

New Advertisements this week.
 Tax Sale Postponement.
 This way—J. A. Reid and Bro.
 Salted Herring—S. R. McDougall.
 One Night Only—Kerry Gow.
 Notice—J. H. Richards, C. H. H. Richards.
 Change of Business—John Robertson.
 Chicago Council Meeting—J. H. Richards.

TOWN TOPICS.

A child's amusements, taken notes.
 A faithful friend.

Presented—Any one buying fifty cents worth of goods, will get a good Dictionary free at Mother's.

Work tells, and that's why Geo. Stewart has so many orders for crayons, oil paintings and photographic views.

Going! Going! 20% off plumes, mantles, capes and flowered dresses taken in exchange. Mrs. C. H. Girvin.

Three-quarters of all the Sewing machines sold throughout the West last year were genuine Singers. C. H. Girvin.

The rush of work to F. & A. Pridham's has been phenomenal this fall, and they are kept at it hard and fast endeavoring to overtake orders. The good fits that do the business.

Immense bargains offered in all kinds of furniture up to Dec. 20th, to make room for Christmas goods. I have a large stock of Xmas goods cheap. G. C. Robertson, Crabb, Black.

A number of cameras are mentioned in connection with the rivalry contest, but when it comes to taking first-class photos, R. S. Salmons would carefully produce taken in the hands of the camera.

Geo. Klynas the local agent for the L. C. Ryan is doing a good line in that trade, but is well prepared to fill orders, and give inducements to purchasers. Also headquarters for drugs and chemicals.

THE WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN TEMPERANCE UNION will meet regularly for the transaction of business every Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, in Knox church. Every woman interested in the work is cordially invited to attend.

FINK TAILORING—Customers ready to stand up and be measured for a full suit or overcoat of strictly the choicest goods in the market, with a cut and make in strict accordance with true taste and true art, should inspect McCormack's immense stock of new fall goods, fall suitings and nobby overcoats in all the new shades. Don't fail to see them.

THE HURON AND BRUCE LOAN AND INVESTMENT COMPANY—Depositors in this company have the best possible security for their money, all being invested in mortgage on farm property. Depositors have a first lien in all the company's assets. Rate of interest paid from 4 to 5 per cent, according to amount and duration of deposit. Farmers having surplus means should call and see the manager.

Goode's Black Cherry Balsam is the best preparation out for coughs and colds, so prevalent at this time of the year. Try it. A full stock of everything in the drug line constantly on hand. Particular attention is invited to our stock of hair brushes and toilet articles—good, varied and cheap. Personal attention to physicians' prescriptions and family receipts. Charges moderate. W. C. Goode, druggist, Albion block.

Knox Church Band of Hope will meet on Saturday at three o'clock.

Inspector Tom at his Thanksgiving turkey in Goderich this year.

F. W. Johnston, barrister, returned from his Ottawa trip on Saturday.

Wm. Kyle, returned from a five weeks' visit to Dundas Saturday evening last.

Mrs. Ann Morris has returned after having a pleasant visit with Mrs. Gentles, Kincaid.

John Galt, of Moncton, N. B., has been in town during the past week, visiting friends.

Chas. A. Vanatter, of Stratford, spent a couple of days in town last week, the guest of his brother.

Rev. G. F. Salton was suffering from the effects of a severe cold during the early part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Lewis arrived home Monday evening and have taken rooms at the British Exchange.

H. I. Strang, B.A., headmaster of Goderich high school, was in Toronto on educational business last week.

T. B. Van Every has received his appointment as Deputy Marshal of the Marine Court, Goderich District.

Reference will be made next Sabbath evening in the Victoria St. Methodist church, to the death of Miss Grace Bell.

Robert Porter, of Elmvale, Simcoe county, M.P. for West Huron, was in town during the early part of the week.

Wm. Marlton is making great haste with the tug he is building, and has a large number of hands employed on the work.

Ed. Stotts, of Detroit, formerly of Goderich, spent a few days last week visiting his many old friends in this neighborhood.

The maximum rate of growth occurs in girls from the eleventh to the thirteenth year, and in boys from the fourteenth to the sixteenth year.

Helen—Mamma, what is a cause belli? Mother—My child, never speak of anything so indecent. It is the Latin for stomach ache.

Nicholas Austin returned from Dakota last week, looking hale and hearty after having put in a good season's work on his farm in that State.

Dr. McDougall will be in Goderich for consultation on Saturday, the 3rd of December, and afterwards on the first Saturday of every month.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Morris have returned from Dakota after spending a very pleasant summer. They are highly delighted with the country.

Dr. M. Nicholson, the West street dentist, makes the preservation of the natural teeth a specialty. Gas administered from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. for the painless extraction of teeth.

RAILWAY MEETING.—A meeting of the citizens committee will be held in the council chamber Monday evening next, Nov. 28th at 7:30 o'clock, for the purpose of reorganization.

CROWDED OUT.—Owing to pressure upon our columns this week the correspondence signed "Ben Miller," and a quantity of interesting local and township news is unavoidably crowded out.

J. A. Reid & Bro. will this week, open a new lot of heavy melon dress goods at very low prices. Also grey flannels, all wool 26 inches wide at 15c per yd. The best and cheapest goods in town.

Miss Grace Polley was home on vacation, to take part in the demolition of the Thanksgiving turkey. She is well satisfied with the tuition of Alma College, and intends to spend the next two years at that seat of learning.

Miss Aggie Knox, an undergraduate of Toronto University, and formerly a resident of Goderich, has been appointed on the staff of the Philadelphia School of Oratory, of which she is a distinguished graduate and gold medalist.

There are lots of editors like-minded with that one out West, who having heard that persons in a drowning condition instantaneously recollect all the transactions of all their lives, wished that some of his subscribers would take to bathing in deep water.

STRUCK THE BAR.—Wednesday evening of last week the tug Myles with 38,000 bushels of wheat for the big mill, and having in tow the Gulnair, laden with 22,000 bushels of wheat, struck on the bar at the entrance to the harbor, about at about three hours before she reached her dock.

NOT AGAINST THE RAILROAD.—Trustee Swanson desires us to state that he is not against the railroad, but would prefer to have the line come from the South. He says he wants to see Goderich keep in the front rank, and will do his level best to help her onward.

SAD.—Mrs. McDougall, who recently came from Leadville, Col., to visit relatives in this section, has met with a double bereavement in the death of her only child, Ernie, and the demise of her brother Rev. Charles McManus on the same day. She has the sympathy of a large circle of friends.

Mrs. W. Watson was agreeably surprised on Monday evening last by receiving from her Sunday school class, composed of boys, a very handsome album as a token of their remembrance to her, and to remind her when looking at it of their appreciation of her as a kind and loving teacher.

A QUANTITY LEFT YET.—We have still a quantity of old paper on hand. It is suitable for wrapping paper, putting under carpets, cutting patterns, and many other purposes. In order to dispose of it as quickly as possible the price has been placed at 3c per lb. Call and get some at the SIGNAL office.

PROGRESS OF SCIENCE.—Step by step science is taking all the poetry out of life. Some ingenious fiend has now contrived an electrical attachment to a fishing rod which rings a bell when a fish bites and thereby does away with the necessity of raising a cork or keeping alert the sense of touch along the line.

AN ELOQUENT PREACHER.—Rev. G. R. Turk, who recently resigned the pastorate of the North-st. Methodist congregation in Goderich, to accept a call to the Congregational church at Atlanta, Georgia, will get $3,000 a year in his new position.

Mr. Turk is described by the Atlanta papers as one of the most eloquent preachers in America.

A CONNECTION TO THE PUBLIC.—Hitherto return tickets bought at railway stations have only been for a limit of six days, but the different railways have manifested a disposition to deal more liberally with the travelling public, and have made all return tickets, good for thirty days. This extension will no doubt be appreciated by the travelling public.

Charles A. Nairn recently spent a week in Detroit, and amongst other things examined minutely into the working of the new Edison incandescent light. He says it is far superior to any other, and is for store and office use than the old system of electric light. Charlie ought to be on the council board next year to enlighten the darkness of the present members.

PRESENTED WITH MEDALS.—Capt. Wm. Bab, of the lifeboat service, Goderich, has been presented with a gold medal by the U. S. Government, for saving the crew of the American schooner Maxwell, the vessel having become disabled by the storm of December 5th, 1885. A silver medal also has been awarded to each of the men who manned the lifeboat on the occasion.

MECHANICS INSTITUTE.—At a meeting of the directors held on Monday evening Messrs. Frazer, Porter & Kay were awarded the contract for supplying the magazines and news papers for the year 1888, their tender being the lowest. The secretary was instructed to tender the thanks of the Board to Miss E. Skimmings, for her kindness in regularly sending two newspapers to the reading room.

FIRE.—On Friday morning the house in St. Andrew's ward owned and occupied by Richard Aldworth took fire and was burned to the ground. The furniture was in greater part saved, but a large quantity of vegetables stored in the cellar was destroyed. The fire originated around the chimney, and the high wind prevailing caused it to spread with such rapidity that the house was totally destroyed when the engine arrived near the scene.

THE LATEST SWINDLE.—One swindle on the farming community is hardly exposed before another crops up. Here is the latest. Two or three men have been travelling through a neighboring county, carrying with them hen's eggs. They inform the farmer that they have a new variety of fowls, the stock of which they desire to increase. They will sell him the eggs for $2.50 a dozen and make a contract guaranteeing to purchase every chick hatched and living for six weeks at $5 each. The eggs have been dipped into boiling water before their delivery, and can be warranted not to hatch any $5 chickens, but the $2.50 is sure to be promptly collected before the eggs are left.

THE FORESTER'S ENTERTAINMENT.—The entertainment under the auspices of Court Goderich, C. O. F. held in Victoria Hall Tuesday evening was not as largely attended as the program deserved. The singing of Miss Wilkinson and Messrs. Belcher and Burgess was of a high order, and received high commendation from those present. The reading, character delineations and ventriloquial performances of Will E. Burgess were also well rendered, and were appreciated by the audience. Character sketches, the "Dude" and the "Stage Irishman" were also given by Jas. Thomas. Misses Trueman and Donagh presided at the organ during the evening in a satisfactory manner.

The Kincaid Reporter says: Goderich is to have another lumber yard. J. Lebel, of London, has decided to locate there.

IT LOOKS BAR.—Most of our merchants get their bill heads, envelopes, letter and note paper neatly printed, and we must say it looks like business; but we notice there are some who apparently use any scrap of paper they can lay their hands on to make out an account or to do their corresponding on, and it looks like one-house affair—in fact, you would not know that it was from a business man until you rubbed your specs and tried to decipher the "writing." Call at THE SIGNAL office and see our samples and get our prices.

A country editor is one who reads newspapers, writes on any subject, sticks type, folds papers, makes up mails, runs errands, and does wood, work in the garden, is blamed for a thousand things he never thought of, works hard all day, is subject to spring fever, helps people into office who forget all about it afterwards and very frequently gets cheated out of his earnings; he puffs up and does more to build up the town than any one else, and the more and more he is benefited, yet they will not take the paper, but will borrow it and read it and cuss the fool editor.

THE CHURCHWOMEN'S GUILD.—A series of At Home are to be given in St. George's church school house, by the ladies of the church women's guild, during the winter months. The first of these social entertainments will be held on Tuesday evening next, 29th of Nov., at which the following ladies will preside, Mrs. Seager, Mrs. Geo. Parsons, Mrs. Holmes, Mrs. R. B. Smith, Mrs. Meyer, and Miss Cattle. During the evening there will be a sale of fancy and useful articles. Musical entertainment and refreshments from half-past seven to ten. Admission 15 cents, refreshments.

BENEFIT PERFORMANCES.—A number of the ladies and gentlemen of Goderich have formed a dramatic club, and purpose giving a benefit performance shortly, in aid of the cricket club and town band. Amongst those who have kindly come forward in the matter are: Miss Zephie Williams, Miss Beattie Chilton, Miss Start, Miss Hattie Smith, Miss Fletcher, S. Malcomson, J. Strachan, R. G. Reynolds, C. A. Andrews. The piece that will be placed on the boards will be Gilbert's pleasing comedy "Engaged," and it will be presented on or about the middle of December. From the personnel of the club the success of the venture is assured.

THE "SNOBBER" LEAGUE.—The Methodists of Victoria St. started the "Snowball League" yesterday. They hope to clear off their church debt this winter. Thirty-four workers from sister churches are needed before the scheme can be successful. These are needed at the fountain-head as A's (not as B's or C's). To those who have friends in the league, will thirty kind Presbyterians, Episcopalians and Methodist friends assist them? Rev. Mr. Salton will be pleased to send full explanations or call upon and explain the scheme to any who wish to help. To assist in this work is to draw the churches closer together, and to answer the prayer of "Thy kingdom come." Rally friends and encourage them to day by your help.

SCOTLAND'S MARTYRS.—A lecture is to be given on, "Scotland's Martyrs," and the principles for which they suffered," on next Wednesday evening in Knox church, by the Rev. A. Wilson, of Toronto, who has been assisting Dr. Ure for a few Sabbaths. There is to be no admission fee, but a collection will be taken up at the close. This lecture has been very favorably noticed by several of the leading papers of the Province. The Presbyterian Review says: "It is a very able and interesting lecture." The Toronto Mail says, "It was an able, interesting and instructive lecture." And the London Free Press says, "It was delivered before a deeply interested audience, in the lecture room of St. Andrew's church." We would advise all who can to go and hear it.

OBITUARY.—There died at Windsor, on Wednesday, Rev. Charles C. McManus, a native of Goderich, aged 27 years. The rev. gentleman was son of our townsman Charles McManus, sr., and evidently intended to go, and she did go when she got fairly under way. I never saw a boat that answered the touch of her wheel so quickly; within a minute of starting she was under full headway doing 20 miles an hour. Stepping on board we found that her interior decorations were quite in keeping with her outward appearance. There was also an excellent band on board which discoursed the sweet music at intervals throughout the day.

THE SCENERY OF THE HUDSON.—is varied and interesting, being nowhere monotonous, and almost every mile has some historical association connected with it, dating back to the stirring times of the war of independence. I can't pretend to give a minute description of every point of interest, as it would occupy too much of your space, and be too severe a trial of your readers' patience, besides which, "it isn't my forte." The Artemus Ward would say, "When fairly home into the stream, the busy scene comes into full view. Jersey City of Hoboken with their miles of docks and grain elevators, on the west side, and on the east the city of New York, reaching from the Battery to the heights of Fort Washington. The river is crowded with craft of every size and description, from the stately ocean liner to the little puffing tug, with a string of barges in tow. All is hurry and bustle, part of the busy life and ceaseless activity of the commercial metropolis of the new world. As the boat heads up the river under a full head of steam we take our last look at the Liberty Statue, now fast fading in the distance, and turn our attention to the

MAGNIFICENT PANORAMA continually opening before us. Opposite Fort Washington is Fort Lee on the west bank just at the southern end of the Palisade, a sheer wall of rock, from a distance of fifteen miles up the river, nearly to Piermont. The speed of the boat is such that when standing on the upper deck, the draught caused by her passage through the water, is almost enough to blow one's hat off; in fact, we kept neck and neck with a train

DOWN BY THE BRINY

Notes by the Way and Incidents of the Trip.

Greenwood Cemetery—Coney Island—Homeward Bound—Up the Hudson—Strapped at the Bridge—Fair Canada.

No. 7.
 After strolling leisurely across the bridge to the Brooklyn side, and prospecting around for a short time, we took the street car for

GREENWOOD CEMETERY.
 We had frequently heard of this place, and felt a desire to inspect it. As we were totally unacquainted with the locality, we hired a conveyance to drive around, and as we went, caddy obligingly pointed out all the celebrated monuments and vaults. I have seen a few cemeteries, but never saw one so picturesque in situation, or so beautifully kept. Not a fallen leaf is allowed to remain, numbers of men being continually employed in sweeping the paths and plots. The amount of sculpture displayed is both lavish and tasteful, many of the monuments being perfect works of art. Some of them have evidently cost a large sum of money, notably that of Miss Charlotte Canda, a young lady who was killed by being thrown out of her carriage on her eighteenth birthday, some years ago. This monument, which is all of pure Italian marble, was erected by her bereaved father, and is said to have cost $300,000. We saw the vault containing the remains of the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, also the tombs of the old Sea Captain, Jas. Fisk, Jr., Wm. M. Tweed and others of New York's men of might in their day. Returning through the beautiful gothic gateway of brown stone, we left our rig and finding that we still had two or three hours to spend, took a run down to

CONY ISLAND.
 We were soon whirled down there by the car, and on getting out observed that the most prominent feature of the scene was the enormous figure of an elephant. I don't know its height, but should say it was about big enough for the Liberty Statue to ride on, if that brazen young female should feel inclined for a little exercise of that kind. It's quite a unique looking affair, and we also were the numerous attractions, whether it was intended for a summer boarding house, an observatory, or merely a monstrosity. As the weather was somewhat chilly and the water feeling cold, we did not take a bath, in fact nobody appeared to be bathing, although there were a good many people about. Here also were the numerous features of a seaside resort, merry-go-rounds, coasters, museums full of monstrosities, lager beer saloons, and clam restaurants. Liquid refreshment is expensive down here. No Scott Act evidently. Though I differ from Americans on some points, I must pay them the compliment of saying that their heads appear to be pretty level on

THE "TEMPERANCE QUESTION."
 As a rule they are a temperate people, rarely addicted to drunkenness, yet not more are greater sticklers for the free citizen's privilege of taking a drink when they feel like it. They take a drink when they want it, and leave it alone when they don't, and this I take to be about the true philosophy of the thing. Cranks are at a premium in New York and vicinity. After taking in the sights till about dusk, we boarded the train to return. Reaching the bridge, we took another train and rode across to the New York side, and were soon "taking our ease in our inn," after the fatigue of the day. Saturday morning we were

HOMEWARD BOUND
 by way of the Hudson River to Albany, by the day line boat. Finding that the boat left at 8:40 a.m., we were stirring pretty early, and going down to the pier, saw the boat which we were to travel. One glance at her beautifully fine lines and broad, powerful wheels, revealed the fact that she was a clipper, evidently intended to go, and she did go when she got fairly under way. I never saw a boat that answered the touch of her wheel so quickly; within a minute of starting she was under full headway doing 20 miles an hour. Stepping on board we found that her interior decorations were quite in keeping with her outward appearance. There was also an excellent band on board which discoursed the sweet music at intervals throughout the day.

THE SCENERY OF THE HUDSON.—is varied and interesting, being nowhere monotonous, and almost every mile has some historical association connected with it, dating back to the stirring times of the war of independence. I can't pretend to give a minute description of every point of interest, as it would occupy too much of your space, and be too severe a trial of your readers' patience, besides which, "it isn't my forte." The Artemus Ward would say, "When fairly home into the stream, the busy scene comes into full view. Jersey City of Hoboken with their miles of docks and grain elevators, on the west side, and on the east the city of New York, reaching from the Battery to the heights of Fort Washington. The river is crowded with craft of every size and description, from the stately ocean liner to the little puffing tug, with a string of barges in tow. All is hurry and bustle, part of the busy life and ceaseless activity of the commercial metropolis of the new world. As the boat heads up the river under a full head of steam we take our last look at the Liberty Statue, now fast fading in the distance, and turn our attention to the

MAGNIFICENT PANORAMA continually opening before us. Opposite Fort Washington is Fort Lee on the west bank just at the southern end of the Palisade, a sheer wall of rock, from a distance of fifteen miles up the river, nearly to Piermont. The speed of the boat is such that when standing on the upper deck, the draught caused by her passage through the water, is almost enough to blow one's hat off; in fact, we kept neck and neck with a train on the east shore from just outside New York for some miles above Yonkers. This, our first stopping place, seventeen miles above New York is evidently a busy and thriving city. Passing Piermont, at the head of the Palisade, we now enter Tappan Zee, where the river runs out almost into lake, being in some places four miles across. Just opposite here, on the east bank, is Jay Gould's handsome residence, "Lyndhurst." A little further on is Tarry town with Nyack on the opposite bank. Further on we pass Sing Sing on the east bank, the location of the State's Prison, where some of New York's hoodie alderman are at present rusticated. Rounding Teller's Point we enter Haverstraw Bay, where the river widens out to nearly five miles. The west bank is Haverstraw, remarkable for its brick yards which extend for two miles. Just north of this is where the traitor Arnold met Major Andre during the Revolutionary War. Just before entering the Highlands we pass Verplank on the east bank, where the soldiers of '76 were drilled by Baron Steuben. We are now approaching the widest and most romantic portion of the beautiful scenery of the Hudson, the Highlands. Just before reaching Kinderhook the boat appeared to be running stem on to the bank, with no visible outlet, rounding the point, however, we found that the river made a sharp turn to the left and passing the Dunderberg mountain, some 1100 feet high, on the left, we entered the narrow channel known as the Horse Race. The rugged grandeur of this wild and mountainous region cannot fail to inspire admiration. Rounding Anthony's Nose another prominent mountain on the east bank, we find ourselves approaching the seat of the great military academy, where all the most distinguished American officers received their early training. A more romantic spot or one better adapted for the purpose could hardly have been selected. On the west bank is Fort Putnam, a relic of '76, at an elevation of nearly 600 feet above the river. The West Shore R. R. has tunnels under the Point and emerges a little further up. The most prominent objects are the library and Kosciuszko's monument. After a short stop here we again proceed past the Old Cro-Nest, Storm King and Mt. Taurus, all over 1400 feet in height. Emerging from the Highlands here we approach Newburgh which is celebrated as having been

TRAESEON HILL,

WEST POINT

WASHINGTON'S HEADQUARTERS
 during the war of Independence. The old building where Washington made his headquarters still stands a venerable relic of the past. For miles along here the railroads closely follow both banks, skirting the water's edge in many places. Our next stopping place is Poughkeepsie, known as the Queen of the Hudson, a city of some 20,000 inhabitants, picturesquely situated on a plateau some 200 feet above the river. Passing Rhinebeck, which is merely a railway landing place, we see a few miles further on a cove known as North Bay, where Robert Fulton built his first steamboat, the Clermont. Along here we catch sight of

THE PEAKS OF THE CATSKILLS
 in the distance to the west, and shortly reach Catskill, the connecting point for the summer resorts of the mountains. Just below here was the highest point of the river reached by Hendrick Hudson in 1609, from where he continued his exploring in small boats. From here to Albany the scenery is less varied, and there are few places of historic interest. The trip had been enlivened at short intervals by music furnished by an excellent string band, which helped to pass the time and added to the enjoyment of the scene. Approaching Albany we saw some miles distant the imposing building of the

STATE CAPITOL,
 which occupies a commanding position on a high ground. This city, which has a population of some 80,000, is a startling contrast to the hurry and bustle of New York, and presents more of the air of a sleepy, old-fashioned country town than of the capital city of the Empire State. Our trip, so far as regards its interesting features, may be said to have come to an end. Leaving Albany by the night express we arrived at Buffalo about 7 a.m. Sunday morning, and there changed cars for the Suspension Bridge where our baggage was checked. After a slight delay we crossed the Bridge and arrived in time for breakfast. It was about time we got home as we were almost in a state of impecuniosity. Uncle's supply of available cash had given out in New York, and the consequent extra drain on my own exchequer having reduced me to the verge of insolvency, we reached our fair Canada with something under two dollars in the treasury. A judicious use of the telegraph wires however obviated the difficulty, and we were once more rolling in wealth—comparatively speaking. Sunday was spent in loading around the Falls, but as everyone nowadays, has seen the Falls, or heard all about them, I will not inflict on your readers any lame attempt of mine at describing Nature's greatest wonder.

ON CANADIAN SOIL

IN CONCLUSION
 I would express the hope that no feelings of mine have hurt anyone's feelings in any way. I have simply commented on men, manners and things as they have appeared to me, without prejudice of any kind, national, political, or religious, and as I have always preferred a humorous view of life to a gloomy one, I have endeavored to look at things on the bright side, whenever there was one. Any faults of description or other errors must be pardoned on the score of inexperience, and from the fact that I had no intention, when leaving home of writing any account of our travels. I would conscientiously advise any dyspeptic individual with a disordered liver to give himself a jaunt to the salt water, and he'll come back a new man. Judging from the fact that my jaunty companion looks more blooming than ever, while I have gained in weight a dozen pounds or so, it is quite evident that we were benefited mentally, morally and physically by our little trip "Down by the Briny."

G. B. C.

This way for Bargains in Dress Goods, Shawls, Mantle Cloths, Ulsterings, Flannels, Blankets, Cottons, Linens, Hosiery, Gloves, Underclothing, Tweeds and Men's Furnishings.

J. A. REID & BRO.,
 Jordan's Block, Court House Square, Goderich
 21th Nov., 1887. 2091-1y

The United Empire, of the Sarnia line, has been seized by the Customs at that port for not reporting certain repairs executed in the States.

"DUNNERS."—The time of year is drawing nigh, when the business men of Goderich will be sending out their accounts. We have a large stock of bill heads, statements, &c., which we will print and put in pads in quantities to suit, at very reasonable prices at THE SIGNAL office.

PREPARED FOR THE RUSH.—We have had such a rush of orders in letterheads, note heads, bill heads, statements, cards, order slips and several other lines of work that our stock got pretty well run down during the last couple of weeks, but we have just received two large cases of fresh, new stationery, suitable for all classes of printing, and although prices have advanced in some lines, our prices will remain at the same low figures. We paid all work requiring it free of charge at THE SIGNAL office.

THE HARVEST HOME.—The annual entertainment known as the "Harvest Home," under the management of the Ladies' Aid Society of North St. Methodist church, was held on Thanksgiving Day. There was a large gathering, as is always the case with this particular entertainment, and the proceedings throughout were of a most satisfactory character. The tables were well filled with the delicacies of the season, and even after the large attendance of people had partaken to satiety of the good cheer, there appeared to be plenty and to spare for another such entertainment. The concert in the body of the church was a very superior effort on behalf of the choir members under the leadership of S. P. Halls, B. A. The church was bedecked with a large number of flags and festooned with evergreens, the principal decorative features being, however, the platform and the choir gallery, which were ornamented with agricultural and horticultural products in profusion.

After prayer by Rev. G. F. Salton, the following program was presented in a manner that did credit to the choir and its leader: "Laud Domino Messias," choir; Greeting Glees, choir; "Under the Moonlit Sky," Misses B. Wilkinson and Graham, Messrs. Passmore and Halls; "Gates of the West," Miss Ida Wilkinson, with violin accompaniment by Miss Dargah; recitation, "Bells of Shandon," by Mr. Waller; "Awa, O Happy Nation," choir; "Rocked in the Cradle of the Deep," E. C. Belcher; "Friendship, Love and Song," Misses McIntyre and Graham, Messrs. Halls and T. Armstrong; instrumental duet, "En Route," Misses Price and Slack; "Sing Jehovah's Praises," choir; "Bells at Sea," Messrs. Belcher and Halls; recitation, "Lasso," Miss Trueman; "Lullaby," Miss Ida Wilkinson; "Star of Descending Night," choir; "Moonlight will Come Again," Misses McIntyre and Graham, Messrs. Belcher and Halls; "Goodnight, Gentlefolks," choir. The accompanist was Miss Andrews, who did her part well, as is her custom. Although the season was so cold that scores could not be responded to, the large audience insisted upon Miss Wilkinson repeating the last verse of the "Lullaby." The "Star of Descending Night," by the choir, was the chorus of the evening, and was much appreciated by the audience. At the close a vote of thanks was moved to S. P. Halls and the choir, and for the ladies who had been instrumental in getting up the entertainment. The vote was moved by Geo. Acheson and seconded by R. W. McKenzie in laudatory speeches. The net proceeds of the entertainment amounted to $135.

DEATH.
 Higgins.—On the 19th inst. at 334 Bathurst St., Toronto, the wife of M. Higgins. Conductor G. T. R., of a son.

MARRIED.
 Macara.—MacDermott. At St. James Cathedral, Toronto, on 16th inst. by Rev. Canon Dumoulin, William Elliot Macara, of Winnipeg, and Miss Alice MacDermott, daughter of Henry MacDermott Esq., Master in Chancery, Goderich, Ont.

Corbett.—Hawkins. At Goderich on the 23d of November, by Rev. Dr. Ure, Mr. Wm. S. Corbett, of McGillivray Township, to Miss Jane Hawkins, of Port Albert.

Snyder.—Blake. At the residence of the bride's parents, by Rev. Jas. Kestle, Nov. 23d, Mr. Levi Snyder, to Miss Emma, eldest daughter of Mr. Wm. Blake, both of Calumet.

DIED.
 McManus.—In Windsor, on Wednesday, Nov. 23d, 1887, Rev. Father McManus, aged 27 years. The funeral will take place from St. Peter's C. C. church, Goderich, on Friday morning, Nov. 25th, 1887, at 9 o'clock. Friends and acquaintances will please accept this intimation.

Lester.—At 505 La Salle ave., Chicago, of paralysis, on Sunday, Nov. 20th, Robina Alicia, widow of the late Geo. S. Lester, and second daughter of the late Daniel Lester, first Clerk of the Peace for the county of Huron, formerly of Edinburgh, aged 61 years.

Wheat, (Fall old)
 Wheat, (Fall new)
 Wheat, (Spring)
 Wheat, (June 1)
 Flour, (mixed)
 Flour, (strong)
 Flour, (patent)
 Oats, 8 bush...
 Peas, 8 bush...
 Barley, 8 bush...
 Potatoes, 8 bush...
 Eggs, fresh uni...
 Chopped stuff...
 Screenings, 8 bush...
 Wood...
 Hides...
 Cabbages...

Young men sh...
 ing, Colleges, p...
 cheap tuition o...
 chop tuition o...
 Wm. S. Reid & Bro.

New B...
 will open o...
 On TU...
 where he will b...
 ers with fresh...
 Quality...
 Prompt atten...
 Goderich, Nov.

Wm. S. Reid & Bro.
 will open o...
 On TU...
 where he will b...
 ers with fresh...
 Quality...
 Prompt atten...
 Goderich, Nov.

Wm. S. Reid & Bro.
 will open o...
 On TU...
 where he will b...
 ers with fresh...
 Quality...