ANNUAL SALE OF WORK.

The annual Sale of Work of the Child Welfare Association was held at the Presbyterian Hall yesterday afternoon and present indications are that the proceeds will be a record. Last year's total was about $500. The sale was opened by Lady Allard, who arrived at three-thirty, accompanied by Miss Allard and Captain Goodfellow. Introduced by Miss Southcott, President of the Child Welfare Association, Lady Allard expressed her pleasure at being present. The results of last year's sale were so gratifying, she said, that it must have been a source of great pleasure to the members of the Association to know that during the year they had helped to give assistance to so many more children than before. The Association is doing noble work, and the public generally are rapidly getting a better understanding of its purposes. All cannot do the same as the members of the Association, but the sale gives everyone an opportunity of helping. The reports of the work in England are just to hand and show that the past year has been the best on record, and this has been rightly attributed to the work of the Child Welfare Associations. The members here are to be congratulated on their work in connection with the Children's Hospital, and soon there will be in the city a permanent institution, which is so badly needed, and which will be a means of doing much good for the children. Lady Allard hoped the results would be better than last year, and she had much pleasure in declaring the sale open. From that time on, till six o'clock, when selling ceased, the various stalls were continually surrounded by purchasers, and the ladies in charge did not have an idle moment. The stalls were all attractively laid out, and contained articles that met with ready sale, because of the value to the purchasers. There were fancy work, plain work, candy, toys and samples and pantry requisites, and all carried large stocks of the various articles. The tea tables were also a big attraction, and the ladies in charge had many patrons to attend to, amongst whom were the members of the Rotary Club, who also ought out the candy stall. At closing hour very little was left undisposed of, and when the proceeds were counted up it was found that $1500 were on hand, and one table to be heard from, and it is expected that the total proceeds will reach $2,000.00. The pantry table was the high liner, having $500.00 to its credit. To the ladies of the Association much credit is due for the splendid results of the afternoon's work.

Newfoundland's Makes Name as Singer

We were honored with a visit recently from an old Newfoundland boy who has made good in this country, and who is fast winning laurels for himself in the musical world as a concert and operatic singer.

Mr. Harry Whitefield Laite was born at Trinity East and is a son of the late William Laite, who came to Boston some years ago to study his sons who had already settled in this city. Mr. Laite, Sr., died in Everett, Mass., in 1922.

Mr. Whitefield Laite has been engaged in concert and operatic work for the past seven years, and is a graduate of Northwestern University, Chicago, where he obtained the degree of Bachelor of Music. After supplementing his studies in New York, he began his vocal career and has met with signal success, especially in the Western States, where he has made most of his appearances. We print the following extract from a Portland paper of Sept. 24th, 1924:

"Harry Whitefield Laite, baritone, is one of the younger American artists who has won an enviable reputation in the Western States by his talent and training. His work has been confined to concerts, west of Chicago, where the critics declare that he bids fair to establish himself as one of the foremost baritones of the country."

Newfoundland can, therefore, be justly proud of the praise accorded to her talented son.

Mr. Laite expressed himself as very anxious to make a trip to the home land to re-visit old scenes and renew old acquaintances; and it is more than likely that he will arrange to pay a visit to St. John's next summer and give a concert there during his stay.

The other sons of the late William Laite have also distinguished themselves in their vocations in this country. Rev. Thos. Laite is the Presiding Elder of the New England Conference of the Evangelical Church, with headquarters in Somerville, Mass. Rev. William W. Laite is pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal Church in Portland, Me.; Rev. Gilbert Laite is located at Eagle Rock, Los Angeles, Cal.; whilst Robert B. Laite is prominent securities banker in New York, Me.

His mother, Mrs. Wm. Laite, resided at Weymouth, Mass.

His father, Rev. David R. Bailey, is pastor of St. Stephen's Cathedral, Fall River, Mass.—Nfld. Weekly, Boston.
