"A Cup of Cold Water."

Matthew viii, 42.

The Lord of the harvest walked forth one day.

Where the fields were white with the ripening wheat.

Where the sun had sent in the early morn.

Where the dew was on the grassy sod.

Where the birds were singing their joyous note.

Where the bees were humming their busy note.

Where the flowers were nodding their heads.

Where the children were playing their games.

Where the old men were sitting on their benches.

Where the young men were standing in their ranks.

Where the women were working in their fields.

GENERAL NEWS.

—There are said to fifty-two kinds of sheep in the world.

—England imported last year 1,033,579,440 eggs from foreign countries.

—One hundred square miles of timber land have been destroyed by fire near Cow Bay, C. B.

—One half of all the potatoes that are raised in the state of Maine are grown in Aroostook.

—In one district of Algeria, 50,000 gallons of grasshoppers' eggs have been collected and burned this year.

—A Shipment of Canadian cheese to Japan via British Columbia, has been made from Belleville, Ont.

—Workers in the Michigan lumber woods are agitating against the employment of French Canadians.

—The people of Palmont, Ind., blew up a building with dynamite to prevent the proposed opening of a liquor saloon.

—The Prairie Farmer claims that the live stock business has been as much overdone as wheat raising, hence of course the low prices.

—A three year old child of Peter Dowd of Lewisville, N. B., died Wednesday from the effects of sunstroke received the previous day.

—The debt of the city of Halifax is about one and three quarters million dollars. The debt of St. John, N. B., is about a million larger.

—A little Rockland school girl told one of her playmates that she could tell a lie and go to heaven, because her father was an alderman.

—The enormous sum of two millions of dollars is said to have been offered for Senator Sanford's rich marble quarries in the North West.

—The total egg crop of the United States, or the product handled by the large cities and towns, is estimated at $150,000,000 annually.

—One of the old almanac jokes—born nobody knows when—"whereas the sun will rise on the day of the resurrection, and as good as illustration of perpetual motion as we have.

—Blondin, the famous rope dancer, and the first to cross the Niagara river on a tight-rope; returns to this country next summer after an absence of over twenty years.

—Eli Parks, a prominent citizen of Charlotte, Mich., was literally torn to pieces by a mad bull. The remains were found scattered about the premises. The bull was shot.

—Mr. Baird, the member for Queens, is becoming very popular in the country at large as well as in his own district. He is a persistent backslider to which he has been subjected.

—Some people who keep bees say that the bees are making large quantities of honey, but are not sending out any swarms. Last winter was one of the hardest for bees for thirty years.

—There are serious cases of mortality among the cattle at various places in New Hampshire.

—Many new whooping cough and pertussis combined, but its exact character has not yet been ascertained.

—There is a great building boom in Winnipeg at present. Buildings to the value of $400,000 are under construction. Many new wholesale warehouses are being erected. Most of the buildings are of the most substantial character.

—Life is too short to try to get good stock in any other way than by breeding to the best sires, and get full blood females too, if you can. Don't wait ten years to get ready to make money, but breed the best stock and you will make the most money.—Ec.

—From an examination of butter from various parts of France, M. E. Duclaux learns that, contrary to general opinion, the quality of this article depends largely upon the breed of cattle and their food, the pasture, soil, influence of season, age of milk, etc.

—Maine farmers complain of a midge which is affecting the herdsgraze in one of the lower joints, and the part above soon begins to turn white and it soon falls dead from the stem. Acres of nice grass in some fields are reported as greatly injured in this way.

—The packing cases are being put together at the Portland Packing Co.'s corn canning shops in Yassalboro. There are to be ten thousand of these boxes each holding two dozen cases. It is expected that apples will be canned at the shop this season.

—Those two celebrated preachers, the Rev. Dr. Bacon and the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, were once disputing on some religious subject, when the former accused the latter of using wit in his sermons. "Well," said Mr. Beecher, "suppose it had pleased God to give you wit what would you have done?"

—The agriculturists in the South of Ireland are having a hard time of it. The pastures are burning up and cattle are starving by the wholesale. The heat is intense and there has been no rain. The result is a complete absence of growth in the cereal and green crops, and the possibility that if no rain comes in the immediate future, of there being no harvest.

Notion to Say.

(From The Century Magazine.)

Notion to say, my daughter! Notion to say!

Girls think in love, I've noticed, glibly as their way.

Yet mother did, afore you, when her folks objected to her love, and her mother—where is she?

You look lots like your mother: Purty much the same in size;

And about the same completed; 'an' favor about the eyes.

Like her, too, 'bout 'em here, because 't'd 'most seem like you was dead like her!—but I ain't got notion to say!

She left you her little Bible—write your name across the page—

And left her car-bells for you, of ever you come of age.

I've allus kep' 'em and gaurded 'em, but I've not worn 'em since.

Notion to say, my daughter! Notion to say!

(Her mother as just twenty when we two ran away.)

Twenty year! and as good a girl as parent ever found!

There's a straw ketch on your dress there—'t'd break it off—turn round.

(Her mother as just twenty when we two ran away.)

Notion to say, my daughter! Notion to say!

(Her mother as just twenty when we two ran away.)

A Sluggish Liver

Causes the Stomach and Bowels to become disordered, and the whole system to suffer from debility. In all such cases Ayer's Pills give prompt relief.

After much suffering from Liver and Stomach troubles, I have finally been cured by taking Ayer's Cathartic Pills. I always find them prompt and thorough in their action, and their occasional use keeps me in a perfectly healthy condition. —Edith Weckman, Annapolis, Md.

Twenty-five years ago I suffered from a torpid liver, which was restored to healthy action
