PAIN OVER THE HEART

FLUTTERING AND PALPITATION.

Dangerous Symptoms of a Dangerous Disease.

Heart pains rarely come from a diseased heart—but from an irritated Heart or "Stomach Heart." The cause of the trouble lies with a bad stomach or non-action of the bowels.

If you have pains over the heart, palpitation and fluttering of the heart, pains running down the left side, you know, too, that you have indigestion, and that the bowels are not regular. Indigestion and constipation produce gas in the stomach, which bulges out the walls and thus presses upon and irritates the heart.

"Heart-tonics" won't cure because the trouble is not with the heart. "Fruitatives" cure irritated heart—stop palpitation, pain and weak spells—because they act on stomach, liver and kidneys—improve digestion—regulate the bow els—tone up the appetite—and build up the whole system.

"I had a nasty pain over my heart, which alarmed me. I consulted several physicians, but nothing did me any good. While Husband Was Watching Her.
Chicago, Ill., Nov. 20.—Joseph Leslie was charged with being both a bigamist and a hypnotist by Mrs. Annie Leslie in Judge Maxwell's court. "He will hypnotize me the same as he did when he got me to marry him, and I won't be able to tell a straight story," the woman told the court. Leslie was compelled to step back. Then he asked and obtained a continuance.

MUSTN'T REST ON THEIR LAURELS. Japanese Army Told It Must Be Ever

Ready.

Tokio, Nov. 20.—The grand army manoeuvres closed yesterday. At the conclusion a luncheon was given by Minister of War Terauchi to the forcign military attaches and newspaper correspondents, at which the Emperor was present.

In an address. Minister Terauchi said that while the manoeuvres had been the most extensive since the close of the recent war, they were necessary in order to maintain a high standard in the army. The great powers were constantly improving their armies and it was necessary for them to do the same in order to ensure equal efficiency.

The soldiers of Japan should not be satisfied with the glory won by the achievements in the last great war, but should seek always to improve. This did not necessarily mean preparation for an immediate war, but was only in accord with the duty of all great nations. An Imperial garden party was given to-day. The Empress did not attend on account of indisposition, but was represented by the Crown Prince and Princess. About one thousand persons were present. A number of presentations were made, including Mrs. Rodolphe Lemieux, of Canada, and other ladies connected with the foreign embassies.
