The government thad pressed the charges against Planta as strongly as they were able.
Dr. Walkemigin closing the debate, said that while, he did not say that the said that while, he did not say that the matter because they had had complete confidence in Planta, and for that matter so had everyone else, yet his returns were too loosely made, and what he (Dr. Walkem) wanted to know was whether the government was ready to make good to the helpless orphan of Blakeway the money that Planta had not accounted for.
The resolution was carried.
On consideration of the report of the bill to amend the "Lillooet, Fraser River and Cariboo Gold Fields, Limited, Act, 1896," Mr. Macpherson moved to add the fieldwing as new sections:
