Horseshoe Upside Down For Luck.

A horseshoe represents the moon in her crescent form, and so is one of the principal symbols used to appeal to the Celestial Mother and attract her help and favor.

SOCIETIES and THE HOME

The Latest Way To Boil Eggs.

Kitchens of the large hotels are equipped with automatic egg boilers which, besides registering the number of minutes the eggs are to be boiled, pull them out of the hot water when the time is up.

USED THE WORLD OVER

are made from the juices of apples, oranges, figs and prunes and tonics. 25c. and 50c. a box.

Dorothy Dix's Letter Box

Can a Young Girl Go With a Fast Set Without Becoming Contaminated? Popularity at Seventy-The Girl Who Cannot Convince Her Sweetheart of Her Love.

Dear Miss Dix—Will you please advise me about what kind of boy and girl company I should keep to be respected? Should I go with girls that are talked about? I am just a poor, ignorant, little country girl in her early teens, and I will thank you so much

WILL ATTEND MEETING

ham Next Week For the Diocesan Convention.

NEW IDEAS FOR WORK

Miss Helen d'Avignon Returns

-May Call Girls' Rally

This Month.

Miss Helen d'Avignon, Y. W. C. A

that her office at "Lenmore" had been lecorated room.

Miss d'Avignon, who has just reand industrial departments, and the board is now looking for a qualified assistant to help her with the work.

While on her holiday she visited the "Y's" at both Cleveland and Detroit, and has brought back with her many new ideas which may be applied to the work here.

The girls' clubs are now being reorganized for the winter's work, and already many of them have been holding meetings. A big rally of the

COMMITTEE ALLOTS SPACE

The dividing of the Winter Garden into four streets, and the alloting of the space to each organization for a booth, was the chief business taken up vesterday at a most income.

STREETS OF WONDERLAND

judge people by their associates. When you see a boy member of a tough gang you won't be far wrong if you set him down as a hoodlum; and when you behold a girl running with a fast set.

This is why it is so important for a young girl, in choosing her associates, to pick out the right kind. They tag her, and what they are every one believes her to be.

GIRLS, SECRETARY HAS If you go with boys and girls whose conduct is a scandal in the community, be sure your name will be rolled over the tongues of the gossips along with your friends. You will not escape, though you may have been is discreet as Caesar's wife, and are as innocent and pure as the Snow Maiden. You will be known by the company you keep.

And you cannot touch pitch without becoming defiled, Esther. You cannot walk a muddy road and keep your skirts clean. You cannot associate with fast girls and boys without becoming sporty yourself. We all unconsciously take on the attributes of those about We acquire the accent, the tastes and habits of those with

You may be shocked at first at a smutty story, but if the people with whom you live are given to that form of wit, you soon cease to blush and get to telling broad jokes yourself. You may be horrified at the liberties girls let boys take with them, but if all the girls do it, you actually come to think that your first reaction against it was prudery, and not maidenly modesty, and you can see no harm in a kiss yourself. So, little Esther, choose your friends very wisely and carefully. Select the nice, sweet, wholesome young girls who are not talked about, and the retaries and some members of the board, were present to welcome her fine, clean boys for your friends and playmates. You will be glad, not ashamed, to be classed with them, and judged by them. And you will get and tea was served in the freshlyonly good out of their company.

Here's a good rule to use in picking out your associates: Never go with a boy whose conduct or conversation makes you blush. Never go with a girl whose conduct you have to make apologies or for whom you have to make excuses to other people. DOROTHY DIX.

Dear Dorothy Dix-Why is age looked upon as a disgrace? Why are we ashamed of being old, and lie about our age? Why does no one—not even old people themselves—like to have old people about? Why are old ple made to feel that they are looked upon as burdens, and regarded as bores, and why does every one who has to talk to an old person look as if he or she were going through a martyrdom?

Don't tell me that these things are not true, because I know better. I am an old man, but I am not senile. Nevertheless, I can perceive that younger people avoid my society as if I were the Ancient Mariner, and I can but admit that I, in my turn, escape that of my elders if I can. Yet urely, by all the laws of reason, age that has seen so much, and experienced so much, and learned so much, should be more interesting that callow

So I ask you again, why is age a badge of shame instead of being

I do not agree with my correspondent that the public generally regards booth, was the chief business taken up yesterday at a meeting of the Sreets of Wonderland committee, held in the Winter Gardens. Every women's organization, which is assisting in this affair, sent one or more representatives to the meeting, which proved a most enthusiastic one.

The decorations and costumes were also decided upon' in order that the color schemes of the adjoining booths would not conflict. Mrs. J. B. Leech is convener of the decorating commitage as a disgrace. Personally, we all want to keep young because youth is the beauty time, and the joy time of life, but we look upon the old age of others with a certain reverence and respect, and a great tenderness.

When you come down to brass tacks, popularity rests upon personality with both age and youth alike. Whether we like to have an individual around, and enjoy talking to such a one depends upon the congeniality of the man or woman, not his or her age.

The real reason that old people, as a class, are not more sought

They tell over the same stories a thousand times, and spend hours recounting their exploits in the Civil War, or what they did when their first babics cut their teeth. Or they whine and complain about their gout, after socially is that so many old people permit themselves to be-

Or they become mere incarnate selfishness and tyranny and rule every one about them with a rod of iron. Or they hold forth perpetually on the decadence of modern life, and dismally prophesy that the world is going to the dogs, and opine that every day, in every way, everybody and every thing is worse and worse. Or they have the advice complex, and try to force everybody about them to live according to their way of thinking

We don't avoid the egotistic, the garrulous, the pessimistic, the buttinskis because they are seventy. We fight just as shy of them when they are seventeen. It isn't the age, it's what the individual has to give us. And when we find an old man or woman who has kept sweet, and gentle, and broad-minded, and interested in others more than in themselves, we enjoy them even more than we do youth, because they are rarer, and have a mellower flavor.

There is a great art in growing old gracefully, and wise are those who begin in middle age to study it.

DOROTHY DIX.

Dear Miss Dix-How can I convince my sweetheart that I love him? I tell him so over and over again. I have given up all other men for him, and never go anywhere except with him, yet still he doubts my affection for him. Do you think the fact that I am a few years older than he makes him feel this way?

Go to it, lady. In the classic language of the street, your beau is "stringing" you. There's never any trouble in convincing a man that you love him. He thinks you do, because you couldn't help it

Did you ever hear of a middle-aged man lying awake at night worrying over keeping his wife's affection, or dieting to maintain a boyish figure like the one she fell in love with? No, my child, it's women who wonder if men really, truly, love them, and mean all they say when they swear vows of eternal devotion. It never even crosses a man's mind that a woman isn't Truthful Jane when she tells him he is It with her for keeps

Either your sweetheart is just teasing you, in order to have you say it over to him again when you tell him that you love him, or will be wise to put the soft pedal on your sweet talk for a while, and let him do a little of the lovemaking. Man's appetite for candy

As for the age question, that depends on the individual man's taste. Some like women who will mother them. Others prefer flappers. But, generally speaking, it is a mistake for the man not to be older because age quicker in looks than men do, and every woman is born spirit-lder than any man ever gets to be. DOROTHY DIX. ually older than any man ever gets to be. DORO Copyright, 1923, by Public Ledger Company.

VELVETEX - VELVETEX - VELVETEX DON'T THROW YOUR OLD CARPETS AWAY.

VELVETEX - VELVETEX - VELVETEX

would not conflict. Mrs. J. B. Leech is convener of the decorating committee. The members of the finance committee, including Mrs. H. A. Mc-Callum and Mrs. J. J. Foote were also present. The general conveners of the affair are Mrs. F. J. Green-away, Mrs. A. E. Miller and Mrs. H. J Sutherland, with Mrs F. E. Johnston as secretary. TENNIS AT SPRINGBANK. The lady members of the London oan Company staff enjoyed a lively Loan Company staff enjoyed a lively game of tennis at Springbank Park Thursday afternoon. At the conclusion of the game the party were the guests of Mrs. Fred Lewis, at whose home they partook of a dainty chicken dinner. The party included Misses L. Kerr, E. Pearson, O. Cossey, E. Wardle, and P. Fletcher.

Waists Draperies Dresses Ginghams Sweaters Stockings

Each 15-cent package of "Diamond Dyes" contains directions so simple any woman can dye or tint any old, worn, faded thing new, even if she has never dyed before. Drug stores sell all colors.—Advt.

"Vampire Complexion" Is Natural, She Says

daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Moote, Princess avenue, who will play the title role in "Trust Emily," to be presented by the Drama League at the end of the month. Miss Moote has already had some experience in amateur framatic work in the city, and people are looking forward with interest to visiting her uncle, Mr. Milton, Moorehouse, Grand avenue. girls' work secretary, was accorded a warm welcome when she returned to the city on Thursday. She found Miss Constance Givins, Wolfe street, is in Port Huron, the guest of Judge C. R. Black and Mrs. Black. edecorated, and many attractive lit-le things added to the room to make t more comfortable. The members of the house staff, several of the sec-Mrs. M. M. Maxwell, of Stratford, is spending the week-end with her brother, F. C. Wanless, Byron avenue.

Social and Personal

Mr. and Mrs. John Mackenzie of Sarnia were recent guests with Dr. and Mrs. Colin Smith, Maitland Mrs. Harry Angus and her two turned to London, after holidaying at her home in Windsor, takes over the secretaryship of both the girls' work ons of Toronto are guests with Mr. Robert Angus and Miss Angus, Prin-

Miss Doris Belton was the hostess of a dinner of six covers last evening, aking her guests on to Miss Elganor

Mrs. (Dr.) L. W. Pritchett will receive informally at her home in Queen's avenue, the second and fourth Thursday of each month, Mrs. F. Earle Johnston, Renwick avenue, is giving a shower in aid of the baby booth of the Robinson Menue, was the hostess this week of Street Church early in December

morial bazaar Tuesday afternoon

Miss Helen Hanna, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. A. W. Hanna, Dufferin avenue, for the past two weeks, has returned to Detroit, where she is in training in Grace Hospital. Mrs. B. C. McCann was in Stratford on Thursday, where she ad-dressed the Stratford Branch of the Catholic Women's League. Mrs. Mc-Cann was the guest of Miss Blair while in Stratford.

Miss Dochstader is entertaining on Tuesday night in honor of Miss Myrtle Corvin, a bride-to-be of next month. Miss Corvin is well known in the city as a member of the pub-lic school teaching staff.

Grant Falls entertained last evening at a dinner at the Kennels in honor of Miss Marion Stodart and honor of Miss Marion Stodar Mr. Ted White, whose marriage takes place Monday. The guests went on to Miss Robinson's dance. Covers were laid for sixteen.

A euchre has been arranged by Forest City Chapter, O. E. S., to be held Thursday afternoon next in the Alma Block. This affair, which will be convened by Mrs. Charles Mc-Gladdery, is in aid of the drill team of the chapter.

Miss Bertha Smith, head of the Child Welfare Nurses of the city. goes to Detroit at the beginning of the week to attend the meeting of the American Child Health Association being held there Monday, Tues-

Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Lawrason, re-turned recently from Toronto where they were honored with platform seats to hear Lloyd George. Mr. and Mrs. Lawrason also had the pleasure of meeting David Lloyd George and his charming wife and daughter. Mrs. J. Burnham is lending her home on Lorne avenue, Oct. 24, for an afternoon tea, being given under the auspices of the Boyle Memorial Mothers' Club. Mrs. R. J. Rowan will speak on her experiences in the Yukon mission field, and a musical program will also be arranged.

Mrs. Ronald Harris, president of the London branch of the Red Cross Society, expects to attend the meeting of the Ontario division of the Red Cross which is being held in Toronto on October 22. Mrs. Harris will also attend the meeting of the Red Cross Council, which takes place and the following day.

on the following day. Miss Meta Patterson, who is to be one of the October brides, was the guest of honor at a kitchen shower, given by Mrs. Gordon England, York street, recently. The bride-elect also received a lovely bouquet of roses, which were presented by little Nelles England, the small son of the hostess.

The semi-finals in the ladies' four-some, played on the course at the Hunt Club, resulted as follows: Mrs. Ronald Harris and Mrs. C. H. Hill defeated Mrs. John Wishart and Mrs. W. C. Falls; Miss Jo Belton and Miss Audrey Farncombe defeated Mrs. E. H. Nelles and Mrs. Claude Brown. The finals are to be played off on Monday.

Monday.

Miss Alma Iverson of Fargo, North Dakota, whose marriage to Mr. Allinson H. McLean of this city takes place next week, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John McLean, St. George street. Miss Iverson was accompanied by her twin sister, Miss Amanda Iverson, who is to be bridesmaid. Mrs. A. A. McLeish of Chatham is also with Mr. and Mrs. McLean (or a becoming gown of green velvet, heavily beaded in silver, and the guest of honor was gowned in rose taffeta and silver. Miss Helen Gibson of Toronto, house guest with Miss Robinson, where a smart frock of black velvet.

Miss Edna Nagle entertained at Miss Edna Nagle entertained at supper recently in honor of Miss Myrtle Corvin, a bride of November. Those present were friends who had summered with Miss Corvin, the guests of Miss Laura Gay at her cottage. Sauble Beach, and they presented the guest of honor with a lovely picture of Sauble Falls. Those present were Miss Isabel Davis, Miss Lily Hoffman. Miss Nina North and Miss Laura Gay.

Mrs. S. Floyd Jones was the hostess this afternoon of a charming bridge given in honor of Miss Wanza Jones, a bride-elect of. November. Three tables of bridge were arranged, a number of guests dropping in at the tea hour. The guests were: Mrs. Llewelyn Purdom, Mrs. Streets of Wonderland," which is being given in December in aid of the Children's Hospital equipment.

Norval Jones, Miss Margaret Purdom, Mrs. Linton Jones, Miss Isabel Tanton, Mrs. Lebert Jones, Mrs. O. Newton, Miss Amy Blair, Mrs. Merong Jones, Mrs. O. Newton, Miss Amy Blair, Mrs. Merong Jones, Mrs. Stevenson, Mrs. Stuart Jones and Miss Ashplant.

Miss Violet McFarland was the Mrs. E. Connors and Mrs. M. Young. The proceeds of the euchre will be devoted to the dolls' booth of which the lodge has charge at the great bazaar, "The Streets of Wonderland," which is being given in December in aid of the Children's Hospital equipment.

Mrs. Hugh Griffiths recently lent her home to the children's booth committee in connection with the big bazaar which Ruth Chapter, O. E. S. intends holding, and one of the pretiest teas of the season was held there. Mantel lamp and candles lent

POSTPONE NURSES' MEETING.

Because of the fact that several of Because of the fact that several of kitchen utensils, also a porcelaintopped kitchen table. The small gifts were brought in by little Thelma Johnston, dressed as a tiny I bride. Games, followed by a singsong, were enjoyed. The guests were Misses G. Mottashed, F. Miller, D. Palmer, K. McGregor, E. Stephens, D. Eggett, D. Mallet, M. Graham, A. Baldwin, I. Hayward, T. Bamford Baldwin, I. Hayward, T. Bamford and Mrs. R. Geohegan.

Miss Helen Ball, Princess avenue. True Kindred Conclave Lodge, to be is spending a week in Windsor and Detroit.

Miss Mary Axford of Alvinston is Mrs. Louise Arbuckle and Mrs. Mary visiting her uncle. Mr. Milton, Horner will be in charge in the after a ferroun teams averaged from the conclave Louise Arbuckle and Mrs. Mary best lone hand. At the close of the conclave Louise in the after a ferroun teams are was served from the conclave was served from the conclave was served from the conclave Lodge, to be winner of the prize offered for the highest score. Mrs. G. Eadle captured second prize for score, while the conclave Lodge, to be winner of the prize offered for the highest score. Mrs. G. Eadle captured second prize for score, while the conclave Lodge, to be winner of the prize offered for the highest score. Mrs. G. Eadle captured second prize for score, while the conclave Lodge, to be winner of the prize offered for the highest score. Mrs. G. Eadle captured second prize for score, while the conclave Lodge in the conclave Lodge, to be winner of the prize offered for the highest score. Mrs. G. Eadle captured second prize for score, while the conclave Lodge in the conclave Lodge in the conclave Lodge in the store with the prize of the highest score. Mrs. G. Eadle captured second prize for score, while the conclave Lodge in Mrs. Louise Arbuckie and Mrs. Mary Horner will be in charge in the afternoon, tea was served from tables noon and in the evening. Mrs. John May will act as convener. This affair will be to raise funds to carry on the social service work of the lodge.

FRUIT-A-TIVES LIMITED, Ottawa, Ont.

Miss Violet McFarland was the hostess recently of a shower given at the home of her mother, Mrs. Tucker, King street, in honor of Mrs. G. McLougal, formerly Miss Ivy Grant, a bride of this week, Mrs. McDougald received a number of kitchen utensils, also a porcelaintoned with a process of the season was held there. Mantel lamp and candles lent their pretty glow to the living-room. effectively decorated with autumn flowers. One darkened corner was reserved for the gypsy fortune-teller, known as Madame X., but in reality Mrs. Otto Thies. During the afternoon quantities of lovely baby things and gifts for small children were and gifts for small children were brought to be put on sale in the booth. In the tearoom, Mrs. Stuart McCallum branch presided, pouring from an antique pot, loaned for the occasion. She was assisted by Mrs. Wm. Bendail and Mrs. Bice. Mrs. Griffiths was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Oliver Brady and Mrs. William Thompson.

SAFE FAT REDUCTION

the nurses are going to Detroit next week to attend the meeting of the American Child Health Association, the meeting of graduate nurses, who have no home hospital in the city, called for Monday night, has been postponed. This meeting, which will be for the purpose of organizing a Nures' Association in the city, will

SAFE FAT REDUCTION

Begget, D. Mallet, M. Graham, A assisted in receiving by Mrs. Oliver and bady had some experience in amateur are are looking forward with interest to look and Mrs. R. Geohegan.

A happy and successful function of vesterday afternoon was the progress of the Rebekah disagrates and mushes by Miss Smith and hiss Ruth Heximar. The success of the tea was certainly due to the untiring efforts of the convener of the lodge in play, Mrs. Arnes being the fortunate winner of the prize offered for in play, Mrs. Arnes being the fortunate winner of the prize offered for Mrs. Louise Arbuckle and Mrs. Mary Horner will be in charge in the afternoon and in the evening. Mrs. John May will act as convener. This affair will be to raise funds to carry on the social service work of the lodge.

Miss Eleanor Robinsor was the social service work of the lodge.

Miss Eleanor Robinsor was the social service work of the lodge.

Miss Eleanor Robinsor was the splendid work of the joint conveners, two new members pouring at the Highland Club in and their energetic committee inhonor of Miss Marion Stodart and cluding Miss Glen, Mrs. C. Perrin, looking the restriction and helplessness; revoling at the winner of the Rebekah hiss Ruth Heximar. The success of the tea was certainly due to the untiring efforts of the convenier of the convenier. Mrs. Bert Logan and her excellent committee, Mrs. Lexikey, Mrs.

Wills D. Eggett, D. Malet, M. Graham, A. An interesting musical program included vocal numbers by Mi

On Sale now - At Your Grocer's

"The Quest" Weston's Newest English Quality Biscuit

Weston's English Biscuit
Bakery

OUR English master-makers have scored another triumph. From an inimitable Old Country recipe and by the aid of the most modern English baking equipment they have produced one of the most delightful wafers ever offered the Canadian table.

The "Quest" is Weston's latest English Biscuit creation—a delectable short-bread wafer, thin, crisp and oven-fresh, stamped with a reproduction of Shackleton's famous

We do not believe we have ever produced a more delicious biscuit or one that will prove more popular.

We wrote Lady Shackleton

Telling her of our idea of making a biscuit with a reproduction of the "Quest" and named after it. She graciously replied: "I am sure Sir Earnest would have been interested in your idea of making a biscuit reproducing the "Quest" and named after it. I send you my best wishes for its success."

The Late Sir Ernest

On receiving the biscuits, Lady Shackleton wrote: "The biscuits were delicious and the design quite unique.'

Try the "Quest" to-night yourself, and you'll think so, too!

Geo. Weston, Limited, Toronto

The QUEST Weston's New English Quality Biscuit