"Look," said Dora pointing through a break in the plantation beyond; "are those the two ash trees from behind which Mr. Trenchard was hot at?"

"That's the direction, any way," said Fabrara. "What splendid sight you've got. Who's this Anthony's bringing up the drive. That's the Boyne Abbey car. It's Lady Frayne and Kitty, Have they seen us, dye think? I'm in my garden gown, and I might change it."

But Kitty, who was driving, signalled Barbara with her whip, and she knew that is she went to make a fresh toilet now Lody Frayne would have something to say at the subject.

Soothing Magic.

The unspeakable comfort in feeling pain pass away is well set forth by Mr. Albert Heege, Clayton, Mo., U.S. A. August 1, 1889, who says: "I suffered fourteen days with a sprained wrist, and a swelling formed, growing larger and larger. It disappeared as if by magic after using one bottle of St. Jacobs Oil." It is the best remedy.
