

It Needs No Painting

THOSE neat sparkling roofs with their crushed mineral shining in the sun—you see them all over the country—they are Amette roofs.

The fact that Amette roofs are so painting means a great saving to those who use it.

It is also a great convenience not to have to paint roofs.

Many buyers have adopted the policy of using nothing but Amette owing to this economy and satisfaction.

A booklet about Amette will be sent free on request. Address our nearest office.

Crenoid See Dealer and See Sample

Crenoid is a new type of paint that prevents decay and keeps them at a distance. The cost is trifling.

Everjet Elastic Paint

GRADUATE WAS IN WABANA BUNKERS

Working as Laborer While Parents Search for Him World Over

Montreal, Sept. 13.—His face begrimed with soot and his clothing in a dilapidated condition, Arthur Thomas Perch, 19 years of age, a graduate of the famous Harrow School of England, appeared before Judge Lafontaine in the Arraignment Court charged with deserting the steamer "Sargasso" at Quebec on July 13.

The appearance of Perch in court this morning terminated a world-wide search, extended over two months, conducted by his parents, resulted in finding the boy working as a common fireman in the coal bunkers of the steamer Wabana, now in port.

In December he entered the merchant service as an apprentice on the steamer "Sargasso". For six months things went well, and then the coming sailor found his duties becoming very irksome.

He left the ship but money gave out and he soon was glad to get a job as common coal heaver on the steamer "Wabana" where he worked until discovered.

When young Perch heard that the case against him was dismissed and that he was going to be sent home by the next steamer, he was delighted.

ZAM-BUK PROVED BEST AMBULANCE BRIGADES ADOPT IT

Zam-Buk has now been selected as the balm to be carried by the members of the St. John Ambulance Brigade. This is further proof of its superiority.

Mr. G. W. Pyatt, of 15 Southview Avenue, Toronto, Superintendent of the Riverside Division of the St. John Ambulance Brigade, writes: "Both in personal use and in first aid work I have proved Zam-Buk to be of great value. I have used it for the past five years, and I do not believe there is any other balm to come up to it."

Mr. Geo. H. Westmore, of 127 Yonge Street, Toronto, Divisional Superintendent of the St. John Ambulance Brigade, also writes: "I am pleased to report that the members of this Brigade use Zam-Buk when on public duty, and find it very useful. It is a wonderful healer. Personally, I constantly use Zam-Buk in my calling as a chiropodist, and find it very helpful in healing sore feet, and as a dressing for corns and bunions after treatment and extraction."

Surely a balm that is worthy of a place in the wallet of an ambulance officer should find a place in your home! You may not require it to-day or next week, but as accidents don't give warning, be prepared. Zam-Buk is commended on the scientific lines. It is at the same time soothing, healing and antiseptic; keeps good. Zam-Buk is a sure cure for skin diseases, eczema, piles, old sores, cuts, burns, poisoned wounds, ringworm, abscesses, sprains, scalds, boils, ulcers, blood-poison, etc. 50 cents, at all drug stores and stores. Refuse harmful substitutes and imitations. There is nothing "Just as good."

HATED BEING A GIRL

Toronto, Sept. 14.—Miss Benedictine Wiseman, of Montreal, who has been working as a boy in Toronto for some months, was quite defiant when she appeared in police court Saturday charged with vagrancy. She positively refused to dress herself in skirts to go into court. Further, she would not go to the Salvation Army. She was remanded for a week to stay with friends.

"I just hated being a girl. That's why I dressed up like this. A boy has ten chances where a girl has one—and I'll go back to boy's clothes when I get a chance," she asserted to the court.

Some present had difficulty in making themselves say "her" and "she." They had known her for some time, and never suspected she was a girl; but "Jimmy" never used bad language nor smoked cigarettes. "She" gave some of her money, too, to the old lady, who befriended her and declares herself she was getting along fine.

The police claim they have known for some time that "Jimmy" was a girl, but as it is not contrary to law for women to wear men's clothes, nothing could be done until it was learned that her parents were seeking her. "Jimmy" is to live with her friends for a week and then go home if the defiant attitude fades away a little.

HUNGER MAY STOP THE DUBLIN STRIKE

Both Sides Hold Out But End Must Soon Come

New York, Sept. 15.—A London cable says that hunger has become the ally of organized capital in the fight against the Dublin workers. By the end of this week the spectre of starvation will be a grim reality in the slums of the city, where life at its best is a hand to mouth struggle to keep body and soul together.

There is no sign of weakening, however, on the part of James Larkin deluded followers, despite steady and ominous growth day by day of employers' lockout.

Larkin, speaking at a labor meeting in Manchester yesterday, said he believed he had a divine mission to make men and women discontented. Since he went to Ireland, in 1907, he had raised the flag of discontent from Belfast to Cork and through a new hope and gospel to the working classes of Ireland.

If you knew of the real value of Chamberlain's Liniment for lame back, soreness of the muscles, sprains and rheumatic pains, you would never wish to be without it. For sale by all dealers.

"Come, come, don't be too angry at your son. You ought to make allowances for the extravagance of youth." "You but not cash allow; none!"—Baltimore American.

PRINCESS TO PAY CASH OR GO HUNGRY

Got No Dinner Until Secretary Found Some One to Lend $100

Berlin, Sept. 15.—Great sensations are promised in the coming trial for usury and swindling of Countess Elizabeth von Trenberg, the daughter of a poor tailor, who acquired her title by marrying a retired naval lieutenant, Count Ernest von Trenberg, and gained notoriety through the luxurious life she was able to lead, it is said, by means of her financial operations in acting as agent and broker between money lenders and people in high stations.

At one time she was active in obtaining money for Princess Louise of Belgium, who is being pursued by a swarm of debt collectors from four countries. When Princess Louise was asked to leave a certain Berlin hotel in 1909, after running up a bill of many thousands of dollars, she went to an even higher hotel. There the management told her that her credit would be limited to $4,000. She engaged the imperial suite, the cost of which, including meals for herself and her secretary, Count Giza Matichick, amounted to $100 a day.

The Princess exhausted her credit within a couple of months, and thereafter no dinner was served her until the $100 for that day had been paid. More than once it happened that dinner grew cold and the Princess hungry while her secretary skimped around trying to find someone who would consider it an honor to pay the Princess's board bill for that day in order that she might have something to eat.

It was during these searches, which daily became more difficult, that Matichick learned of Countess Treuberg and her ability to raise money. A meeting of the Countess and Princess followed, and the Countess not only succeeded in obtaining numerous loans for the Princess but obtained credit for fine gowns, robes and furs at numerous establishments, for all of which, it is alleged, Mrs. Treuberg exacted usurious commissions.

When even the wonderful resourcefulness of the Countess gave out, a plan was made, and it is charged executed, whereby the Princess ordered books aggregating $50,000, paying for them with a cheque and immediately reselling them elsewhere for $20,000 cash.

It is also rumored that the trial will disclose sensations concerning prominent women in high society in Berlin who have called upon Countess Treuberg to help them.

Few, if any, medicines have met with the uniform success that has attended the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. The remarkable cures of colic and diarrhoea which it has effected in almost every neighborhood have given it a wide reputation. For sale by all dealers.

MEMBER OF P.E.I. CABINET RESIGNS

Toronto, Sept. 15.—A Globe special from Charlottetown says that the Hon. Murdoch Kennedy has resigned as a member of the Prince Edward Island Government on account of an alleged difference with the Premier on the auto question, and that his resignation has been accepted.

After stating that it is an open secret that at a recent meeting of the Government "a very hot discussion, one might almost say a big row, occurred at the Council Board and there were rumors of coats coming off and a pugilistic encounter about to take place," the despatch adds:

"This is the first time in over thirty years that any member of the Government has resigned owing to a difficulty with his colleagues, and it is generally believed that the auto question is given as an excuse to cover up some deeper and more important reason."

A street car flit tried in every way to attract the attention of the pretty young girl opposite him. Just as he had about given up, the girl, entirely unconscious of what had been going on, happened to glance in his direction. The flit immediately took fresh courage.

"It's cold out today, isn't it?" he ventured.

The girl smiled and nodded assent, but had nothing to say.

"My name is Specknoodel," he volunteered.

"Oh, I am so sorry," she said, sympathetically, as she left the car.
