Glorious News

Comes from Dr. D. E. Cargile, of Washita, L.T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help; but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved,—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys, and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion, builds up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by all Druggists, every bottle guaranteed.

PETERSVILLE CHURCH, QUEENS CO.

To EDITOR QUEENS COUNTY GAZETTE, Oct. 12th, 1899.

Early in September you published an account of a picnic, held by the Presbyterians of this place, to which I wish to make partial exception, viz: that of a Peteraville J. P. "being the leader in a row, etc.

I think the most successful method of refuting a statement that has been made public, is by drawing the public mind to the author of such statement, in a manner somewhat similar to that suggested by Southey, "Come walk along with me and I will answer thee." So let us, likewise, have a look for ourselves, and if, after carefully noting the physique, phenological and general appearance as well as ascertaining the intellectual balance of the author of this effusion in question, we are ready to give vent to our feelings in such words as Wordsworth: "Proud am I that my country bred such strength, a dignity so fair." There, I am willing to allow the article to go for what it is worth. But if the experiment proves of a negative character then I will be bold enough to contradict the statement no further than with the variation, that instead of saying a "Peteraville J. P.", etc., be substituted the son of a Summer Hill, J. P., with the addition that for crying out "Go in Hamilton," he got it not "where the chicken got the axe," but in the eye, which caused him to manifest a sort of groping appearance in all his movements for the next two or three succeeding weeks.

He should also have said that intoxicating drinks were sold at this picnic, and that trouble was plotted, but, I suppose the public will say, particularly those who know this correspondent, that we never look at his scribbling.

I will give you the particulars at some future date, but kindly insert the above so as to set the ball a rolling.

Another great discovery has been made and that too by a lady in this country. For three months she coughed incessantly, and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery, by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and was so much relieved on taking first dose, that she slept all night; and with two bottles has been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz." Thus writes W. C. Hamrick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Sold by all Druggists at 50 cents and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed.

Round Hill.

Old Jack Frost has again made his appearance in this community. He tells us that winter is near. I am willing to say that he is not a false prophet. Messrs. Morgan and Wansbury are busy preparing for a large winter's operation in the lumber woods. George Cochran of Oliverville, Willis Spaight of this settlement and Lucy Ross, of Greenwich have begun their winter's work. We wish them all success in their venture.

Long years ago Jackson and Derrah displayed great bravery in a fierce encounter with a bear. Now I have the opportunity to record an adventure which proves that all of us are not heroes. Yesterday a person was out hunting when he chanced to come across Mr. Brin. He seemed to think that he had no way to defend himself, for instead of shooting the bear, he started in great haste for home. In short it is believed he made a child's bargain with the brute. The bargain was Mr. Bear you leave me alone and I will not harm you. Would he not make a brave soldier?

Ansley Derrah, several of the Speight's James Blyes, George Fowler (our youthful Nimrod), William Morgan Jr., and Henry Lee have all departed for the lumber woods, and in consequence there is much moaning, some for a loving husband, others for their sweetheart. May they all have a safe return.

VICTORIA, Oct. 25.—News from the north today is that Dawson has caught the war fever, and her citizens have sent an offer to contribute one hundred men and money to equip and pay them on service to fight for the British cause in South Africa. Many of the volunteers are time expired men of the Northwest Mounted Police and are splendid cavalry soldiers.

A Horrible Fate.

PETERBORO, Ont., Oct. 26.—Peter Weiss was literally blown to pieces, not enough of his body being found to warrant burial, and Goldsmith, an American, had both hands blown off, and the sight of both eyes destroyed by an explosion of dynamite in their camp at Jack's Lake, Peterboro county. They were members of a party of gold prospectors and were left in camp to prepare the cartridges, while the others were prospecting, when the explosion occurred.
