Then maidens were not flapping, and they were full of grace; you didn't see them yapping around the market place. They thought of love and marriage of wreaths upon the brow, of riding in a carriage to church, to make a vow. And where is now the maiden ! who walked the shore with me? She chases voters, laden with handbills fierce to see. She's out electioneering, she wants a public snap, while modern dames are cheering, and all the flappers flap/ She's making dippy speeches, she trots from door to door, and I can find no peaches along the sandy shore. The girls are all so busy! They leave no graft untried. I drive my old tin Lizzle, and no one wantsa ride. And once the laughing friskers came round me where I sat, and poured sand in my whiskers and kicked holes through my hat. But now the girls are flapping or doing kindred chores, and I, an old man, napping, can't find my lost Lenores.
