The meeting at Montague Wednesday was a splendid one. The hall was crowded to the doors. Speeches were made by eight candidates, four from Murray Harbor and four from Cardigan. Senator Robertson, Mr. J. A. Macdonald and Mr. J. J. Hughes spoke afterwards. It was a great meeting and the best of order prevailed. The predominant feature of the meeting was the intense conservative feeling which prevailed all through despite the effort of Government supporters to extinguish it.

WHAT may terminate in a fatal accident occurred Thursday morning on the cruiser Osprey lying in the harbor. Edmund Richard, from Guysboro went up the topmast to loosen a pennant which had caught in rigging when in some manner he lost his hold and fell eighty feet to the deck, striking the rail by the main rigging. A copper pin was driven through his leg, his jaw bone was broken, teeth dislocated and base of skull crushed. Several physicians are doing their utmost to save his life.

The steamer Manchester Trator sailed last Friday morning at seven o'clock direct for Manchester. Her cargo was one of the largest that has ever left this port on a single steamer, the shippers of live stock Messrs Barrett Henderson, who sent 1200 sheep and 15 head of cattle, John and Geo. Whately & Co. and Wm. Sellar. Among shippers of general cargo were Dillon & Spiller, J. J. Hornby, Auld Bros. Matthew & McLean, Bours; R. N. Cox, Morell; A. A. McDonald & Bros. Georgetown; John Robertson, Inverness; John McCormack, Cardigan; and D. H. Auld, Corehead.

A letter from Byron O. Lott was received in Stirling Oct. 1, Friday last by a prominent citizen. It bore the postmark of Syracuse, N. Y. and was evidently mailed there. Its contents lead one to believe that Lott intends to return to Belleville at an early date and give evidence in the bogus ballot-box conspiracy case. He asked for assistance, and craves the good offices of his friends in his behalf in the present and the approaching trials. He says he is heartbroken and anxious to return. He also mentions his wife, and wishes the recipient of the letter to comfort and reassure her.

Boston, Dec. 2.—Favorable comment is being made here on the manner in which Percy W. Carver, of P. E. Island, has come to the front in handling the case of Newton vs. Chadwick. Carver was acting for the plaintiff, and the defendant who secured very large sums of money under alleged false pretenses has been in difficulties before. [Mr. Carver is a son of Richard Carver, Pownal, and is married to the daughter of David Small, of this city. His friends here will be glad to hear of his success.]

The St. Andrew's Celebration.

The Caledonian Club of Charlottetown have honored in the real Scottish spirit, the anniversary of St. Andrew for many years, yet in the opinion of the great majority of those who joined in the festivities of Wednesday evening, the celebration of this year was the most successful that has been.

The recently enlarged dining room of the Queen Hotel was filled to its utmost seating capacity, about one hundred guests all told, and over half of those of the greater part of the evening in which they have partaken along with their kind men of the St. Andrew's enjoyments.

After grace by Rev. T. F. Fullerton and light refreshments, the Haggis was brought forth with the customary honors. It was piped to by Piper Ferguson and addressed in true Scottish style by Mr. Charles Webster, and eaten by all. Who wouldn't be a Scotchman when Haggis is about.

President Alexander McDonald who occupied the chair, with Lient Governor McKinnon and Mayor Kelly to his right and Chief McGregor, Rev. T. F. Fullerton, and President R. E. Maddigan of the P. E. I. S., to his left, then began the feast of reason and the flow of soul with a short, eloquent address, referring to the added pleasures brought about by the presence of the ladies, thanking all for their various parts in assuring the success of the evening, and pointing out briefly the aims and benefits of national societies in general and the Caledonia Club in particular.

After the toast to King Edward the Seventh, "The Day and All Who Honor It" was enthusiastically drunk, and responded to by Rev. T. F. Fullerton, who was even more than usually entertaining with his witty stories and eloquent portrayal of the patriotism and bravery of Scotland's past as well as her present high standing in education, literature and national solidarity.

Vice-President Calder who occupied the vice chair then sang, as he well knows how, "The Laird o' Cockpen."

The next toast was to Lieutenant Governor McKinnon and it was heartily honored, followed by the presentation of a complimentary address.

Miss F. McKenzie regaled the Pipers of Lunenburg and the next toast was Our Canadian Home coupled with the name of Mr. James McInnes who was eloquent and enthusiastic in his reply.

Miss Hazel Bammer then sang "O Sing to Me The Old Scotch Songs" so well, that she was compelled to follow it with "Coming Through the Rye."

"Sister Societies" was ably responded to by President Maddigan of the P. E. I. S., and the toast to the City of Charlottetown was acknowledged by His Worship Mayor Kelly who, not only in his words but also in his actions, always presents an example to citizens of earnestness and interest in the improvement and betterment of Charlottetown.

Mr. Major Galbraith played a cornet solo and then came the toast to The Ladies and after the singing of For They are Jolly Good Fellows, Captain J. A. McDonald on behalf of the fair sex neatly and briefly acknowledged the honor.

The last toast was Our Hostess to which Mr. Woodbury spoke on behalf of Mr. Archibald.

And then the chairs and tables were cleared away, the floor sprinkled with chalk, and with Miss Robins at the piano accompanied on the cornet by Major Galbraith, and Mr. Paton as Master of Ceremonies, the flying hours were chased with willing feet, old and young, large and small, all joining in the ever popular dance.
