WAR SUMMARY.

The French forces operating on the east bank of the Oise River south of Noyon have evacuated the Carlehout Wood and the Germans are closing pressing them southward, according to the German official statement Wednesday. The statement asserts that the territory on the opposite side of the river near where the Marais enters the stream, has been cleared of Allied troops. Nowhere else along the battle front running from Mont Didier to the region around Noyon is any claim made to further advances by the Germans. On the contrary the latest statement shows that the enemy everywhere has been busily engaged in attempts to hold back the French and other allied troops, among them some Americans. No mention is made in the communication of the Allies as having advanced their front east of Mery and the Genlis Wood, or of the repulse of violent German attacks along the Aronde River and at the Loges farm and Anteuil. Neither is there any mention of the fact that the enemy notwithstanding his numerous attempts has been enabled to debouch south of the Matz River. The communication asserts that all the counter attacks of the Allied forces have been repulsed, and that they suffered heavy casualties. It declared that the number of prisoners taken by General von Huertgen's army has now risen to more than 12,000. It had been admitted that the position of the defending line on the west bank of the Oise River was a delicate one, owing to the capture by the Germans of the outflanking hills to the west and a successful drive through the Carlehout Wood on the opposite side of the stream seemingly would have necessitated a strategic retreat if the troops were not to be entirely cut off southwest of Mont Didier, where the Allied forces on Tuesday in violent counter attacks, made notable gains against the enemy. American troops have been thrown into the fray, but how many or to what branch of the service they belong has not yet been indicated. To the north of Mont Didier the Germans many times have tried to drive out the Americans from the village of Cantigny, but each time they have been repulsed. One party of forty Germans was routed by revolver fire of the defenders of the village. Northwest of Chateau Thierry the enemy has thrown five divisions against the Americans fighting side by side with the French, but without avail. Attempts by the enemy to recapture the Village of Boresches went for naught. South of the Aisne River there has been fierce fighting down to the region of Villers Cottiers where the Germans are attempting to break through and bring their line west of Soissons towards Compeigne. Except that the combats were particularly severe on the front of Dommlers Cutry and south of Amblyon, no further details are available. In the other war theatres there have been no noteworthy activities.

THE ALLIES' DAY.

WITH THE FRENCH ARMIES IN FRANCE, June 11.—The Allied troops to-day showed the Germans they could not have it all their own way, by executing a number of counter attacks, which were invariably successful. Some important territory was won back, and inroads were even made into the German position; it was in fact a thoroughly good day for the Allies, who in addition to regaining ground, captured more than 1,000 prisoners. The principal counter attack occurred between Demfront, near Rubescourt, and Jacquemoulin, south of Belloy, a front of about 12 kilometres. Allied infantry supported by tanks achieved an advance averaging 1,500 metres. They retook Belloy, reached the edge of St. Maur, arrived north of Parte and Leges farm and obtained a footing at Antheuil. The French troops displayed remarkable courage and willingness to get at the foe, who appeared completely disconcerted by their dash. Horse teams could be seen galloping forward to save their guns, and some of the Germans lost their heads completely. The battleground is literally covered with German dead. The counter attack on the French left wing, which was the first carried out to-day, took the French close to the original lines as they stood Sunday. The Allies also got beyond Mery in another assault, while a further fierce return blow enabled them to reach the vicinity of St. Maur.

SLAUGHTERING GERMANS.
WITH THE FRENCH ARMIES IN FRANCE, June 12. (By the Associated Press.)—French cannons and machine guns have reached a heavy toll since Sunday. An entire division of the famous Jaegers was cut to pieces at Rezon-sur-Matz, while a Guards' division lost a great proportion of its effectives. Other divisions, it is learned, suffered equally during the preparation for the attack and the advance to the narrow valleys, all the passes of which were dominated by the Allied guns. Every prisoner taken seems horror-stricken at the slaughter of his comrades.
