CRICKET.

LONDON ASYLUM CLUB.
At the annual meeting of the London Asylum Cricket Club officers were elected as follows:

Hon. President—Hon. J. M. Gibson.
Hon. Vice-President—Mr. C. S. Hyman.
Hon. Vice-President—Mr. T. S. Hobbs, M.P.P.

President—Dr. R. M. Bucke.
Vice-President—Dr. C. A. Sippl.
Second Vice-President—Mr. D. MacKenzie.

Third Vice-President—Mr. T. Flynn.
Captain—Dr. A. T. Hobbs.
Vice-Captain—Mr. A. Walker.
Official Scorer—Mr. Geo. B. Sippl.
Official Umpire—Mr. Geo. Angus.
Secretary—T. Beemer.

Committee—Messrs. James Angus, John Humphrey, Geo. England, Geo. Sillard, T. Gillean, R. Heighway, G. Thurling, H. Donnelly.

The Asylum Club have lost the valuable services of Dr. N. H. Beemer and W. K. Ross, who have removed to other institutions, and during the winter one of the most useful members, Mr. Geo. England, died.

The grounds are in good condition, and the club still hope to be able to afford a good game for any team that will pay them a visit during the season, and matches can be arranged upon a short notice.

Eight matches were played during the season of 1894, six of which were won and two lost. An interesting table of batting averages is crowded out of this issue.

LONDON CRICKET CLUB.
The annual meeting of the London Cricket Club will be held at the Tecumseh House on Monday evening at 8.

This promises to be the greatest season in the history of Canadian cricket, from the flourishing reports of the many new and old clubs throughout the country, and more than one crack English professional is now on his way to Canada.

Below are given the averages of the London Asylum Cricket Club for the past season:

IN DEEP DISGRACE.

Oscar Wilde's Name Erased From Bills and Programmes of His Own Plays.

NEW YORK, April 5.—Mr. Frohman, of the Lyceum Theatre, where Oscar Wilde's play, "An Ideal Husband," is now running, has decided, on account of the termination of the suit against Wilde, to have the playwright's name erased from all the bills and programmes of the theatre after tomorrow.

All the printing contracts have also been cancelled in order to admit of these changes being made in the advertisements. No change will be made in the play itself, however, as the management of the Lyceum holds that it is a wholesome production.

PLENTY OF MUSIC.

The London Musical Society's Splendid Band.

London will not lack open air music this year. There will be plenty of it, and the quality promises to reach a higher standard than for some years. Perhaps the leading organization is the London Musical Society's Band, which already comprises 32 members. The nucleus of this is the Grand Opera House orchestra, but several ex-members of the Seventh Battalion Band and other unattached but well known and capable players have enrolled, so that the L. M. S. B. has gathered a very large share of the local musical talent. The members are practicing hard on a batch of the best music, and will tickle the public ear on the first auspicious occasion. The fact that Mr. Fred L. Evans is the conductor is a guarantee in itself of excellence. If he attains the same success with this large organization as he has with the Grand Opera House orchestra the result will be satisfactory indeed. The band includes a diversity of talent and can furnish either brass or string music, so that it is open for orchestral engagements as well. The members will wear on parade a very neat uniform of dark blue, with military caps.

The first appearance was at St. Patrick's concert, and the praises of all who were there are well expressed in this letter: "London, Ont., April 2, 1895. Fred L. Evans, President of the London Musical Society, city: Dear Sir,—I have much pleasure in informing you that at the last meeting of the Board of Separate School Trustees the thanks of the said board were unanimously tendered the band of the London Musical Society for their very valuable services in aiding to make the late Boyle, Secretary-Treasurer."

The P. P. A. and the Manitoba Schools.
The following communication has been sent to the "Advertiser" for publication:

At a regular meeting of Council No. 6, P. P. A., held in their rooms in the city of London, on the 4th inst., the following resolutions were read and passed unanimously:

"Resolved, that whereas in the case of the Jesuits' Estates Bill, passed by the Legislature of Quebec, whereby the Roman Catholic Church got $400,000 from the public treasury, the Dominion Government and Parliament declined to allow an appeal to the Privy Council, although the Protestant minority in Quebec had placed a certified check for a large amount in the hands of the proper official to cover the expenses of the appeal, on the ground that it would be an interference with the rights of the Province of Quebec;

"And whereas the Province of Manitoba, through its Legislature, passed a school act, and the Roman Catholic minority appealed against said act, and the Government of Canada and the Parliament thereof allowed the appeal to proceed, and paid the costs of the said Roman Catholic appellants, and the Privy Council decided in favor of the Province of Manitoba; and, further, another appeal was made on behalf of the Roman Catholic minority of Manitoba, and the Privy Council decided that the Government and Parliament of Canada could pass a remedial act for the benefit of the Roman Catholic minority of Manitoba, and the Dominion Government, under cover of said decision, have virtually told the Government and Legislature of the Province of Manitoba that unless they pass a remedial act acceptable to the Roman Catholic minority, they, the Dominion Government, will do so.

"And whereas the said Government of the Dominion of Canada as aforesaid declined to allow an appeal, at their own expense, of the Protestant minority of Quebec, in the matter of the Jesuits' Estates Bill; and the Province of New Brunswick, although successful, had to pay the costs of the appeal in the case of its School Act; and that numerous amendments to the Ontario school laws have been enacted since the Confederation in the interests of the Roman Catholic Church; and that, in all cases of appeal, when said appellants were the Roman Catholic Church, or parties acting therefore, the costs of said appellants were paid by the whole of the people of Canada; and whereas the Protestant minority in Bathurst, New Brunswick, are laboring under disabilities, and no remedial order has been made on their behalf;

"Be it therefore resolved that we, the members of Council No. 6, P. P. A., call upon all parties, irrespective of party ties or associations, to vote for none who do not pledge themselves to oppose such favorable legislation in the future, and to do all in their power to remove from the law of the land all acts and amendments thereto tending to make the Roman Catholic Church or any other church a state or favored church, and to make the education of the children of Canada a matter wholly under the control of the people, free from the sectarian teaching of any and all denominations;

"And further, that we ask all Protestants and other liberal-minded citizens to give all the moral and material aid in their power to the people of Manitoba to prevent their just rights being infringed upon and the public schools preserved intact, as they desire them."

"That copies of the above resolutions be sent to the London 'Advertiser' and Free Press, the Toronto Globe, Mail and Empire and Sentinel and Forest Standard with the request for their publication."

Mara's Large Drygoods House.

One of the wonders of the Forest City is the mammoth establishment of the Thomas E. Mara Company (Limited), and no visitor has seen this until he has been shown through this immense retail concern. But to the citizens the greater wonderment in connection with it is its phenomenal growth. The business was first founded by the present owner's late father a little over three years ago, and from that time until the present it has grown with a rush and bound peculiar to it as far as the history of London is concerned. It has nearly trebled itself in the three years of its existence, and over a year ago it had outgrown the premises in which it had its beginning and another large store adjoining was secured. And any day in the week it presents a busy hive of industry such as the residents of this city a decade or two since never dreamed of. But an even more remarkable feature than the rapid growth of the business is the prices at which all staple lines of goods are sold—prices that have made the name of Mara a synonym for cheapness throughout the city and the whole country-side. Mr. Mara is able thus to undersell his competitors because he watches the great market centers—New York, Montreal and Toronto—and visits them every couple of weeks, selecting the latest novelties and newest styles, and paying therefor prompt cash. Wholesalers appreciate a customer who does not ask time, and the discount which he thus receives off net prices enables him to retail his goods at the low figures referred to.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE GOES!

SALT LAKE, Utah, April 5.—The question of female suffrage was finally disposed of in the constitutional convention today. By a vote of 52 to 42 the convention refused to refer the matter to a committee to submit the question in a separate article to the voters. The clause adopting suffrage as part of the constitution was then adopted 75 to 15.

DIED BY THE WAYSIDE.

Sad Death of an Immigrant Woman from Cumberland.

Took Sick on the Train—Bled Good-Bye to Her Children and Afterwards Died at the Hospital.

When the special immigrant train arrived at the Grand Trunk station yesterday afternoon a number of Bernardo Home boys destined to farmers in this district got off. On the train was a family named Cook, consisting of the father, mother, son, daughter and grandchild. They were from Egremont, a market town in West Cumberland, England, about six miles from Whitehaven, and were on their way to Nebraska. The mother stood the voyage fairly well, but on the way up from Halifax the change of climate and irregular meals did not agree with her, and when the train arrived here she was deathly sick. She was taken to the hospital by her husband, who went on without her. The husband remained with his wife all night, and was with her when she died early this morning. Her given name was Margaret, and she is inscribed on the certificate of death as 48 years old and a Methodist, and the cause of death as peritonitis. The grief of the husband in losing his wife by the wayside in a strange country was pitiful. As Mr. Lawson Cook is a poor man the remains were interred by the city in Mount Pleasant Cemetery. The widower continued his journey to Nebraska City, Nebraska, after the funeral. Besides the members of the family who have just come out he has four sons there, who will be waiting for a mother who will not come.

LONDON SHOCKED

By the Wilde Revelations—Oscar Gots No Favors in Jail—An Accomplish Arrested.

NEW YORK, April 6.—A London special to the Sun says: The career of Oscar Wilde has ended in the blackest infamy. All London is saying it is a pity the miserable creature had not sufficient pluck to blow out his brains before the police seized him and put him behind the bolts to await the punishment for the crimes of which he is already proven guilty. The charge against Wilde is misdemeanor, which is punishable by two years at hard labor, but the grand jury may change the indictment to a more serious offense. He must remain in jail until the trial takes place in May, for the magistrate is certain to refuse to accept bail. The supercilious manner which he maintained while in the witness stand during his arrest. He listened quietly to the reading of the warrant. He had been aware for an hour or two that escape was impossible, for detectives had been closely following him. He refused to say a word to the officers or to others. He asked the police station for a separate cell, and that his valet be allowed to bring him his portmanteau. The police refused all requests and locked him up like an ordinary prisoner.

It is impossible to describe the sensation the case has created in London. The effect of the exposure and of the exemplary punishment which is sure to follow in Wilde's case will be far-reaching. The police and others are prepared to make fearful revelations. The Herald's special says: The Marquis of Queensberry is receiving hundreds of congratulatory telegrams and letters. In an interview he said: "I think I have done my duty, not only to my family and myself, but also to the community. It has cost me £1,200, and now if the law of England don't step in I must make my own law. I have acted absolutely and entirely from a sense of duty."

LONDON, April 6.—Oscar Wilde's friend, Taylor, was arrested and taken to the Bow street police station this morning. Oscar Wilde was arraigned before a magistrate this morning.

Charles Parker, 19 years of age, if true, proves the case of the treasury against Wilde. Counsel for Wilde and Taylor reserved the right to cross-examine Parker.

A Sensation!

REV. M. E. SIPLE.
Whitevale, Ont.—"I had suffered indescribable torture for two years or more, that is at times, from dyspepsia. Fearful pain and load in stomach, pain between shoulders, and sensation as of being pulled right in two, in small of back. I dieted, used patent medicines, and different doctors' medicines, all to no use. Your K. D. C. bottles, I believe, have cured me. A thousand thanks; I can study, preach, and do my work now with energy and satisfaction, as of yore."

THE WEATHER TO-DAY:
Fair to cloudy, showers.

DAY BY DAY

We are nearing summer. As we approach warm weather you will be reminded that you will require seasonable apparel, which, of course, includes Millinery, just as much as Dress Goods and Shoes. Our spring opening was a pleasing success. Never were we better prepared to show our lady patrons the many beautiful articles we have gathered and imported than we were this year. Our spacious departments were crowded each afternoon with ladies whose refined tastes are usually difficult to please, but they were all of one mind, that our display far exceeded their expectations—and they expected much, our former successes being remembered.

MAIN POINTS.

It should always be borne in mind that the leading store carries the leading goods, bought in the leading markets. These are some of our main points. We aim at pleasing our patrons always. We want them to come again. Our Dress Goods Department is stocked to the fullest extent with European novelties, in color, shade and design, and our prices are ruled and regulated by our determination to place at the disposal of our customers the very best article of its kind in Drygoods at the very lowest possible prices. This is the principle that has aided us in building up such a large trade, and after having built it up, of retaining it. We would like every woman in London, married or single, to inspect our stock. We are confident we have the piece of goods that will suit you both in the matter of price and quality.

A FALSE ACCUSATION.

Substitution of Inferior Remedies in St. John Strongly Denied.

ST. JOHN, N. B., April 6.—A report has been circulated in this city to the effect that there has been a systematic attempt on the part of a certain druggist to palm off upon his customers an inferior imitation of Dodd's Kidney Pills with the statement that they were equally effective. An investigation has shown, however, that there is no truth in the report, druggists invariably declaring that the remedy is the best they can sell and that as one purchase of the medicine invariably leads to another, it would be contrary to their own interests to attempt the substitution of anything inferior.

MURDERED THE MINISTER.

A Gang of Robbers—Farmers in Hot Pursuit.

HENNESSEY, Ok., April 6.—Last evening three of the Dover train robbers rode to the house of Rev. Godfrey, a Baptist preacher, and demanded their supper, and after securing it and robbing him of all his money and valuables, took two of the best horses he had. He remonstrated and followed against the will of his family. His body was found by neighbors five miles from his home, riddled with bullets. The farmers have organized a posse of 100 men and are giving chase. The farmers have sworn to capture the desperadoes if it takes every man in that section to do it. If captured alive they will be strung up to the first tree.

Elegant Display

We claim to have as good talent in our workrooms as any house in Canada, and certainly this season their artistic productions as exhibited in our showrooms shows great ability and exceedingly good taste.

We Ask You

To come and see for yourself what we have on view. That is the best way to judge who has the best.

One Thing Certain

That no house in this city does Millinery better than we do. We have no big double-breasted store but we have good premises for all that, and we have the capital to buy our goods, as well as any house in the world, and the advantage of smaller expenses than a good many have.

Why,

Therefore,

Can't we sell not only millinery, but all other goods, fully cheaper than other stores do that have such tremendous expenses?
