OBITUARY

JACOB SAUNDERS

Death claimed one of Brooke town ship's most highly respected and worthy pioneers, in the person of Jacob Saunders, on Monday, April 13th, after a lingering illness since last fall. Although Mr. Saunders suffered a great deal he bore it all with great patience and steadfastness in his Maker.

Jacob, the third son of the late Absalom Saunders, was born on the 14 con. of Brooke, on June 29, 1867, but when he became a young man moved with his parents to Sutorville which was then the "Swamp." With his father and brothers they built a home and cleared the land which was then all bush, thus enjoying the pioneer life. Later they erected a saw mill, employing many men and succeeded in making the burden lighter for themselves, also the whole community. Today, situated where father and sons first settled there are 300 or 400 acres of the best land and buildings that can be found in the county.

In the year 1894 Mr. Saunders was married to Miss Emma Holbrook, also of Brooke, who survives, also one daughter, Mrs. Robt. F. Capes, of the 6th line.

Religiously, Mr. Saunders was a Methodist, being a member and steward of Bethesda church. He took a very great interest in the church, serving on the official board for many years.

The funeral was held on Wednesday afternoon to the Family Cemetery, 9 sideroad, the C.O.F. being in charge, he being an estimable member. Over a hundred cars took part in the procession while the floral offerings were many and beautiful, which all went to show his outstanding qualities as a neighbor. His whole ambition was to help others, to bring joy and happiness to all those who he came in contact with.

Besides his widow and daughter, five brothers and two sisters survive: Abraham and Isaac of the West, Thos. of Sarnia two, Daniel and John of Brooke, also Mrs. Allan Eaddy and Mrs. Wm. Reid of London.

MRS. WILLIAM WATSON

The funeral of Mrs. William Watson was largely attended. She died suddenly while riding home from the funeral of Mrs. William Simpson. Interment was made in Wyoming cemetery.

Besides the floral tributes to the family was one from the Baptist church, one from St. Andrew's (where deceased attended before moving to the town line) one from the section and several from neighbors and friends. The services were conducted by Rev. Tiffin of the Baptist church, assisted by Rev. Loveday.

Survivors are the husband, five daughters, Mrs. J. Whitehead of the 12th line east, Mrs. Alex. Rundle, Mrs. Tom Coristine and Mrs. John Bourne of Brooke, and Mrs. Hugh Simpson of the 12th line west; two sons, Frank Taylor of Detroit, and George Watson at home, and four stepchildren, Mrs. James Keay and Mrs. Wm. Coll of Moose Jaw, Sask.; James Watson of Vancouver, B.C., and Mrs. Gadsby of Dawn.
