PYORRHEA.

Of all the poisons taken into the blood, the germs and pus contributed by diseased gums (Pyorrhea) are the most destructive to the human system. If every red blood cell is forced to fight against numbers of germs to the cell, the blood cannot attend to the building up of the body, and it allowed to continue the system is bound to break down and eventually you are an invalid. Kidney, stomach, heart trouble, rheumatism and many other diseases are brought on by diseased gums and teeth.

Thoughts for the Day.

The Coaker-Squires party are going behind more every day, not only in St. John's but in the outports. In St. John's East, Higgins, Vinnicombe and Fox will have a majority of 2,000 while in the West Bennett will lead with over 3,000 votes.

There is something about Squires that the residents of St. John's can't take to him. The reason is the fact that he has been mixed up in some very "shady" transactions. The searchlight thrown on him by Coaker during the last five years has shown him in his true colors.

Mr. Coaker is raging these days because Bay de Verde has decided to elect Hons. Hickman and Whiteway.
Mr. Cave who was never taken very "seriously" is now treated as a joke.
The people have not yet discovered whether he is a Squiresite, or Coakerite, or if he belongs to the party represented by Arthur English, John T.
Meaney or Dan Curtin.

Arthur English in the early days of vacation in Ferryland District talked of poison gas, shrapnel, machine guns and broadsides until a returned soldier asked him to get on with it.
Then he closed his mouth.
Arthur is some traveller but he succeeded in giving France a wide berth.
Did we hear some say "cold feet."
Don't make Leo Carter blush.

Dr. Campbell got off a good one at the expense of Mr. Squires when he said his ten automobiles came in on a Bell Island steamer. The doctor knows a thing or two, evidently.

Mr. Squires is now known as the "Opposition Leader" of the Opposition. Coaker is the real boss.

A Pouch Cove hero has termed Leo Carter as a Sergt. Major of the Cold Front Contingent.

Dan Curtin would not take Leo Murphy with him on the Coaker ticket in St. John's. Dan is a man of Peace, everyone knows that; and Leo —well, now that the war is over and peace and happiness reigns again, the young soldiers and their friends will persist in "jogging" Leo about that lecture of his at the Casino.

"Doing our cause all the good in the world, and Bennett will get 50 per cent. of the votes there." That's how a wounded hero sized up Squires taking Leo to Broad Cove. He's right, too.

The soldiers are with the Government because they know the difficulties of the past years. Now that a new dawn is breaking they know that such capable business men as Cashin, Crosbie and Hickman will make a success of our Island's affairs as they are doing to-day.

The question has often been asked:
Who asked Squires to stand for St.
John's West? There is no answer because no one asked him. Why didn't he stand for St. John's East? He lives there.

Even if the leading Gossipite of St.
John's West had a favorable reputation, he has no claims on St. John's West and should not be elected. It is another case of trying to "butt" in.

You can't hear a man, woman or child say a word in favor of Squires these days. The filthy attitude of the Post and Star is still remembered, though people are doing their best to forget.

Richard Anderson is so unpopular on the Southside that he has to take second place to Coaker.

Monday next will be a day of triumph for Bennett, Mullaly and Martin.

The cold feet contingent, Carter, Curtin, etc., will be snowed under by the aggressive trio, Higgins, Vinnic-combe and Fox.

Well done, Conception Bay! The news from your town is fine.

"For Valeur."

How many have heard during the past five years of the King's Watch—the most highly-prized of all decorations that the King of England can bestow? Obtainable only by members of the British Secret Service, it has been won during the Great War by upwards of a dozen men.

At a glance, just an ordinary gold hunter, it bears inside the cover the inscription: "For Services Rendered—George," in a facsimile of the King's handwriting. And it is valued by its possessors even above the Victoria Cross.

A certain naval officer who is one of the envied dozen referred to, received the watch as a reward for spending eighteen months in the German naval base at Kiel and Wilhelm-haven. An excellent linguist, he mixed freely during that time with the Run sailors, transmitting to England knowledge that was invaluable.

Similar gifts have on occasion been made by foreign monarchs and presidents.

A retired major of the British Army for several years acted as a "power behind the throne" to the President of a Central American Republic. Two other Englishmen occupied posts in the President's Secret Service, on many occasions seeing to the "removal" of persons whose presence their chief considered dangerous.

Each of these men, on leaving his employ, became possessed of a curious mark of their master's esteem.
This took the form of a dagger, specially fashioned, in solid gold, having for the handle a tiny statue of the president himself, the blade being inscribed with an appreciative message and his signature.
