In conclusion Fr. Savin exhorted all to have recourse constantly to prayer to our guardian angels, whose intercession was so confidently sought in the days of innocent youth. To those who had fallen he urged them to frequent the sacraments—Nob should those whose lives were clean and honest be unmindful of their parental obligation which rested upon them to lend the helping hand to those who had fallen by the wayside. To such as these would be given the celestial wedding garment of an endless glory in heaven.

THE NFD. SOCIETY OF CHICAGO

Letter From Sir Joseph Outerbridge. (To the Editor.)
 Dear Sir:—While at a meeting of the Newfoundland War Contingent Association in London, it was suggested that Chicago people interested in business with Newfoundland, might like to subscribe to the funds of the Association, and I wrote to Mr. Robert W. Barnes on the subject. That gentleman very kindly called a meeting of the Newfoundlanders resident in Chicago and formed "The Newfoundland Society of Chicago". He also interested Companies connected by business with Newfoundland, with the result that £252.5.2 have been remitted to Mr. Henry Reeve, C.M.G., Hon. Secretary of the Newfoundland War Contingent Association, London. I enclose for publication a list of the contributors.

SUSU BACK FROM NORTH.

The s. s. Susu, Captain Horwood, has returned from the Cook's Harbour mail service, after an excellent trip. By her we learn that there is very little, if any, improvement in the codfishery. On the whole there has been a poor sign of fish, but at places where fish struck in lately handliners did not do much, owing to the scarcity of bait. A large freight came along on the steamer to St. John's and the following passengers in saloon: Rev. J. A. Meaden, Messrs. H. Heater, S. Legge, E. Snow, N. Kelly, F. Foley, D. Foley, U. Randall, J. Travers, J. Philpot, T. J. Ryan, F. Ryan, Z. Ford, J. Reese, Privates J. Ford, J. Payne, J. Brennan, A. Pilgrim, Reservists Penney, Saunders; Messdames Gibbons, Walker, Reese, Adey, Taylor, Bussey, Simmonds, Elliott and Holmes and daughter; Misses Harding, Moore, Payne, Pilgrim, Foley (2), Legge, Larkin, Laing, Hurley, Newell and 12 in steerage.

THE NEWSPAPER SHARE.

(From the Boston Globe)
 The newspaper is almost if not indeed, the only business which is expected to give the Government anything free of charge. It is proud of this distinction, and in its editorial and news columns it gives lavish support to all the war drives and patriotic campaigns. In its desire for the success of those movements, it has not chosen to press a just claim to consideration for the interests of its own business. Nor ought it to be obliged to speak for itself. Its actions should speak loudly enough to obtain a treatment as fair as all other businesses receive without question.
